Day 12

Transmission: 29:22

Music: Sean Maher - Whale Wisdom 1

Expand, expand, expand. We connect back into the grids of Light that we anchored into during Day 2. The whales, dolphins, and even fairies are present as we open up to new levels of Love.

As an ever-evolving Being of Light on the planet at this time in cosmic history, your role as an anchor and conduit of higher and higher oscillations of Light wisdom amplifies.

We are here to anchor onto Gaia, a new energetic platform to hold consciousness within the body structures and matrix. This activation serves to upshift you even further into this role, with ease and grace.

The ancient language works to clear past lifetimes, where your co-creative powers were less than aligned, enabling you to anchor more Love in this lifetime.

Feel into this knowing and let your heart soar, your love expand and your consciousness upshift into your next level of expression.

Take care of your body, as this activation may cause another level of physical detoxification. Remember to bless everything you put into your Divine Vehicle (i.e. your body) to hold the highest truths and Light.
