Day 1

Transmission: 29:37

Music: Deep Inner Space - Chris Deuel

Ether, space, the void, anti-matter ... these are all descriptions of the Cosmic Element we are working with. As we begin this 13 Day Activation Journey, our perceptions and limited belief systems are challenged and stretched. We are the Cosmic Elements, embodied. The vastness of the concept we call space resides within. Science has shown that there is immense space within each cell of our body. This “empty” space holds infinite possibilities, potentialities and the “energy” which creates.

Exploring this “space” within, we tap into the magic within. You are the infinite in physicality. You are a master of Light. Yet our understanding of working with this “element or substance” is limited. As we move through these activations, the knowledge and wisdom of how to utilize this creative power increases.

We are only limited by our belief systems and thoughts. On an intuitive level, we all KNOW so much more is possible. Open up and allow your Higher Self to bust through self-limiting perceptions. It’s time to manifest at an entirely new level.
