

Day 3

Transmission: 28:58

Music: Deep Inner Space - Chris Deuel

Accessing the Cosmic Element of Ether within your body requires a certain level of Mastery. Safeguards are in place to monitor - and dare I say control - access, for our own safety and protection. Without the appropriate level of Light, i.e. Light Quotient, certain seals, portals and gateways are not accessible. These protocols remain strong, in every incarnate expression through the universe.

These activations are as much initiations as anything I've brought through before. This work is to be taken seriously. (Whew, the reason it's the last of this series, I'm sure.)

You may feel a significant amount of electrical sparking during this activation, as the process of opening up the seals, portals and gateways begins for you at the "next level".

This may feel very surreal, difficult to comprehend. Just know that connections are being made to other expressions throughout space and time when you yourself mastered working "within" the void to create.

You are - each of you - waking up to, accessing, and tapping into a very intense "sage" energy. The reverence, sacredness and responsibility feel IMMENSE.

Breathe and allow the music to support you.
