

Nationwide Spread Of Migratory Problem Feared

McWilliams Sees Rise of Peasantry For Dirt Farmer

NEW YORK, March 7.—(UP)—The migratory labor problem in the West "may be a preview of the fate that may await dirt farmers elsewhere," Carey McWilliams, California commissioner of immigration and housing, said tonight.

Speaking at "America's town meeting of the air," he warned that industrialized agriculture of the type "entrenched in California" may spread throughout the United States. "Where this type of agriculture develops, you may expect to find an army of migratory workers employed for a few months of the year at extremely low wages and supported, if at all, by a miserable dole in the off-season period," he said. "This development, unless it is corrected, is likely to produce a condition worse than peasantry in this country."

Other speakers on the broadcast were Rexford Guy Tugwell, former director of the Resettlement administration; Phillip Bancroft, member of the executive committee of the Associated Farmers of California and director of the California Walnut Growers' association; and Hugh Bennett, chief of the U. S. Soil Conservation service. The subject discussed was "What Should America Do for the Joads?" The Joads were central characters in John Steinbeck's novel, "The Grapes of Wrath," which dealt with migrant workers in California. Bancroft defended California farmers and communities against charges that they had treated the migratory workers poorly. He said that the problem was national and not local in scope and that "it is about time for the well-paid economists, professors, governmental jobholders and other politicians, as well as our sensational authors, to give up their favorite indoor sport of abusing and sniping at our California farmers and to do some constructive work to remedy what is, after all, a national economic problem."

'Femmes' to Observe Leap Year Theme At 'Frolic' Tomorrow

Leap year will be observed to the utmost at the "Femmes Frolic" assembly dance from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m. tomorrow in the Gymnasium for Men.

Gene Englander's orchestra will play for the dance, which will feature tag dances for women, according to Ray Cayot '40, dance chairman.

Students attending the dance will participate in a poll to determine whether dance prices will be raised to enable hiring of more expensive orchestras, Cayot said.

Present admission rates, with registration card, are 25 cents for men, 10 cents for women.

Bears to Face Stanford in Rugby Match

By Bill Jones '41

Another Big Game hits Berkeley tomorrow when the Bear Varsity rugby fifteen battles the Stanford ruggers at 2 p. m. in Memorial stadium for the Pacific Coast Conference title.

An added attraction between the Bear reserves and the Card javvee fifteens will be played immediately following the Varsity contest.

Since rugby is a haven for football players during the Spring semester, tomorrow's game will have a favorable share of grid stars represented on both teams. Such names as Pete Kmetovic, Hugh Gallerneau, and Frankie Albert for Stanford, and Bill Hutters, Glen Whalen, Orv Hatcher, Ted Staffler, Paul Holmes, Jean Witter, and Dick Folmer for California, are all found in the starting lineup.

LAST HOME GAME FOR BEARS

The contest will be the last for the Bears on their home field. A week from tomorrow the Varsity squad will entrain for Canada where on March 20 and 23 they meet the University of British Columbia and the B. C. Province All-Stars.

Coach Miles Hudson announced yesterday that two Bear stars—Munroe Benson and Fred Davey—will be out of the contest. Benson is suffering from a hip pointer while Davey's leg, which has been injured in practically every game this season, has failed to respond to treatment.

To account for these losses, Hudson revealed that he will probably use Pete Youdall in the forward line in place of Davey. Will Rogers will take over Youdall's previous job in the rear rank. Benson's position is to be filled by Jess Wilson, who will be replaced by Folmer.

STANFORD ATTACK FEATURES FAST BREAKAWAY

Stanford's attack is built around Aubrey Austin, swift breakaway, who has scored the majority of the Cards' goals this year. Kmetovic and Gallerneau will also have to be watched, but Hudson stated that with Hatcher and Hutters covering them, he expects the Card stars to be successfully bottled up.

The starting lineup is as follows:

CALIFORNIA	Pos.	STANFORD
Shelton	F	Thompson
Witter	F	Pierce
Wilson	F	Hickenbotham
Holmes	F	Ugrin
Folmer	F	Morgan
Snell	F	Barnard
Rogers	F	McMurray
Staffler	WP	Pugh
Warren	H	Austin
Hatcher	H	Kmetovic
Youdall	H	Jedenoff
Lindburg	H	Olden
Hutters	W	Gallerneau
Whalen	W	Geissler
Grainger (C)	F	Albert

George Hamilton's 'Music Box' Orchestra Will Play for Senior Informal Today

George Hamilton's "Music Box" orchestra will provide the melodic strains for dancing at the Senior informal "Bunny Hop," at 9 p. m. today in the Claremont hotel.

Author of many popular song hits, Hamilton uses an 88-year-old music box as a distinctive note in his band. He is well-known in the Bay region for his engagement at the Mark Hopkins hotel last year.

Free gardenias will be given to all women attending and door prizes will be awarded during the evening.

Jean Kellogg '42 will introduce "Fast and Loose" and "What Could I Do," two songs written for the Senior Extravaganza, which she sang at the Senior sings yesterday.

The success of Senior week will depend greatly upon the success of the informal, Edgar Rothrock '40 chair-

Australian Trip Report Called 'Lie' by Coach

It's a lie! There's nothing in it at all! It's all ridiculous!

Clint Evans, Varsity baseball coach, was irate. He hadn't minded being telephoned and asked to bring back a couple of kangaroos from his Australian baseball trip. Some guys are always trying to be funny. But reports in all the newspapers to the effect that the Bears are not going to play their last Stanford game and that they're going to Australia on April 23 to meet Australian teams—that's too much!

The baseball coach didn't realize that an over-anxious cub reporter of a metropolitan news service had mistaken a wayward journalism lesson for a news story and had phoned the information to his office. Neither did the Bay Region reporters. Astonished members of the team learned of their unplanned trip when they read the morning papers.

No one realized that Australia is a nation at war and that the ASUC has not had the football teams necessary to send its baseball teams on trips.

The wire service which had released the report, explained that while the journalism student who had written the story had passed his examination, the cub reporter had "flunked out."

Kenneth Priestley, ASUC general manager, termed the report "absurd." "It is absurd on the face of it because the date occurs during the semester," Priestley said. "Anybody with a lick of sense would have known it was false."

The story had stated that the tour would open with the University of Melbourne May 11, near the end of final examinations. Seventeen Varsity players would have had to miss final examinations. Some would miss graduation.

Missing finals is a great idea! But as Evans says, "It's preposterous!"

man, said yesterday. The profits from the dance will be used for the class gift, eliminating this expense from the Senior week budget.

He emphasized that the price of the bids is lower than it has been in previous years.

"We're depending on the class cooperation to enable us to reduce the price in spite of the attraction of George Hamilton's music," he said.

"It is in line to reduce the prices for all Senior events whenever possible, such as has been done in Senior week privileges."

Advance sales yesterday gave promise of a full turn-out for the dance. Bids for the dance will be sold until 4 p. m. today in Eshleman court. The price of $1.50 includes table reservations which may be made in room 3C Eshleman hall.

President Sproul Gives Opinion on Results of ROTC Straw Poll

President Robert Gordon Sproul commented on the results of the ROTC poll yesterday, as follows:

"The results of the poll are certainly representative of a considerable section of student opinion. I do not believe, however, that the Regents will make their decision on the basis of these results, but rather on the merits of the question. Also, they will undoubtedly note that of students eligible to vote, about 20 per cent favored voluntary ROTC, about 6 per cent compulsory ROTC, and about 74 per cent were apparently indifferent."

ROTC Decision Awaited Today

Keene Will Represent Students at Regent Meeting; Olson Expected

By Bill Bolce '41

Compulsory ROTC, center of campus controversy for many years, will once more gain official consideration today when petitions urging its abolition at the University are presented to the Board of Regents at their meeting in San Francisco.

The student petition, to be presented by James Keene '40, ASUC president, is the culmination of a campaign by the committee for abolition of compulsory military training at the University.

President Keene will also present for consideration of the Regents the results of a student poll conducted Wednesday, which resulted in tabulations against compulsory ROTC by a three to one majority.

Today's Regents' meeting, originally scheduled for a month ago, was postponed at that time upon telegraphed request of Gov. Culbert Olson, in compliance with his wishes to be in attendance when compulsory military training was considered.

Although Governor Olson was reported still in Los Angeles yesterday attending a Senate probe of horse race irregularities, he was scheduled to arrive in San Francisco today to attend the meeting.

Lieutenant-Governor Ellis Patterson, also in Los Angeles, was expected to return today for the Regents' meeting.

Talent Contest to Be New Mixer Feature

As an added feature to the mixer dance today from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m. in the Men's clubrooms in Stephens Union, a talent exhibition will be held.

Contestants for the auditions include Janice Mayer '41, guitar player; Murray Petersen '40, magician; and Shirley Campbell '41, songstress. Students desiring to compete in the talent contest should communicate with George Gordon '40 or June Petersen '40 in the Welfare council room, Stephens Union. All University undergraduates are eligible.

French Outline Program to 'Crush Hitler'

PARIS, March 7.—(UP)—Premier Edouard Daladier today outlined to Sumner Welles, President Roosevelt's envoy, a five-point Allied program calling for the crushing of Hitlerism regardless of cost.

Welles, who arrived in Paris today, held unexpectedly long conferences with both Daladier and President Albert Lebrun. He received from them France's war aims and the conditions on which France will discuss peace with Nazi Germany.

Daladier, whose statements were expected to be repeated by the British when Welles arrives in London on Sunday, was understood to have told the American president's emissary:

1. There can be no peace and no compromise as long as Adolf Hitler and the present Nazi regime are masters of Germany because the Allies refuse any peace which would be only a lull between storms.

2. The Allies are pledged to accept no peace which does not involve the liberation of Poland and Czechoslovakia.

3. There cannot be peace until all Europe receives "substantial as well as moral" guarantees for the security of peoples and the integrity of the independence and frontiers of all nations.

4. France and Britain refuse to set up a detailed project for the reorganization of world economy—in which the United States is vitally interested and which is one of the principal objects of Welles' European tour—until peace has been achieved on the war fronts and "Hitlerism crushed."

After which the Allies will welcome the collaboration of the United States and all neutrals in the realization that peace to be lasting cannot be a victor's peace but must be one affecting all nations.

5. There can be no disarmament until there is full reorganization of solid peace after victory, whereupon France and Britain must retain a "margin of security" over Germany, at least for a time.

It was evident even before Welles talked with Daladier that France is no more disposed than Germany to reach a compromise peace.

Pacific Coast Debaters to Hold Convention Today

Debaters from colleges and junior colleges all over California will commence the sixth annual Pacific Coast Student Congress when they register at 1 p. m. today in room 210 Eshleman hall.

Following registration, a general meeting will be held from 3 to 5 p. m. in room 11 Wheeler hall, when delegates will present their bills on the reach a compromise peace and that "Civil Liberties" and "Civil

Russo-Finn Peace Rumored; Soviet Demands Foreseen

Negotiations Reported in Sweden; Enforced Censorship Cuts Off Communication Between Nations

By United Press
Russia reportedly has presented a peace ultimatum to Finland which must be accepted by midnight Friday (7 p. m. EST). It was understood in Stockholm that Finnish delegates already had made known the government's refusal.

According to reports the Russian peace demands were conveyed to the Swedish government for transmission to Helsinki 10 days ago.

Another report reaching Copenhagen from Helsinki said that Marshal Baron Gustaf von Mannerheim, commander-in-chief of the Finnish armies, had returned from the battlefield declaring that he would resign unless foreign aid is forthcoming for Finland.

Capitals throughout Europe, including Helsinki, buzzed with the rumors of peace negotiations in the Russo-Finnish war.

The only official word from either belligerent came from Finland where an announcement said that the government understood that the Soviet Union planned to present peace demands to Finland "more far-reaching in character than those presented last autumn."

Unofficial reports said that the Russian demands included that the Finns surrender the Karelian isthmus, including Viipuri, a part of Lapland, Petsamo and the Hanko naval base.

There was every indication that something was taking place of an apparently momentous nature regarding peace terms in the Russo-Finnish conflict.

But unofficial Finnish reaction was cold to the Russian terms, which were considered unacceptable.

Soon after reports of the peace negotiations came out of Stockholm the United Press bureau at Copenhagen was advised Thursday afternoon it was impossible to complete any telephone calls with Stockholm because of Swedish censorship.

The Paris Soir version of the demands was that they constituted an ultimatum from Russia which would expire Friday at midnight.

In London it was believed certain Germany was encouraging the Swedes to do their utmost to end hostilities and Sweden was said to be eager to accomplish this provided the terms would permit existence of an independent Finland capable of healthy survival.

Copenhagen reports said the negotiations had been initiated by Germany. The Berlingske Tidende's Stockholm correspondent said he had "unimpeachable proof" peace negotiations were proceeding in Stockholm.

A group of ballads will be read by Mrs. Sara Huntsman Struggess, associate professor of public speaking, at a regular meeting of the Readers' club at 4 p.m. today in room 110 Wheeler hall, Robert Wentz '40, announced yesterday.

Mrs. Struggess, the first outstanding artist to entertain the club this year, has chosen ballads on the theme of mermaids. The open meeting will be the first in a series of four programs to be presented by the club during the remainder of the semester.

Dean Freeman Given Educational Citation

Prof. Frank N. Freeman, dean of the school of education, has received citation from the American Educational Research association for outstanding contribution to education research, according to reports released yesterday.

The honor was awarded to Dean Freeman in recognition of his preparation of the publication, "Twins, a Study of Heredity and Environment."

Senior week song-writers may receive national recognition for their work on the Senior extravaganza, "Fast and Spurious."

George Smith, representative of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Producers, visited the campus this week and asked that the script and music of the revue be submitted in a national collegiate contest.

Songs already completed include "Love's Labor Lost" by Dick Webb, "What Could I Do" by Phil Boone and "That's No Moon, That's a Street Light" by Ed Stoffe.

Joe Hurwitz, chairman for the Senior Ball, announced that arrangements have been made to reserve the Palm court, the Pied Piper and the concert room of the Palace hotel for the Ball. After 1 a.m. the Rose Room bowl will also be used.

Listed in the smooth deal department by George Brown, general chairman, is the $10 down payment on life membership in the Alumni association, which entitles the purchaser to a Senior week privilege and his commencement cap and gown. The remaining amount of $50 for the life membership may be paid in installments.

'Better Lighting' Drive Will Be Launched By Health Committee

The ASUC Student Health committee will begin a campus-wide campaign for better lighting Monday, concentrating on the lighting facilities of the University library.

An exhibit on lighting methods will be placed on display from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in Eshleman court, featuring a lamp which was allegedly used by Diogenes in his search for an honest man.

Committee members yesterday received approval on their campaign from Dr. Robert Legge, former University physician.

Dr. Legge, who will be presented with a report on the lighting and ventilation conditions of the University, warned that bad lighting may cause actual physical changes in the eye, through strain. He suggested that good lighting would not only increase efficiency but improve the psychological attitude of the students.

ITALIAN TRYOUTS for "Daughters of Atrous" will be held at 4 p.m. today in room 30 Wheeler hall. People with modern dance experience especially urged to tryout.

Economics Professor Defends Expansion of 1940 Census

By Sarita Henderson '41

A defense of the 1940 census against attacks by national women's clubs and anti-administration forces was made yesterday by Paul S. Taylor, professor of economics.

"No one aware of the problems with which the nation is faced would oppose this census," Taylor said. "It is only those who believe in ignorance and the policy of the ostrich who would condone the attacks."

Commenting on the epithets of "contemptible" and "Paul Pry" hurled at the census takers by the Women Investors in America, Taylor remarked that the census maintains the secrecy of individual returns, and affords full and ample protection to everyone.

"The census makes public nobody's business, but is designed to promote the welfare of the people of the United States, and for no other purpose," he stated.

"Questions for the census are very carefully sifted by experts inside and outside the government service, and are intended to give continuity of data running back a half century and in some cases to the founding of the nation," he said.

Expressing the fear the opposition to the census might lead to a falsification of answers, Sanford A. Mosk, assistant professor of economics, said, "Such a result would destroy the accuracy of the figures, and completely defeat the purpose of the statistics."

What About THE WOMEN?

By Marguerite Higgins '41

Authority: Bernadette Doyle, although doing graduate work at the University, has as her main interest the organization of domestic women workers. She is a pioneer in this field which has long been neglected by labor groups.

Reports of Miss Doyle's work have already gained the attention of the Department of Labor in Washington. For example, a request for information about labor conditions in the field of domestic workers, recently received by Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins, was immediately referred to Miss Doyle.

Surplus: Metropolitan Life Insurance company yesterday revealed figures showing that American women are steadily growing healthier than the men. A clear-cut surplus of women is in prospect as the result of this trend.

The tremendous social implications which are tied to such a female surplus is pointed out to a separate analysis of European nations after the World War. In this period there was a large surplus of women of marriageable age with a shortage of husbands.

Scientist's daughter: On a three weeks' tour of America Miss Eve Curie informed the newspapers: "Any economic isolation these days is an illusion and no matter who wins the European war America will be involved in the peace and resulting economic repercussions. So your country cannot be entirely detached..."

Internationalism: Today a group of women of Los Angeles, under the sponsorship of the Peoples' World, are throwing national barriers to the winds. They are embarking on a day of "international outlook."

"One road out of war," they feel, "is for women to insist they will take no part in national hatreds which are used as incitements to war."

Five Couples Caught in Marriage Web

Among the showers and engagements which marked the first week of Spring came the announcement that Meta Corville will marry William Halber Spitz, graduate of the College of Engineering.

Dorothea Allan, graduate of the University, and member of Phi Omega Pi, will be married in June to Harry Cartwright, also a graduate of the University.

Ebba Cornelia, former University student, has announced her engagement to Dr. George Davenport Brown of San Francisco State and Stanford university.

Ada May Frankey, former student of the University and member of Arcia, was married on February 22 to Carl Edward Robertson. From the Alpha Gamma Delta house came the announcement of Aiea Cloney's '38 betrothal to William Gribbins '36.

What's Your Trouble? ... You Ask the Questions; We Give the Answers

By Wilma Hansen '41

Some people would rather face a firing squad than a camera and this attitude definitely dampens the fine old custom of exchanging photographs. However, even the better complexes have been known to waver, so there's still hope. Deposit future questions in the Ice Box.

Question: How can a girl go about getting a boy's picture or is such a procedure always left to the boy? I have gone with the person concerned for over a year, but the subject of pictures has never arisen. I don't wish to be misinterpreted as one whose hobby is collecting photographs, but I would like very much to have a picture. Must I wait patiently until he makes a suggestion?

Answer: Waiting patiently is fine—if it's only on the surface. If you really want a picture, a succession of gentle hints won't hurt in the least. Mention that you are going to have your own taken and indicate that you wouldn't be adverse to giving him one. This would naturally call for an exchange. Note: Remember to refrain from signing your picture in any manner whatsoever—it's out-moded.

Question: My car is in a state of disrepair and I've already dated a girl for a dance in San Francisco. Must I break the date because of the transportation set-back?

Answer: Since you obviously scorn public utilities, i. e. bridge train, which could be followed up by a taxi on arrival, evidently the dance is formal. If you don't know anyone that's

Party Planned By Orientations

Plans for an International Night social function in the near future were discussed at the meeting of Orientations council yesterday.

The original purpose of the affair was to have been a social gathering of Japanese and Chinese University students. "However, it was suggested," said Tom Adams '40, chairman of Orientations council, "that in view of the progress made toward non-segregation, a function to include students of all races would be more advisable."

Orientations council reserved action on the plan until consultation with the Date committee and representatives of the Japanese and Chinese Students clubs could be arranged.

Economic Society to Hold Initiation Today

Pi Phi Delta, women's economic honor society, will initiate new members at their semi-annual formal banquet at 6 p. m. today at the College women's club.

The members to be initiated will include: Jean Sherman, graduate student, Eleanor Blair '41, Constance Grass '41, Dorothy Pilgrim '41, and Louise Reinholtz '41.

Cal Aggies Celebrate Quadrennial Work Day

Traditional California Aggie Labor Day, previously announced as being scheduled for March 2, will be held today at the Davis campus of the University.

The quadrennial work-day was postponed last week because of unsettled weather. Davis' agricultural students will spend the morning digging ditches for a new Davis sprinkling system.

The University ranks highest in number of full time, regular enrolled students of any college in the United States.

Gay Weekend Planned for Campus Social Groups; Carnival, Dances Scheduled

With the "Big C Sirkus" excitement all over, social organizations have lost no time in planning to make this week-end one of gaiety also. Radio dances are being held by the Chi Pi Sigmas and the "T" House today. The "Sirkus" atmosphere may still be had by attending the Theta Delta Chi's Carnival Night. Skull and Keys men are having a barn dance. Sequoia will be the scene of the Lambda Chi Alpha's formal. Theta Upsilon will honor their pledges at a dance, while the Sigma Phi Epsilons will invite their faculty for dinner today.

Tomorrow the Zeta Beta Taus, Kappa Deltas, Bowles hall, and KAs are having informals. An initiation banquet will be held by the Pi KAs at the Sir Francis Drake. Alpha Xi Deltas will dance to Ray Noble's music, while the Alpha Omicron Psi have their spring formal at the Lakeside Country club.

Casa Hispana will be the scene of an open house. Bachelors are going up to the Tilden Regional Park for a barbecue. Another initiation will be held by the Alpha Chi Sigmas.

With a Dutch theme, the Phi Pis will have a faculty dinner Sunday. Dinners will be popular on a Sunday as the Theta Chis have an exchange with the Delta Zetas. SAEs are holding a buffet supper. Fathers are being honored at the Alpha Xi Deltas' house for dinner.

Phi Kappa Tau will go novel with an Apache dance as their theme tomorrow at their chapter house. The SAEs will celebrate with Stanford their Founder's Day with a supper at Marconi's restaurant today. The Japanese Women's club will go on a Scavenger Hunt this evening, and the Italian club will dance at the "Y" cottage between 4 and 6 p.m. today.

Another faculty dinner will be held at the Phi Mu house on Monday. On the same evening the Tri Deltas will have an exchange supper with the Gamma Phis. This latter sorority will give a fashion tea Tuesday.

Schneider Will Lead Rose-Vine Forum

John B. Schneider, specialist in agriculture and associate on the Giamini foundation, will lead the discussion at a Rose-Vine Forum on "Cooperation and Cooperatives" at 8 p.m. today at the Friends' Meeting House, Vine and Walnut streets.

The California Students' Cooperative association will be represented by Gordon E. Miner, past president and manager of Barrington hall. The audience may question the speakers after the symposium.

ASU Sealed Ballots For Referendum Due

Sealed ballots for the American Student Union's national referendum on the peace resolution and amendment, voted on at their recent national convention, must be in by 4 p.m. today, Shirley Newman '41, National Executive committee member, announced yesterday.

Miss Newman is in charge of the referendum, called by the national office after a country-wide clamor was raised over the peace stand taken by the convention.

Little Theatre Double-Header To Feature Drama Which Confounded New York Critics

Sufficiently unusual to baffle New York critics, and yet so filled with laughter that it heralded the advent of a new American playwright, William Saroyan's "My Heart's in the Highlands" will be given by Little Theatre on March 15 and 16.

On the same bill with the first "home-town" presentation of Saroyan's play, will be Eugene O'Neill's negro play "All God's Chillun Got Wings" in Little Theatre's first double bill performance.

Saroyan, who has become the most-written-about American dramatist within one year's time, has set the scene of "My Heart's in the Highlands" in Fresno. A penniless poet and his small son who reside there, are confronted by a white-whiskered old actor, escaped with his trumpet from an old folks' home.

The old gentleman plays the music to Bobbie Burns' "My Heart's in the Highlands" with such plaintive beauty that all the neighbors bring food to the starving trio. Finally, a guard takes the old man back to the home and the poet and his son are evicted from their cheap home and go on down the road knowing "something is wrong somewhere."

William Fisher '41 will appear as Ben Alexander, the poet; 12-year-old Freddie Moreton, as his son, and John Brenneis '41, the elderly trumpet player.

Tickets for the double bill are 45 cents for students and 65 cents for general admission. Reservations may be made by calling Ashberry 4800, local 62.

"We often receive notes and messages from the prisoners and they seem to delight in any contact with the outside world," he said. No women prisoners are taking the Extension division courses now. But this fact, Rakestraw believes, is merely a coincidence.

Prisoners Favor Grammar

U. C. EXTENSION COURSES EDUCATE FELONS

Inmates of San Quentin and Alcatraz prisons are taking advantage of their prison sentences to "brush up" on their grammar by taking courses in the University Extension division.

The popularity of English and grammar courses among prisoners was revealed yesterday by Boyd B. Rakestraw, assistant director of the University Extension division.

Rakestraw added that many of the prisoners were not just "brushing up" on their grammar, but from results of examinations, were "just learning" it.

He declared that the popularity of extension courses had mounted greatly in the last year, especially in San Quentin prison, which has approximately 131 convicts taking correspondence courses.

The desire of the prisoners to take extension courses may be partially explained by the fact that this gives credit towards a shorter term, Rakestraw explained.

Dean Gettell Announces Proctor Position Open For Summer Session

Applications for the position of proctor during the University Summer session must be filed before Tuesday, March 12, in room 104 California hall, Raymond G. Gettell, dean of the summer sessions, announced yesterday.

All Summer session students are eligible for the job, which will require 45 minutes per day, Dean Gettell said. The Summer session tuition of $35 will be refunded to the holder of the position, who will be selected on qualifications of scholarship and need.

Dean Gettell also announced yesterday that bulletins containing detailed information of the Inter-session from May 20 to June 28, and the Summer session from July 1 to August 9, may be obtained at his office, 104 California hall, or from the registrar.

Applications Available For Bowles Hall

Applications for membership in Bowles hall for 1940-41 may be placed at the telephone desk in Bowles hall starting next week, Scott Wilson, manager, announced yesterday.

Fraternity Scholarship Record Announced by Committee Chairman

Zeta Beta Tau fraternity holds the highest scholarship among campus fraternities for the past five years, William Chiappella '41, chairman of a scholarship committee of Interfraternity council, announced yesterday.

Chiappella's statement is based on the findings of Charles Craig of the Fraternity Alumni Advisory council. Craig's survey has been made, complete with records, individual house scholarship rules, and studying methods, in an effort to raise fraternity academic standings.

In second place in the standings is Psi Upsilon fraternity, closely followed by Kappa Alpha, last year's campus leader. Sigma Phi and Beta Theta Pi are in fourth and fifth places respectively.

University Speakers To Visit High Schools

Bureau of Public Relations, formerly Deputations, will send speakers to two high schools, Manteca and Oakdale, today.

George Lindman '41 and Genevieve Criss '42 will speak and movies of the campus will be shown.

Varsity Netmen Pucksters Will Meet Golden State in Playoff

Northern California indoor singles champion Bob Harman will lead the Varsity tennis team into battle tomorrow when the Bears meet the California club in San Francisco.

The contest will be the second of the season for the Blue and Gold netsters, having previously defeated the Berkeley Tennis club 3-2.

Harman, who defeated Frank Kovacs in the Palace of Fine Arts tournament, will play the No. 1 spot for the Bears, Coach Tom Stow revealed yesterday. The other men will include Bob Peacock, No. 2; Bob Hippenstiel, No. 3; Bill Canning, No. 4; Gunny Ammonette, No. 5; and Bill Swan, No. 6.

Playing first doubles for the Varsity will be Peacock and Harman, while Hippenstiel and Wally Meyer will team for the No. 2 combination and either Canning and Ammonette or Glenn Hippenstiel and Swan will hold down the No. 3 spot.

"The team is finally rounding into form and tomorrow's contest should be good experience for next week's tussle with USC and UCLA," Stow commented.

The Clubbers will present an array of former California and Stanford varsity members. Jerry Stratsford and Harold Brown both played for the Bears a few years back while Phil Hanna, Bob Palmer and Ben Dey were all associated with the Indians.

21 Bear Baseballers Head for Southland

Varsity Nine to Face UCLA, Troy in South

California to Play Four Games in Five Days; Arnold to Start in Left

Varsity baseball Coach Clint Evans and 21 members of the team left on the 6:51 p. m. train yesterday for Los Angeles where the Bears will meet USC today and tomorrow.

The results of these games will determine whether or not California can be considered a threat for the CIBA title. As the Bears have lost two of their first three starts, victories must be chalked up in three of these tilts if the 1940 pennant is to fly on the Edwards field flagpost.

TROY IMPRESSIVE

The games will be the first league tilts for both southern teams. However, each has compiled an impressive practice season record. Both USC and UCLA have several left-overs from last season's successful teams. In 1939 the Trojans tied with St. Mary's for the conference title. Evans did not definitely declare who would pitch today's game. However, Dick David or Al White will probably receive the starting call. The Clinter would prefer to pitch Mike Koll but the southpaw hurled Tuesday's contest against Santa Clara and doesn't figure to be in shape to toss another today.

ONGERTH OK

Ray Arnold has definitely won the left field position after his fine game Friday, his first in the outfield. Eddie Ongert's sprained ankle has just about completely healed but Gene Corr has been doing pretty well on his own hook in center field and may not give up his position without a fight.

Varsity Handballers to Meet S. F., YMI

Playing with a revamped lineup, the Varsity handball team will meet the San Francisco YMI at 7 p. m. today on the latter's home courts.

The loss of letterman Bill Ayer has forced Coach Fred Rosenberg to change his starting combinations. Pairings are: Wilson and Fishman, Shaft and Lindquist, Seidel and Pearlman, Sharp and Ibragimoff. Carl Morton, who was paired with Ayer, is left without a partner.

For further information on the day's sports activities please turn to page 4, where the sports staff cooperated with the women's staff in turning out the completed copy.

Varsity Boxers Whip Stanford

Two Defaults Aid Bears In Palo Alto Victory; Droubay Upset by Rice

Aided by two defaults, the University of California boxing team pounded out a 5½ to 3½ victory over the Stanford Indians at Palo Alto last night.

In the feature bout of the evening, the 145 pound battle between the two captains, Jack Rice of Stanford and Juel Droubay of the Bears, a cut over Droubay's right eye caused a cessation of hostilities at the end of the second round. It was Rice's fourth victory in seven starts against Droubay.

Ted Doe, Indian 130 pounder, forfeited his match to Yoshio Handa. California also won the 135 pound division by default and similarly Stanford copped the heavyweight division.

The following are the complete results:

- 120 lbs.—Forfeited to California.
- 127 lbs.—Don Flaherty (C) decisioned Bruce Berg (S).
- 135 lbs.—Forfeited to California.
- 145 lbs.—Jack Rice (S) stopped Juel Droubay (C) in second round.
- 155 lbs.—Tom MacMichael (S) decisioned Ben Mitchell (C).
- 165 lbs.—Milt Cunha (C) decisioned Bob Blakford (S), and Ty Barre (C) vs. Doug Grant (S) a draw.
- 175 lbs.—Ray Greenwood (C) decisioned Don Grant (S).
- Heavyweight—Forfeited to Stanford.

Ten Basketball Awards Given

Third-Year Blankets Awarded to Guards Bickerton, Biggerstaff

Ten Varsity basketball letters, submitted by Coach Nibs Price, were approved Wednesday at the regular weekly meeting of the Executive committee.

The two regular guards, Captain Walt Bickerton, all-conference choice, and Bill Biggerstaff were awarded blankets for three-year service.

Receiving their second letters were "Big" Bill Ogilvie, veteran pivotman, and Dud Morgan, forward. Six men, who won Varsity letters for the first time are Roy Tamm, John McGee, Bob Biles, Bob Alameda, Jim Bailey and Irv Hodas.

Price has drawn up a tentative 1941 schedule, which if approved, will give the Bears an extra week of practice before the first conference game with UCLA at Los Angeles.

Although the Bear cagers won only 14 games out of 32 in the 1940 season, they did manage to outscore their opponents by a 1250 to 1224 margin, averaging 39.62 points per game, while limiting enemy sharpshooters to 38.25.

Frosh numeral winners, also approved by the Executive committee, are as follows: Gordon Garetson, Bill Durkee, Bob Wylie, Alva McBroom, Joe Oliver, Don Weir, Frank Brush, Dave Thurm, John Ferguson, Harry Craig, Ed Gratz and Al Scott.

Crew Regatta Will Feature Interclass Race

Varsity, Alumni, Frosh To Row on Oakland Estuary Tomorrow

A preview of the 1940 California Varsity crew in the form of the annual Interclass regatta will be held tomorrow at 4:30 p. m. on the Oakland estuary.

In addition to the interclass races, the "old timers" of crew, the alumni, will grab a cat again and paddle furiously for old times' sake—and probably be plenty stiff come Sunday morning—at the Alumni crew day starting promptly at 2 p. m.

The senior boat is composed of Vic Thompson, stroke; Ray Talcott, No. 7; Stan Freeborn, 6; Al Daggett, 5; Ellsworth Sturgeon, 4; Dave deVarona, 3; John Hansen, 2; Stan Backlund, bow, and Jim Dieterich, coxswain.

The juniors line up with Les Still, stroke; Bob Olson, 7; Jack Klukkert, 6; Bill Blevins, 5; Bob Andersen, 4; Harry Connolly, 3; John Schroepfer, 2; Charlie Kierulff, bow, and Art Gassaway, cox.

The sophomores have Walt Casey, stroke; John Garvey, 7; Harcourt Hervey, 6; Bill Fulton, 5; Dick Lange, 4; George Misch, 3; John Friedrichsen, 2; Dave Nurse, bow, and Louis Levey, cox.

According to Coach Russ Nagler, the frosh will race two boats against the three Varsity shells.

The first boat will consist of Okey, stroke; Lemmon, 7; Fletcher, 6; Moore, 5; Kearns, 4; Robinson, 3; Tearce, 2; Martenson, bow, and Woodbury, cox.

Reserve Ruggers to Face Indian Seconds

California's reserve ruggers will tangle with the Stanford reserves in Memorial stadium tomorrow following the Varsity-Indian tilt.

Finnish Distance Aces Maki, Nurmi Workout On Edwards Cinders

Finland's running ambassadors, Taisto Maki and Paavo Nurmi, yesterday took a brief workout on the cinder track of Edwards field.

It was the second practice session within a few hours for the world record holding distance runners. Nurmi, the original Flying Finn who still holds the international ten-mile mark, was contented to walk and stride several laps before saying quits to his 42-year-old legs.

Twenty-nine-year-old Maki ran several miles in his sweat suit, finishing the workout with a speedy last lap. Hailed as the greatest distance runner of all times, Maki drew the praise and enthusiasm of the Bear squad with his smooth and apparently effortless running style.

The Finnish stars alternated by running first on the track proper and then on the grass inside the cinder oval. According to Coach Brutus Hamilton the visitors were afraid of possible bad effects of the hard California cinder path.

Texans Defeat Mermen in Close Contest

Lloyd, Aronson, Gerdes Score Surprise Wins In Free Style Events

Texas University's barnstormers swam to a 4½ to 3½ victory over the Bear mermen yesterday in the California pool.

Upsetting the dope in the free style events the Blue and Gold aggregation gave the visiting Longhorns more of a fight than was expected. A victory instead of a tie in the 400 relay would have left but one point separating the teams in the final standings.

Sophomore sprint ace Marty Lloyd was featured in three of the day's best races. Lloyd defeated favorite Harris McClamroch of Texas in a 55.1 100, was in turn upset by Bear Steve Aronson in the 50, with a time of 23.9, and picked up three yards on Dick Beeler of the visitors to bring California into a tie in the relay.

Fred Gerdes pulled another reversal of form when he won from Beeler in the 220 free style in 2:21.3.

One of the meet's best performances was turned in by Texan Mike Sójka who churned his way to a 2:30.2 victory in the breaststroke. Other winners were all Texans with Hank Chapman taking the diving, Captain Bob Tarleton the backstroke and Bill Moise the 440.

Only one woman, Mrs. Charles Fanning of Buffalo, N. Y., ever turned in a perfect game of bowling.

"No fool me, Arrow is for shooting bear!"

Mrs. Oomiak had been impatient with Mr. Oomiak ever since the night he brought home the ice box. "Big lummox! You fall for everything man sell at trading post!" she roared. "Man say I need Arrow Shirt for six months daytime. Make you like me better." "Take um back. I like you worse?" she screamed. "Oh, no. Man says Arrow has handomest collar made. Man say Arrow no shrink more than 1% when I fall through ice. Man say Arrow never lose button for you to sew on." Mr. Oomiak went into the igloo and put on his Arrow Shirt. When he came out, Mrs. Oomiak could not believe her eyes. "You beautiful!" she shrieked. "Like American explorer! How much costs this Arrow Shirt?" "Two buck." "Here ten buck. Go back to trading post. Buy five Arrow for me."

Up to the Regents

The Board of Regents is to consider changing University military training from a compulsory to a voluntary course.

President Sproul points out that the Regents will "undoubtedly note that of students eligible to vote... about 74% were apparently indifferent" despite the President's plea for a heavy vote.

Yet the significant part of the straw ballot was this: When only 825 students voted in 1934 the results showed a two to one ratio against compulsory ROTC.

When the YMCA sent out only 260 questionnaires in 1934 the results showed a two to one ratio against compulsory ROTC.

When only 1,818 students voted in 1936 the results showed a two and a half to one ratio against compulsory ROTC.

When only 1,091 students voted in 1937 the results showed a two and a half to one ratio against compulsory ROTC.

But now, the number of students voting goes up to 3,913 and the ratio also increases to three to one against compulsory ROTC.

In other words, the greater the number of students who express their opinions on ROTC, the greater the opposition that is recorded to compulsory ROTC.

Of course there remains the 74 per cent who did not vote. Ignoring the usual number of voters who do not go to the polls in any election, city, state or national, there is another good reason for the "apparent indifference" of these students.

It is regrettable that more students were not reached. We wish that the University had seen the importance of student opinion on compulsory military training before Wednesday's University meeting.

Even this effort, however, would not sway the Board of Regents. The decision is entirely theirs today.

Editorials and features in The Californian reflect the opinions of the writer. They make no claim to represent student or University opinion. All unsigned editorials are by the editor.

In Tune With the Times

By Edmund Tackle '41

When a gentleman, who preferred to remain anonymous for publication purposes, contributed a letter to the Ice Box a few weeks ago on the relief issue, his whole discussion flared forth with a "nostalgia for the days of Adam Smith."

We thought his article was commonly senseless and so did a dozen or more other people who criticized his statements through the medium of the Ice Box.

However, this gentleman must use a different system of logic on foreign affairs than on local, for yesterday he submitted another letter which is the best thumb-nail summary we have yet seen of the European situation.

First of all, he asks: "From the viewpoint of a political scientist will you accept our objective appraisal of the Spanish and Finnish incidents as coming from one who is neither a vassal of Moscow nor a tool of imperialism?"

And then an analysis of the Spanish civil war: "The Spanish war was what we call a bourgeois democratic revolution in which the workers and peasants (70 per cent of the electorate) resisted the counter-revolutionary efforts of the landlords, a few industrialists, and above all that most reactionary of institutions, the Roman Catholic Church."

Now on Finland: "In the case of Finland, that unhappy country was in a strategic position as a spring-board for a future attack by world capital on the Soviets. The Russians offered to remove that potential menace to Leningrad by negotiations, as it did with Estonia and Latvia. The Finns, egged on by Franco-British capital, held off and as a result have become the goat in the fierce struggle between western capitalism and Soviet socialism."

To have helped Spain, and to help Finland or not, is a matter of taste. We offer the foregoing not as our opinion, but as historical fact, as accurate and objective as any science can be.

The above, we agree with our friend "Common Sense," is a factual presentation of what actually occurred and is occurring in Europe. However, it would be well for "Common Sense" to apply the scientific method he seems to think of so highly to our internal problems as well as the foreign situation.

'Bloc-ing' the Way

The Californiac

The telephone rings "Hello," says a voice which sounds like a cross between Rochester and Andy Devine.

This voice belongs to Clint Evans. It seems the citizen who is calling so early in the morning is wanting the old Clinter to fetch back a couple of Kangaroos from Australia, as this citizen is reading that the Clinter is going to land down together with the baseball team for a trip.

This makes the Clinter mad because this is the first he is hearing about said trip. He begins to wish people would tell him these things. "It is in all the papers this morning, such as the Examiner and so forth," the voice says.

This is only too true. All the papers, even the one which is sports-edited by Arthur Cohn bit on a story which is sent in by Robin (You Write 'em, I run 'em) Orr, cub reporter for good old Associated Press.

Robin, like the good reporter he is, was in search of a story at all times. Where does he go for said story but down to the Daily Cal office where ALL the news is hereabouts.

He sees a story lying on the sports editor, Stan Cohn's desk. It is a scoop. He rushes to the telephone. The news is spread. It goes all over the United States and down to Australia.

The Cal baseball team is going on a trip. Of course, the story says the trip is going to be made during final, which is a very peculiar time to make such a trip.

Also, the country they are going to visit is at war, among other things. But it is a good story and it runs in all the papers.

What is wrong with the story? Nothing. Only it is merely a sample, hypothetical, test, fake, sample story which Stanley Cohn, the sports editor, tells a freshee to write in order to learn how it is a phoney from start to finish.

Ask Ken Priestley. Imagine making trips when the state of the coffers is what it is. And to Australia, even. But what suckers those metropolitan journalists are. Didn't even check the story. Ha.

WELL, WHITMAN?

TO THE EDITOR: Having started funds for everything else under the sun, Stanford's very distinguished (?) alumnus, Herbie Hoover, should make things complete by starting one to have a new basketball gym built for his alma mater. What a shack the present one is!

Incidentally, where were our dear and beloved yell leaders the other evening down on the farm? Out of three supposedly loyal Californians, not one of them could show up for their basketball team's last game.

'INCORRECT BILLINGS'

TO THE EDITOR: Yesterday's "Theater Guide" was the crowning touch to shameful discrepancy on the part of the Daily Californian.

Throughout the semester there have been numerous incorrect theater billings. Yesterday you outdid yourself—both the United Artists and Fox California were incorrect. Why must this go on?

Being a trusting soul at heart I have taken the guide as authentic twice. Now sadly the wiser I protest. For heaven's sake, do something about it.

ASK NO QUESTIONS

TO THE EDITOR: I had a bitter taste of dictatorship today. I made the mistake of asking a colonel in the ROTC, "Why?" he said, "It is not for you to question." Come on, Governor Olson.

Since I'd hate to flunk the course, and have to take the damn thing over again, I ask you to print only "T. W. '42."

P. S. There's a movement on foot to send a postcard to Governor Olson, encouraging him in his stand. A postcard costs a penny. Borrow your neighbor's pen. Come on, and join us.

GOOBERHANGING

TO THE EDITOR: Ah—at last spring is here. The flowers are bursting into bloom, birds are singing, bees are buzzin' and Strawberry creek has become a babbling brook again. Everything is wonderful.

And the gooberhangers decorate the lawns once more.

What a glorious old tradition they are bravely carrying on. It makes one realize what it means to be an American.

In Europe sex is regimented and regulated under the heel of the state. But here—ahhh—we are blessed with free speech, free press, free thought and free love.

Freedom is running rampant on the lawns.

ICE HOCKEY GRIPE

TO THE EDITOR: Last Wednesday night our hockey team met the Santa Rosans in Sacramento on the new rink. Granted that this was the first hockey game played there, and a great crowd was attending, do you know why ASUC cards were not honored? Since it was a Cal game, I do not see any reason why a Cal student should be required to pay $1.10 for a good seat. Can't something be done.

Men for the Jobs

We are taken to task by Justin Vanderlaan, Young Communist League president, for endorsing James K. Moffitt for reappointment on the Board of Regents.

It is pointed out that Regent Moffitt is chairman of the executive committee of the Crocker National Bank and the president of Blake, Moffitt & Towne, a paper manufacturing company. This Vanderlaan regrets. He recalls that when Merriam was governor, University students and the statewide progressive movement were active in urging that Labor be represented on the Board of Regents. He doesn't want a banker endorsed now, even though the State Labor Commissioner is being endorsed at the same time.

What he forgets is that on November 23, 1937, Harry Bridges suggested the name of George Kidwell and also mentioned George Creel, Paul C. Smith of the San Francisco Chronicle, and John D. Barry of the San Francisco News. One day later, Estoly Ward, secretary of the Alameda county CIO council, was fighting the rumor that Edward D. Vandeleur might be supported for appointment by the AFL.

"Vandeleur's record is pro-Republican, reactionary, and one of collaboration with the reactionary interests of employers. He does not practice or support democracy in unionism."

Whether or not Mr. Ward's accusations were correct, they certainly did not add to public opinion favoring a representative of Labor on the Board of Regents. In short, the bitter union fight was carried on the front page when Labor should have been supporting a non-partisan man, such as Herbert Carrasco, for the vacant regent position.

That is what Vanderlaan means when he says that "the statewide progressive movement (was) active in urging that Labor be represented..."

Vanderlaan also forgets, or ignores, Regent Moffitt's record of thinking service to the University. He is a banker, and he is also a strong supporter of academic freedom. He is a banker, and he is also interested in what students are thinking and doing, which is an important distinction for a regent.

Campus liberals are not allowing "an excellent opportunity to slip by" when they endorse a State Labor Commissioner and a capable banker-regent. Neither are the fraternity men who are endorsing the appointment of the same men.
