We begin the “practice” of accessing higher frequencies of Light for the purpose of co-creating and manifesting into this reality. The focus of this activation is happiness and bliss: Happiness from a soul perspective, beyond the trappings of human expectations. Both happiness and bliss are unique signature frequencies. Our language (regardless of what language is your native tongue) signals this frequency within the 3rd, 4th and 5th dimensional oscillations of Light.

With this activation, and working with the Cosmic Ether within, we begin to have access to 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th dimensional oscillations of the unique frequency of happiness and bliss. As we call it in, through our zero point portal, and with the new gateways, seals and portals that have been opened, the higher frequencies can penetrate our physical and energetic matrix. This is the perfect frequency to “practice” with, as it builds a deeper connection to source energy and illuminates our understanding as it pertains to the human experience.

There is a still point, no-time no-space place, within the internal ether which exists before the thought. This emptiness or void is what we are working to access. Once we master access, then with our higher mind consciousness we are able to “ignite the spark” through our thoughts. The “combustion” or reaction cascades through our energetic and physical matrix to produce and co-create. This is conscious co-creation.

Although the process may seem simple, achieving the skill set and mastering the thought takes practice and dedication. We all manifest all the time - sometimes in a conscious way, mostly in an un-conscious way. This process, now coupled with the initiations and activations provide the capability to co-create on an entirely new level. Learning the technique with a pure heart and pure intention is the mastery we are working towards.
