CLOSE CONTESTS PROMISED.

Entries Handed in and Handicaps Arranged.

The entries for Saturday's Field Day have been handed in and handicaps fixed by Track Captain Drum. The handicap system is the best way in which to bring out the best time of the men, especially in the longer races. The handicaps have been based upon the work done by the men during the past season. The officials have not yet been chosen but will probably be announced tomorrow.

The most exciting race promises to be the 440-yard race with Drum and Cadogan on the scratch line, and Bradley, Powers and Alexander each with 35 yards.

The order of events and the entries are as follows:

COMMUNICATION.

Track Manager Decoto Corrects Wrong Impressions.

Editor Californian—Dear Sir: For the benefit of the students at large, I wish to correct the impressions that have gained credence throughout the college. I wish to state that neither the military dance at Hearst Hall Saturday, nor the week at the Grand Opera House is a benefit for the Eastern trip of the Track Team. No part, whatever, of the proceeds go to the Track Team but all goes to the general treasury of the Associated Students. By this I do not mean in any way to hinder the success of these undertakings, because I think that they should be supported by every loyal collegian. What I wish to do is to correct the wrong impressions that have been wilfully or accidentally given and to prevent, if possible, such things for instance as the Thanksgiving show being advertised as a benefit for the team when the team has not received one cent of the $500 cleared on that occasion.

Yours respectfully,
Ezra W. Decoto.

Preliminary Debates.

The preliminaries for the choosing of men for the debating team were held last evening in Stiles Hall. There were two sections arranged for the contest. In the lower hall Mr. Deutsch presided, and Professors Brown and Clapp acted as judges. The following men were chosen from this section: Hote, Skaife, Aitken, Borton and L. E. Martin. Mr. Fisher presided in the other section and Judges Lange and Stratton chose Greeley, Pierce, Martin, Steinhart and Cloud to compete in the finals.

The finals will be held Thursday evening on the upper floor of Stiles Hall and each contestant will uphold the same side he argued for in the preliminary.

Stockholders' Meeting.

Yesterday at 12:10 there was no quorum at the meeting of the stockholders of the Californian Publishing Company, so no business could be transacted. Today in Room 18, North Hall, at 12:10, there will be another meeting for the transaction of important business. The meeting will be brief.

Professor Gayley would be obliged if the person who found a cane near Room 10, North Hall, between 11:15 and 12:10 Tuesday, would kindly leave it for him at the office of the Californian.

STUDENTS' LECTURE COURSE.

Letter of Thanks From Professor Seymour.

The following letter from Professor Seymour, head of the Greek Department at Yale University, will be of interest to all students who have aided to make the lecture course a success. Professor Seymour has been chairman of the Managing Committee of the American School at Athens for thirteen years past, and the moving force in all of its progress.

Dear Professor Clapp: The program of the Students' Lecture Course for the benefit of the University of California's subscription to the American School at Athens, is full of interest, and the plan seems to me to be excellent. Believing firmly, as I do, that the work of our School at Athens is of great importance for sound learning in this country, I regard the cause as worthy of the effort which your students have made.

In the history of the School nothing has been more interesting than the co-operation in its behalf of institutions of higher learning—that all matters of rivalry and private advantage should be entirely out of sight and forgotten. No other undertaking has brought into close and harmonious fellowship so many of the prominent institutions of our land. That the students themselves should take an active part in supporting the School is particularly pleasant, and I beg you to give to those who have aided you in arranging for this course of lectures the assurance of the hearty thanks of the Managing Committee of the School.

Wishing you all success, I am very sincerely yours,

THOMAS DAY SEYMOUR.

Alexander McAdie, Honorary Lecturer on Meteorology in the University of California and United States local forecast officer in San Francisco, lectured before the astronomy students at 11:15 o'clock on Tuesday morning in the new lecture room of the Students' Observatory on "Exploring the Air." At 11:15 o'clock on Thursday morning he will lecture on "Forecasting."

Professor Alfred Emerson, the celebrated archaeologist, is to lecture before the Philological Association of the Pacific Coast at 8 o'clock on Saturday evening, April 7, at the Mark Hopkins Institute of Art on "What we dig for." He will describe the methods and results of recent excavations in classic lands.

RIFLE PRACTICE.

University Record Broken by Pearce Yesterday.

The University rifle record of 47 made by West in '97 and tied by Rhodes, Frickstad and Pearce in '99, and by Rhodes and Pearce in '00 was broken yesterday by Pearce. His score was 48 out of a possible 50. Never has the interest in target practice been greater in the University than at present, and Mr. Pearce's score will set the standard of excellence still higher. The scores yesterday were as follows:

Championship class—Pearce 45-48; Vanderbilt 44-43; Baker 44; Holt 43-43; Oliver 43.

First class—Hilton 42-43; C. H. Gorrill 42; Tracy 42; Frickstad 41; C. L. Gorrill 41; Bradley 40; Wilson 40; Gould 40.

Second class—Dickson 39, Rothke 39, Taylor 38, Lehman 38.

LECTURES ON HAWAII.

Hiram Bingham Jr. to Deliver a Series of Addresses.

Hiram Bingham Jr., of Honolulu, a graduate of Yale and a post-graduate student at this University, has been invited by the university authorities to deliver a series of four lectures at the Mark Hopkins Institute of Art on "The Growth of American Supremacy in Hawaii." The lectures will be given at eight o'clock on Saturday evenings, beginning March 31. The subjects will be as follows:

1. "The Discovery of Hawaii. The Islands and the People."
2. "The Story of the Kamehamehas. Legends, Traditions and History."
3. "The Passing of the Monarchy, 1873-1893."
4. "The Struggle for Annexation. Hawaii of Today."

Mr. Bingham graduated from Yale College in 1898, and was prominent there in debating affairs. He is doing post-graduate work at this University and during President Wheeler's absence was in charge of the course in History 45. Mr. Bingham's grandfather, Hiram Bingham, was the first missionary to Hawaii and built the first church in the Islands. The lectures to be given will be of special interest in that they will present a point of view gained through personal observation and experience and made clearer through information obtained from those who have been potent factors in the historical development of the Hawaiian Islands.

COLLEGE CALENDAR.

Today, March 28.

Farmers' Institute at Bakersfield, conducted by Mr. Fowler and Assistant Professor Hayne.

11:15 a.m.—Dress parade, review and inspection of the University Cadets, in honor of the visiting Teachers of Alameda County.

3:45 p.m.—In 2 Botany Building, Botanical Seminary. Dr. Jacques Loeb, Professor of Physiology at the University of Chicago: Chemical Fertilization.

4:00 p.m.—At Stiles Hall, regular meeting of Y. M. C. A. Subject: His Will: How Made Known. Leader, R. C. Root.

8:00 p.m.—In the Auditorium of the Y. M. C. A. Building, San Francisco; University Extension Lecture. Dr. H. W. Fairbanks: Some Important Events in the Geological History of the Pacific Coast;—8. The Glacial Period in the Sierra Mountains.

The by-laws published yesterday complete the scheme of government for the Associated Students as proposed by the revision committee. They carry out the movement towards centralization noted in the constitution itself. If any exceptions are to be taken to it—up to date no one seems to have been at the pains to express any—they will probably affect this feature, simply because we are nationally and constitutionally opposed to such an organization. The good features of the present constitution are those which make for centralization and its shortcomings are in its divisions of responsibility. Hence it seems the part of wisdom to put aside any undefined objections and to accept what the teachings of experience dictate. If we shall ever be so unfortunate as to have an inefficient management, the less damage will result from the localization of the responsibility; if we shall have a dishonest one?—we have no such expectation.

The changes proposed promise to deal well on the whole with past deficiencies. They secure permanence leave no divisions of responsibility.

grant ample powers but require careful supervision and strict accountability. The mechanism looks fair enough and the important thing now is to select the proper manager (for to him is the most delegated) to put it into execution.

Military Ball.

Tickets for the military ball to be given Saturday evening at Hearst Hall are now on sale at the Co-op, and may be procured by University students at one dollar for each double ticket. The number, however, is limited to one hundred and twenty-five tickets to insure no overcrowding.

The committee in charge wish it distinctly understood that the entertainment is not an officer's affair. Privates and officers are expected to wear white duck trousers and military blouses. The intention is to make the dance a representative college affair.

The proceeds from the sale of tickets will not go to the fund for the sending of the Track Team east, but will be devoted to paying off part of the accumulated debt of the Associated Students.

Charter Day Banquet.

The alumni and former students of the University of California living in Los Angeles celebrated Charter Day by their annual gathering and banquet. Professor George C. Edwards, who was their guest, in a letter to the University speaks as follows of the occasion:

"It is a loyal band, I assure you. The eagerness to learn of the progress of the University in each of its many forms of activity put your humble servant on the witness stand until near midnight. There were toasts to the University, to President Wheeler, to Mrs. Hearst, to dear Professor Joe, to Professor Moses and others. The future home of the University was talked of; the many ways in which Mrs. Hearst is showing her interest in the young people of the State was not overlooked; the satisfaction of President Wheeler's visit here, the doings of the student body, the debating contests, the baseball, football and the track team were all up for consideration, and all were sources of much interest and congratulation. The set of young fellows here is a fine one, and the spirit is a very pleasing one to meet. By the way, I must not forget to mention the fact that the button-hole bouquets in blue and gold were sent to the banquet by the University daughters living in Los Angeles."

Jacques Loeb to Lecture.

Dr. Jacques Loeb of the University of Chicago, who is now at Pacific Grove pursuing his investigations on artificial fertilization, will visit the University of California today. At 3:45 o'clock this afternoon he will speak before the biology seminary in Room 2 of the Botany Building. He will describe the highly important scientific results which he has obtained in his investigations in parthenogenesis. He will discuss the application of physical and chemical methods of biological research, and dwell particularly upon his recent experiments, in which the eggs of the female sea urchin have been made to develop simply by the admixture of magnesium chloride with the water.
