Email from reminder from Johanna Duncan-Poitier sent to college presidents on March 17, highlighting the following sessions:

Wednesday, April 20, 2022 – 3:30 – 5:00 pm: SUNY-wide Keynote with Michael Collins from JFF

Thursday, April 21, 2022 - 11:20 – 12:20 pm: Session A: Sustaining Focus on Equitable Student Success through Leadership Transition (recorded session)

Josh Wyner, J.D., Vice President, The Aspen Institute; Founder and Executive Director, College Excellence Program

*Session Description: How can college leadership work to ensure that momentum for guided pathways reform continues even amid leadership transitions? Josh Wyner, Executive Director of the Aspen Institute College Excellence Program, will lead this session designed to share strategies for how community college presidents, board members, and members of the cabinet can use their unique leadership positions to sustain focus on pathways work through periods of transition at the college. This session will draw from learnings from community colleges that have been finalists for the Aspen Prize and those particularly successful in implementing transformational change through guided pathways reforms to improve student success outcomes. (suggested audience: presidents, cabinet-level leaders, trustees)

Friday, April 22, 2022 - 10:30 – 11:30 pm: Role-alike Presidents & Governing board members, facilitated by Johanna Duncan-Poitier
