Day 6

Transmission: 34:17

Music: Unseen Magic 2 - Sean Maher

We continue to a new location. This time to the South Atlantic Ocean, right off Ascension Island (yes, appropriately named I thought). Once again there is a portal of Light, an access point on the planet which opens up a flow of information from the stars.

The Sirius Star System is the origin of many cultures in this region of the world (or at least Africa). We are connecting back into lifetimes when this location was a place of heightened civilization, consciously connected to this star system.

This activation expands your body's ability to communicate inter-dimensionally, activating codes to be consciously connected to both locations - Earth and the Sirius Star System.

We know we come from the stars and many, many indigenous peoples have their origin stories from the star people. This connection helps you to remember you ARE the star people.

Breathe and allow this memory and wisdom to stream in at an entirely new level.

Allow the music to carry you into a deep place of remembrance.

Take care of your body and nervous system with lots of pure water, rest and calming activities, and supplements. Follow your guidance to what your body needs at this time.
