

NOTES ON THE NEWS

By Richard Demorest '40

Hitler, Bismarck
Disagree on
Russo-Italian Pact

Hitler's policies of appeasement have been remarkable in the case of Germany's "Iron Chancellor" Bismarck. It is interesting to note that Bismarck brought about peace with the Reich after the Franco-Prussian war with France. Bismarck realized German alternatives with France were either break her up or to ally with her. Bismarck chose the latter.

Hitler's "Iron Chancellor" is adhered in the doctrine of "my friends, my friends" in other words a foreign policy designed to keep Germany's two principal enemies, Russia and Italy, as pretty much at each other's throats. The lack of this policy is rather apparent in the game of politics. By maintaining such diplomatic maneuvers, a sense of suspicion between Russia and Italy, Bismarck could feel against the possibility of his allies uniting and ganging up on Germany.

Hitler has been in much the same line as Bismarck. He is officially tied up with the Soviet Union and Italy, but in the present these two separate powers have demonstrated no love for Hitler nor have they ever existed as a common bond against him. This is all in true Bismarckian tradition.

Hitler's news from Berlin indicates Hitler seems to be changing his policy laid down by his predecessor. He is reported as attempting to bring about a new relationship between Russia and Italy, starting with a trade pact. Also in this connection, it is reported that these two countries will work in the near future to break the Russo-Finland blockade.

Hitler's change in his policy is more correctly, what Demorest on Page 3, Col. 5)

Changes in RBR to Be Studied

Student Polls on Withdrawal Plan Considered

A student poll on alternate systems for the present Reserved Book Room withdrawal system may be taken in the near future, Lee M. Roberts '40, chairman of a student library committee, announced yesterday.

The poll plan resulted from a meeting of the student committee Wednesday with University Librarian Harold L. Leupp and other library officials "to crystallize definite difficulties" in the present RBR system, in which holds and renewals have been abolished.

"Elections council will be glad to cooperate in giving the student body an opportunity to vote on alternate RBR systems," Dorothy Jane Wilson '40, ASUC Elections council chairman, said yesterday in commenting on the plan.

"Two distinct difficulties with the present system were drawn at the meeting," Roberts said yesterday. "One was that a student may renew a book by devious means, even though others are waiting for it. The other is that priority privileges are not considered."

COMMITTEE WILL MAKE SURVEY

"It was agreed that any system will have loopholes," Roberts said, "but it seemed necessary to get a system which would have as few loopholes and as many advantages as possible."

The student committee will make a survey of a report of other university library systems, compiled several years ago by the University library staff, in an effort to find an adequate alternate system for the RBR, he said.

"The students and library officials will meet again Wednesday, March 27, when it is hoped that concrete ideas have been formed," Roberts stated.

Senior Privileges to Go on Sale; Alumni Plan for Dormitory

Senior week privileges will go on sale today at a record low price in Eshleman court, Engineers' court and Sather gate, George Brown '40, chairman, announced yesterday.

Reduced from last year's price of $6, the privileges will sell for $5.50. With a privilege, Senior ball bids may be purchased for $3.30, making the cost of the entire week $8.80 as compared to the $10.40 amount of a year ago. If purchased alone, the ball bids will be $4.40.

"There are actually only 13 days in which to buy a privilege because the sales drive will definitely close on March 27," Brown stated.

He added that unless enough privileges are sold to meet the estimated budget of $11,000, the price will have to be raised.

Dick Bahme '40, finance chairman, emphasized that the $5.50 price includes $19 worth of actual value. In addition to the week's functions, a privilege provides three engraved Commencement cards, one year's membership in the Alumni association, a year's subscription to the California Monthly and an interest in the permanent class organization fund.

Senior week will open on Sunday, May 19, with the Baccalaureate in Faculty glade. On Monday, there will be an all day beach party and dance at either Santa Cruz or San Francisco. The Men's and Women's banquets will be held on Tuesday, and on Wednesday, the class will journey to Marin for a barbecue and dance.

A leap year dance, "Reversia," has been planned for Thursday in the Gymnasium for Men. On Friday, two functions, the traditional Pilgrimage in the afternoon and the Extravaganza in the evening have been scheduled.

Concluding the week's festivities will be the ball Saturday, May 25, in the Palace hotel.

Engineers' Dance Bid To Be Awarded for Fly Guessing Contest

Kinetic energy distributed by hundreds of flies contained in a jar in Eshleman court may help some student win a free bid to the Engineers' semi-formal from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. today at the Berkeley Country club.

"The lucky student who guesses the correct number of flies contained in the jar will receive a free bid, with a value of $1.50 to the dance," Victor Kaste '41, Engineers' council president, announced yesterday.

Milton Frank and his orchestra has been engaged for the dance on the condition that the "Mad Engineer" will not appear in person to disrupt the dance.

Olympics Entry Doubtful

U. S. Participation In 1940 Games Held Improbable

By Bruce Lee '41

If Finland continues with her present plans to hold the 1940 Olympic Games, the United States will probably be unable to participate, Charles Hunter, West Coast AAU representative and Olympic Games official, believes.

Finland already has spent approximately $3,000,000 on a stadium, an Olympic Village and other buildings, and had previously announced that if the Russo-Finnish war was ended by April 1, they would definitely hold the games.

"All United States subscriptions were called in when Finland went to war, and Hunter does not believe that there is enough time now to raise the $300,000 necessary before Game time. Therefore, the United States would be forced to withdraw from competition, he said.

PAN-AMERICAN GAMES ALTERNATIVE

In case Finland reserves present plans and does not hold the Games, the United States is prepared to hold a Pan-American Games at Philadelphia, Hunter said. Competition would be between all the nations of the American continents.

Both Hunter and Ky Ebricht, admiral of the California crews, feel that Finland will cancel the Games by April 1 since very few nations would be able to compete because of lack of preparations due to the war.

Ebricht feels that there is only a small chance that the Pan-American games will be held. The Bear coach feels that lack of sufficient time to prepare for the competition is too great a handicap to overcome.

Caen Will Be Master Of Ceremonies for Annual Liars' Contest

Spinners of tall tales will be given a chance to spin like mad at the sixth annual Liars' Contest, sponsored by Congress, men's debating society, and to be held at 4 p.m. April 1, in Wheeler auditorium.

Acting as master of ceremonies, Herb Caen, columnist of the San Francisco Chronicle, will introduce contest judges, "Awful Fresh" MacFarlane, George Washington, San Francisco resident, and Bosworth.

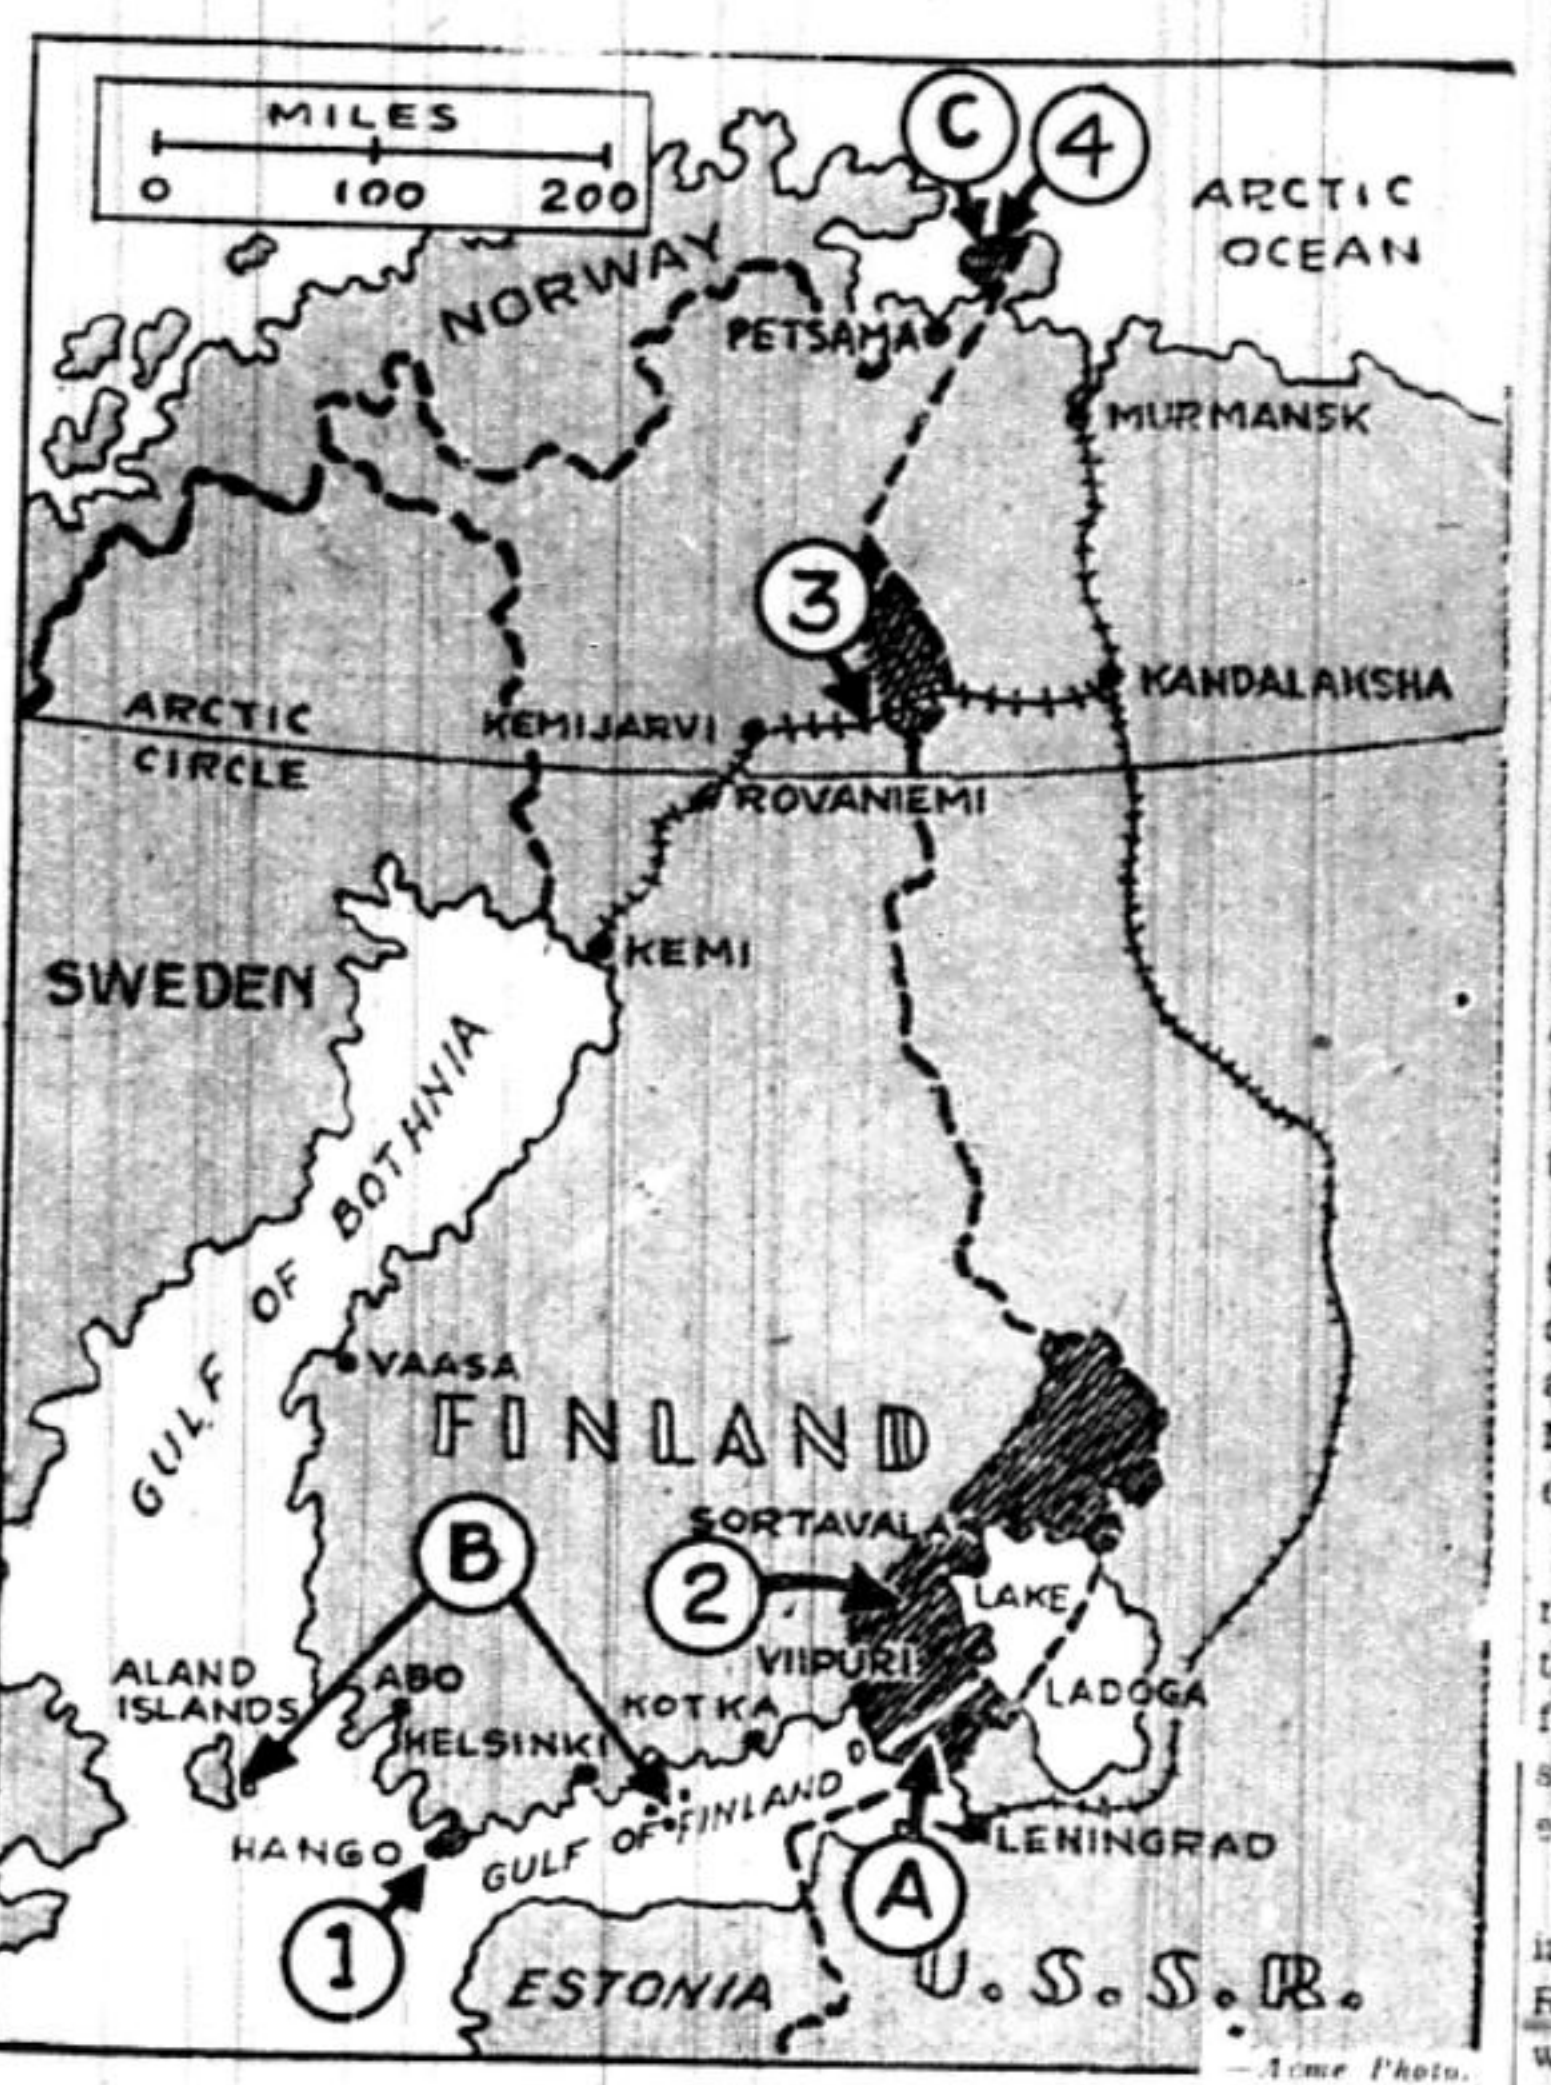

Proceeding the contest at which 10 specially selected lies will be read, a burlesque will be presented. The contest differs from those of the past in that it will have a political theme, both national and international in scope.

Members of Utrimque To Give Spring Dance

Members of Utrimque will hold an informal dance at 9 p.m. today at the Claremont hotel to celebrate their recent merging with the Women Commuters' group.

Nazis Continue War On Allied Blockade

Russian Treaty Shrinks Finland

By the recently signed agreement, Finland has given to Russia: 1—lease on Hango; 2—the Karelian isthmus; 3—sections of land and railroad rights; 4—Petsamo port rights and 25 miles of frontier north of Leningrad, small islands and parts of Sredni and Pybachi Peninsula.

Reich Aided By Russian Finn Peace

BERLIN, March 14.—(UP)—Germany's drive to smash the Allied blockade—the same weapon which finally defeated the Reich in the last great war—progressed today on economic and political fronts.

Removal of the menace to her northern flank by the Finnish peace freed Germany to give full attention to the vital drive. New developments today calculated to strengthen the Reich's position included:

1. Well founded reports stated that Italy and Russia were nearing conclusion of negotiations for a trade agreement, aided largely by Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop's efforts.
2. Dispatches from Bucharest announced the imminent demobilization of about half Rumania's armed forces, so farmers and workers may speed production in order to increase exports to Germany.
3. The foreign ministers of Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania convened at Riga to stimulate friendly relations with Germany and Russia and reportedly to increase trade.
4. Germany concluded an agreement to prolong her trade agreement with Finland, hopeful that this neighbor soon would be able to resume exports to Germany of foodstuffs in return for German manufactured articles.
5. The Reich yesterday arranged to supply overland most of Italy's required coal consumption and a large German trade delegation was still in Rome arranging for further expansion of Italo-German trade.

Additionally, Russia, by conclusion of her peace with Finland, will be able to implement the Russo-Nazi trade agreement and export food and raw materials to Germany.

The economic-political struggle is being fought with trade commissions, financial manipulations, an undetermined amount of political pressure and intensive diplomatic efforts. Oil, wheat, timber and ores are the main prizes and they will determine the outcome of the war.

University Date Publications to Change Denied Hold Hay Day

Dr. Monroe E. Deutsch correcting erroneous reports that the University had changed its fall semester registration date this year, yesterday explained that late fall registration is an established University policy.

A United Press dispatch, reporting a conference between Dr. Deutsch, summer resort owners, the State Chamber of Commerce and high school superintendents, declared that the late registration, August 22 was a concession to the resort owners.

Dr. Deutsch explained that Bay region high schools would make the concession, but that the University would follow the schedule which was found most workable four years ago.

Little Theatre to Present First Double Bill Production Today

Two local playwrights will share theatre honors today and tomorrow when Eugene O'Neill's "All God's Chillun Got Wings," and William Saroyan's "My Heart's in the Highlands" will appear on Little Theatre's first double bill.

Saroyan's whimsical story of a penniless poet and his son who meet

O'Neill's story of a Negro lawyer who marries a third-rate white woman is a symphonic treatment of racial prejudice. It was first produced in Berkeley about 15 years ago with Irving Pichel in the role of Jim Harris.

Among the students appearing in the two productions are: Elizabeth Berryhill '41, John Brennels '41, William Fisher '41, Freddy Moreton, 12-year-old Oakland high school student, Robert Nielson '41, Seth Ulman '41 and Jeanne Taylor '42.

Music will play an important part in both plays, as a background for the Saroyan "My Heart's in the Highlands" and as an integral part of the story, in the form of Negro spirituals, in "All God's Chillun Got Wings."

Tickets for the double bill which will be presented at 8:30 p.m. today and tomorrow in Wheeler auditorium may be reserved by calling Ashberry 4800, local 62. Prices are 45 cents for students and 65 cents for general admission.

'Sweet Swingsters' To Entertain for Assembly Dancers

The "Shamrock Shag" assembly dance honoring the Irish Patron Saint, will be held from 9 p.m. tomorrow until the early hour of St. Patrick's day at the Gymnasium for Men.

Saunders King and his 11 dusky "Sweet Swingsters" will perform for assembly dancers in their third campus engagement, according to dance chairman Ray Cayot '40.

Students attending this dance will be given another chance tomorrow to express their sentiments on proposed higher prices and more expensive orchestras for Assembly dances, Cayot said.

Last week the poll resulted in a majority favoring a slight rise in prices for better music, Cayot stated, but the second poll will be taken to obtain a clearer indication of student opinion.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1940

FELLOW CALIFORNIANS—

With the deepest gratitude that we acknowledge your wholehearted support in our mutual endeavor to provide dormitories for future generations of Californians. Through the efforts of members of the Classes of 1938, 1939 and 1940 the California Alumni Association, in cooperation with the Regents of the University, is now in the midst of raising $400,000 for the building of the first women's dormitory on the Campus at Berkeley. Your support will help speed this undertaking, we hope, to an early conclusion.

With mixed feelings of humility and pride that we watch our class approach graduation. Humility, because you are in a position to do so much more than those of us who went before you. Pride, because we realize that the spirit and the generous feelings of Californians have not changed. It is seldom that California Alumni Association is entrusted with the unified support of an entire class seeking completion of a single project. For that support we are deeply grateful.

This year, as was the case with the Classes of 1938 and 1939, the endowment from life membership subscriptions coming from the Senior Class will be made available as a refunding loan to the Regents of the University to help build new dormitories. We are endeavoring from alumni gifts throughout the State of California to raise $200,000. This $200,000 gift from our alumni is to be matched with a loan of $200,000 from collections on life membership pledges, to which your class is contributing, thus making possible the $400,000 to be used to build the new dormitory.

We are highly pleased by the proposal from your class to take part in this great movement for the building of the first women's dormitory at our University, and express our deep appreciation for this splendid spirit, which cannot fail to keep California in its present ranking at the head of American universities.

Sincerely,
HARRY L. MASSER, '14, President.
ROBERT SIBLEY, '03, Executive Manager.

Reorganization of Class Advisor Committee Will Be Considered

Reorganization of the Class Advisory committee to provide increased efficiency is now under consideration by George Brown '40, chairman, and Anne Waybur '40, ASUC vice-president.

At present, the members of the committee are selected from the Senior class and meet with the chairmen of the lower classes to advise them on their social functions. Under the new plan, the presidents of all the classes will comprise the membership and hold regular meetings.

"This will eliminate people who are not actually concerned with class functions and enable the committee to function more satisfactorily," Brown said. "By having all the class chairmen meet together to discuss budgets and dances, they will all receive practical advice."

Until the proposed revisions are submitted to the Executive committee's approval within the next few weeks, the present committee will supervise the plans for the sophomore labor day and barn dance on April 6.

does Germany hope to gain from such an alliance that she does not already possess through her separate pacts with Italy and the Soviet Union? At best, a three-power pact between these nations would be decidedly insecure and impermanent. Should either Russia or Germany try to round up the Balkan states into their folds, for example, they would have Italy to fight. Or should Italy attempt to increase her influence over Turkey and the Dardanelles, she would have Russia to fight.

The only obvious advantage Germany would obtain through bringing her two friends together would be the creation of a solid totalitarian bloc against the Allies (solid from the standpoint of diplomacy, not of fundamental objectives). Thus would Hitler pull another ace out of his sleeve with which to scare the Western democracies.

University Investigation of State Relief Administration Pending

A request for the University to survey the State Relief Administration reportedly expected from Gov. Culbert L. Olson, has not yet been made, the Bureau of Public Administration said yesterday.

The governor, while in Los Angeles on March 12, suggested that an investigation was needed that would be "free of political bias." According to his son, Richard Olson, a survey by the University could be conducted by "experienced persons with complete data though divorced from the political interests now attempting to wrest control of relief from the administration."

The Bureau of Public Administration has had no request for the survey, and has not been notified of any similar request by other University departments.

Richard Olson explained that a University investigation could be conducted without placing additional burden on the taxpayers.

Army Men to Reclaim Jobs, Savant States

The increasing number of women entering industries in France and England because of the war will not cause unemployment among returning soldiers, Emily Huntington, associate professor of economics, stated yesterday.

The majority of women who are employed are working because of economic necessity, Miss Huntington believes, and those who enter into industry as a "patriotic move" will gladly give up their places when the working men come back from the war. However the war would accelerate any trend for greater numbers of women to seek employment, she declared.

The more responsible positions in government and business would probably not be vacated at all," Miss Huntington continued, "as they are usually filled by men over 45 who are not called upon to leave for the trenches."

Miss Huntington added that many women were "volunteering" their services without pay and that this situation would naturally not persist after the conflict is over.

She cited munitions factories as the greatest field of employment for women in war-time and pointed out that once a war was concluded, these industries would not need so many workers.

What's Your Trouble?

You Ask the Questions; We Give the Answers

By Wilma Hansen '41

Being a friend in need and all that, good imitation of it or the girl is assuming things. If the former, it's your own fault and if the latter, obviously dating other people will soon put an end to at least half the rumors.

Question: Having gotten a bit on the inebrated side while escorting a girl whom I don't know too awfully well to a local function, what's the best way of making amends? P. S. It won't happen again.

Answer: In the fond hope that she isn't of Quaker stock, a rapid apology on your best bonded stationery which isn't too wordy, followed by a prompt phone call, should do the trick. Naturally, flawless conduct on your next date is essential.

Question: What is the best way of letting a girl know that you don't like a dress to which she's particularly addicted?

Answer: If the dress in question happens to be black, try telling her that she'd look lovely in blue, etc., etc., and so on around the color wheel. Above all things, be tactful and in this case, frequent recourse to flattery isn't amiss. If you don't like the next creation, you'd better change girls.

Students Dash Down Road To Matrimony

More University students entered the road to matrimony during the past week.

Athalee O'Dell '40, of Stebbins hall, passed the chocolates at dinner March 1 to announce her engagement to Richard Edenhelm, '40 of the University of Oregon. No marriage plans have been set.

Ella Hoyt '40 announced her engagement to William Haidley last Monday night at a Delta Gamma reunion at the Oakland Women's Athletic club. The couple will be married in September.

Audrey Gals Provis '41 was married Friday, March 1 to Bill Raymond, graduate of the University. Mrs. Raymond will continue work at the University.

Eileen M. Clarke of Stockton will marry Don Jensen on March 28 at St. Clement's Episcopal church. Both are graduates of the University and members of the class of '36.

Marian Lois Thiele '39, member of Sigma Kappa, was married to Wayne Colby Hazen '39 member of Alpha Tau Omega, Phi Phi, and Sigma Xi, and past president of Interfraternity Council.

Two more University graduates have announced their engagement. Audrey Claire Starr and Robert Phillip Thorpe will be married May 25.

Eleanor Riga, former student at the University, will marry Robert Feldhammer today in El Paso. Miss Riga is a member of Phi Sigma Sigma. Mr. Feldhammer is a graduate of Washington State. The couple will reside at Hobbs, New Mexico after their marriage.

What About THE WOMEN

By Marguerite Higgins '41

CAMPUS at war: Ella Barrows Hagar '19 returned to the campus this week to tell twenty odd honor society initiates what it was like in 1917-18 when "all the energies of the campus were directed into one channel, the winning of the war."

Chairman of a campus war time organization, in 1917, the National Service committee, Mrs. Hagar described a regimented University turned into a training camp for aviators. Emotional mass meetings in the Greek Theatre at which students were moved to pledge the amazing total of $150,000 at a time for Liberty Bonds were typical of the day. Recalling the flu epidemic which raged on campus during a war year, Mrs. Hagar laughingly described the student body outfit in white nose and mouth masks for protection against contagion.

"That of Lucy W. Stebbins, dean of women was a lovely pink silk and the envy of the campus," she said.

"With the world plunged into a new war era, Mrs. Hagar expressed the hope that this college generation, contrary to her own, would "expend all their energies in one channel, the keeping of the peace."

Fashion editor: Minus any previous newspaper experience, Betty Marx '39, vice president of her senior class, has taken over the fashion editorship of the Berkeley Gazette. Under the name of "Margo" she has become the favorite of club women of Berkeley as an authority on styles and clothes.

By Marriage: When asked at a recent social gathering of what University class she was a graduate, Mrs. Robert Gordon Sproul, who has never attended any college, replied: "Class of '13—by marriage."

Co-ops Deemed Solution for Race Problem

The best way to overcome campus discrimination against non-Caucasians is through the cooperative movement, Dr. George Johnson of Boalt hall, and Berkeley Negro attorney, said yesterday. He spoke before the YM-YWCA Race Relations group.

"Housing board's work of going individually to various campus boarding houses and breaking down the barriers of racial discrimination has been entirely worthwhile and successful," Johnson noted.

He approved a blanket statement from the University administration declaring that all broadening houses, providing they were not bound by covenant, should admit non-Caucasians in order to be approved.

"It is, however, a question of whether the time is right for the administration to crusade," he said.

Students to Be Questioned for 1940 Census

April 2 will mark the beginning of an intensive two week inquiry of University students for the 1940 United States census. Although only those students who do not have homes elsewhere, or whose homes are in foreign countries, will be listed as residents here, every student will be questioned as to age, education, employment and income. The questions on housing and utilities to accompany this year's census will only be asked in buildings where there are less than four families represented, inasmuch as the census is concerned primarily with the condition of the family home. So far as Uncle Sam is concerned you are just a statistic, and falsification of the records will just be hurting your own chances of establishing claims of all sorts in the future. "We have very little trouble about getting information or getting it wrong," stated S. E. Graham, head of the Alameda Census Bureau, "and I certainly don't expect any from the University students because they probably will be using Bureau statistics for reference in their school work."

Fourth Vocational Conference To Consider Sales Management

Engineers have reserved ten tables for the fourth in the vocational conference series to be held at 6 p. m. Tuesday, March 28, at International House under the sponsorship of the San Francisco Sales Managers' association. Other organizations wishing to make arrangements for special tables should do so at once. Vera Christie, director of the Bureau of Occupations, announced yesterday. Sales managers of Bay firms will be placed at the tables with students. The vocational conference series is held each year under the Bureau of Occupations and a student vocational conference committee. Meetings are directed by Miss Christie and Everett C. Van Every, assistant director of the Bureau. A panel on "Selling and Sales Management" will be presented with Hugo Bedau, agent for the Marchant calculating machine company and president of the sales managers' group, presiding. Other speakers on the panel will be R. W. Adams, sales manager of Don Lee; David Botsford, sales manager and partner in Botsford, Constantine, and Gardner advertising agency; Charles L. MacLeod, sales manager of Schmidt Lithograph company; C. L. Mathey, vice-president Victor Equipment company; and W. B. Ryan, sales manager of National Broadcasting company in San Francisco. Tickets for the dinner meeting may be obtained from the telephone exchange in Stephens Union or the Bureau office. Price is 55 cents.

Book Collections List Due Next Friday For Bibliophile Prize

Contestants for the $100 bibliophile prize must submit their book collections at room 410 Wheeler hall before 4 p. m. next Friday. Prof. James Caldwell, chairman of the committee of judges for the prize, said yesterday. "The collections should be organized around definite interests," Caldwell said. "They will be judged for their purpose, choice of items representing the interest chosen, and discrimination in buying." Competition for the prize is open to all students. Entrants are allowed a maximum of $10 annually for each of the four years in college to complete their library.

Card-Lending Rules Clarified

Necessity for making transfer of ASUC cards an offense subject to penalty was explained by Kenneth Priestley, general manager of the ASUC, as a move to preserve their exemption from federal taxation. "Cards denoting membership in an organization like the ASUC have been ruled exempt from the federal amusement tax, which adds 10 percent of the price to any ticket over 40 cents. "If ASUC cards are sold or transferred, they approach the category of general admission tickets and might be subject to taxation," he said. "Any change which is made in their status might reopen the question of their exemption, and invoke the possibility of an unfavorable ruling," Priestley stated. Reporting on the administration of penalties for ASUC card violators, Joe Ralston '41, ASUC secretary, said students seem to be completely unaware of the reasons for making the regulations. "Not only might question be made as to the tax-exempt status of ASUC cards, but two other definite disadvantages must be guarded against," he said. "First, by allowing those who might otherwise buy tickets to use ASUC cards for admission to athletic events, the revenue of the ASUC is diminished. "Secondly, in view of the fact that there is a limited number of seats, the number of card-holders who can attend will be decreased if non-members are admitted," Ralston stated.

Soph Contest WHISKERS

Sophomore men who are confident they can overcome a one-day handicap may still enter the Whiskering contest, Dean Albertson '42, publicity chairman, announced yesterday. Prizes for the longest, reddest, and most unique beards will be awarded. The contest will close on April 6, date of the Soph Labor day and dance. "Entrants will simply grow a beard. It is not necessary for them to sign up," Albertson declared. "We started early because we know sophomore beards."

Redwood Log Sent University

Donation of a giant plank of "unusually fine" California redwood to the College of Agriculture by the California Redwood association was announced yesterday by Prof. Emanuel Fritz. The board is 21 feet long and contains more than 400 board feet, free from knots or other natural defects, and of a peculiarly fine and uniform grain. The Humboldt county log from which the plank was cut was 96 inches in diameter and contained more than 13,400 board feet, Spaulding scale. Professor Fritz estimated the tree's age at 100 years. The plank is a mate to one cut from the same log, still on exhibit in the Redwood Empire building on Treasure Island.

Thumb-Waggers Club Will Picnic in Hills Tomorrow Afternoon

"Thumb to the Thumb-Waggers picnic!" Tomorrow afternoon, the first organized jaunt of the University Thumb-Waggers' association will be a picnic trip "somewhere in the hills." Refreshments include sandwiches and beer. Sam Wainwright '42, executive councilman, said. "The hitch-hikers' club has women as well as men among its 200-odd members," he added. "Those intending to go picnicking will meet at the Campanile at 11 a. m. tomorrow."

Alpha Zeta Will Install New Chapter at Davis

Members of the Berkeley chapter of Alpha Zeta, agriculture honor society, will motor to Davis on Sunday, for the installation of a new chapter there. The new chapter at Davis will make this the only case where there are three chapters in the same University. Prof. Stanley Freeborn, assistant dean of the College of Agriculture, explained.

'Daughters of Atreus' Will Be Presented By Drama Societies

"Daughters of Atreus," joint production of Thalian and Hammer and Dimmer, dramatic honor societies, will be presented at 8:15 p. m. Thursday, April 4, in Wheeler auditorium. The play is a synthesis of several Greek legends concerning the House of Atreus with each of its acts corresponding to an entire play as handled by Euripides or Aeschylus. The play will be directed by Jack Thompson '40 with Betty Beaumont '42 in the role of Clytemnestra and Lisle Selby '41, as Orestes. Selected from a group of 75 students, Joseph Landisman '41 has been cast as Agamemnon. Tickets for the play are 35 cents. Reservations may be made at the mezzanine floor of Stephens Union or by calling Ashberry 4800, local 62.

The United States extends its hand in international peace next week in the form of the California rugby team. The Bear rugger, 18 of them, will leave tomorrow for Canada where they will meet the University of British Columbia and the Provincial All-Stars.

The only catch is that no one who has seen a rugby game figures there's much peace in the affair, just mutilated pieces.

Last year California played host to the two Canadian teams on Treasure Island and came out a minus quantity. This year the Bears have the best squad in years. But it's like a good Canadian football team coming down here to meet the Varsity eleven. Rugby is a Canadian game. Our boys will have to be a super team to beat the Canucks in their own backyard. The Canadians are picture players, the Bears are just mean and tough.

Incidentally the tour will force Stub Allison to do without some of his men at spring practice for the entire week. Pete Youdall, Orv Hatcher, Glen Whalen, Jean Witter, Paul Holmes, Dick Folmer, Ted Staffler—they've all been out at spring practice, taking time off the rugby drill. But next week the Stubber'll have to play short-suited.

So the New York Yankees are going to be sold. They've been talking about it ever since Colonel Jake Ruppert died. And now they're going to be sold. And why? Well, that's the payoff. They're going to be sold in order to raise cash to meet inheritance taxes on the $50,000,000 estate which the late Mr. Ruppert left.

The three heresses evidently just aren't baseball fans.

In a recent issue of the Daily Trojan one of the feminine writers takes a peek into the life of Phil Gaspar, USC tackle.

The writer, Miss Doris Martin, says, "He went to Catalina the whole summer before he entered SC last September, only working in one movie, '$1,000 A Touchdown.'"

Such a hard life Mr. Gaspar leads, and only worked on one movie, too. And it's just coincidental that it was a football picture. But then maybe he only likes to work in pictures which co-star Joe E. Brown and Martha Raye.

Here's the latest on the Australian trip of the baseball team.

Returning to his office after the Southern trip Clint Evans was going through his mail. He came upon a letter which was sent from a large Honolulu hotel.

The letter opened with "Dear Clint" and went on to say, "Glad to hear that you are taking the baseball team to Australia. Since you will be coming by way of Honolulu I am arranging rooms for the team."

At the latest report the Clinter was still tearing his hair. He's just about given up hope of preserving his temper.

Allison Pleased With Workouts

The seventh day of spring football practice may have been just more routine to the squad, but to Stub Allison, the Top Sarge, it was something else.

"Yes!" the Stubber said cheerfully after yesterday's light session, "I'm tickled to death with the enthusiasm of the whole squad!"

Taking it easy, after Wednesday's two-hour scrimmage, the entire eight teams pounded the dummies, and ran through plays with spirit to spare. That was what Allison liked, and he didn't mind saying so.

With only a week's work behind them, and only in "fair condition," they go on the defensive tomorrow against what is left of the reserves, who have decreased noticeably in number, since the opening day of workouts.

Both Allison and Assistant Coach Bob Herwig were anxious to see last year's frosh work.

Today's scrimmage, the third of the body contact workouts, will give Allison his first opportunity to view the Varsity gridders plugging holes, and knocking down passes.

Yearling Tracksters to Face San Mateo Junior College Tomorrow in Season Opener

Klemmer to Compete in 220, 400; Jurkovich in Sprints, Broad Jump

By John Pearson '43

Opening California's track season, the Bear yearlings will meet San Mateo Junior college at 2 p.m. tomorrow on Edwards field.

Coch Al Ragan will field an untried outfit, but one that seems to be shaping up well.

FROSH UNTESTED

Although the Cubs have not had a meet yet this season, several representatives showed up well in the recent Pacific association indoor meet in San Francisco. Grover Klemmer, ace middle distance man who took second in the 600 meters, is scheduled to compete in both the 220 and 440 in tomorrow's meet.

In the PA meet the relay team took second to the San Mateo outfit, after dropping the baton in the second lap. Although the Cubs lost a half a lap, they kept the pace, losing by the same margin at the finish. Barring further accidents, tomorrow's relay should be very close.

TEAM IN SHAPE

Along with Klemmer the Bears will have Murry Shipnuck in the sprints, Bill Robertson and Jules Lemoine in the hurdles, and Jim Jurkovich in the broad jump and discus.

The team is in good physical shape except for Wayne Burke, sprinter, who has been laid up with a leg cramp and will be unable to compete.

Although it is only tentative, Ragan announced the following entries for tomorrow's meet:

- 100 yard dash—Dreker, Andrews, Shipnuck.
- 220 yard dash—Klemmer, Andrews, Shipnuck, Dreker.
- 440 yard run—Roe, Klemmer, McBride, Kent.
- 880 yard run—Dunn, Stone, Williams.
- Mile Run—Richards, Johnson, Dewey, McCarthy, Zink.
- High Hurdles—Robertson, Lemoine, Peek.
- Low Hurdles—Goodell, Lemoine, Hunt.
- High Jump—Booth, Trokey, Hadsell, Lavagn.
- Pole Vault—Wisecarver, Stock, Walters.
- Broad Jump—Twitchell, Jurkovich, Kohi, Cash, Kishi.
- Shotput—Bernard, Hanson, Swisher.
- Discus—Bernard, Jurkovich, Rutledge.
- Javelin—Wolpert, Wetzler, Carlson.

Winged 'O' Reserves To Oppose Yearling Swimming Aggregation

In conjunction with the Varsity meet with the Olympic club, the freshman swimming team will face the Winged "O" reserves at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow in the local pool.

In every event, with the possible exception of diving, the yearlings have a potential winner with Bob Hill and Claude Baynton in the sprints, and Dick Lippi and John Norris in the breaststroke.

Going South

TOM STOW leads the tennis team to Los Angeles, where they will defend their conference title today and tomorrow against USC and UCLA.

Swim Team To Meet OC

The Varsity swimming team will be fighting a losing battle according to Bear mentor Al Dowden, when they meet the Olympic club at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow in the pool of the Gymnasium for Men.

There are only four events in which the Bears stand a good chance, the 50 and 100 yard free style, diving, and the relay, Dowden stated.

The relay, Dowden added, should be the feature event of the meet as the Bears finished a close second to the Winged O's in the Pacific association meet held earlier in the season at Hayward, and the Bear quartet has improved considerably during the interim.

Hopes of a win in the sprints rests on Steve Aronson and Marty Lloyd, both of whom have turned in good times in the free style events. Bill Barker in the diving is the other Bear, who in Dowden's estimation, stands a chance of finishing first.

Netmen Defend Title Against USC, Bruins

Both Trojans, UCLA to Have Strong Squads This Year—Tom Stow

Opening the defense of its 1939 championship, the California Varsity net squad will clash with the Southern California tennis team this afternoon on the Angeleno's courts.

Tomorrow, the netsters wind up their week-end series by meeting UCLA at Westwood.

The 1940 scramble for the Conference crown will be a real dog fight, Coach Tom Stow believes. USC has one of its strongest squads in recent years, and the Bruins have come up from mediocrity to a place where they are a real threat for the title.

HARMAN VS. TOLEY

Bear Bob Harman will meet Trojan George Toley in the featured number one match this afternoon. However, Stow expects the match between nationally known Ted Schroeder, who plays in the number two spot for USC, and Bob Peacock, number two for California, will be one of the best of the day.

Bob Hippenstiel will handle number three for the Bears, Bill Canning, four, Gunny Ammonette, five, but Stow hasn't decided who will play the sixth position yet.

SOPHS ON BRUIN TEAM

Harman and Peacock form the first doubles combination, with Canning and Ammonette in the second tandem, and probably Hippenstiel and Wally Meyer, number three.

Five sophomores form the nucleus of the UCLA squad. These sophomores were defeated only occasionally as members of last year's Bruhabes. Bob Stanford, Marvin Miller and Dick Dearden are among the most potent of the UCLA sophomores.

Freshman Golfers to Oppose Piedmont High

Piedmont High will furnish the opposition for the freshman golf squad in its initial appearance at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at the Tilden Park course.

Coach Dewey Longworth, freshman mentor, also acts in the same capacity for the Piedmont boys and will therefore be able to get a good idea about the respective merits of his two squads.

Embarrassed? AND HOW!!

The Frank Wickhorst family was put in a rather embarrassing spot last week.

It happened like this: The head of the Wickhorst clan, that MR. Wickhorst, was forced to the hospital for an appendectomy. Now, unfortunately, there was only one room vacant and so the Bear grid line coach was forced to take that.

Mrs. Wickhorst, at home, received numerous congratulatory telephone calls, strangely enough, the voices at the end of the line seemed surprised when Mrs. Wickhorst answered.

Mrs. Wickhorst was puzzled, decided to check up with her husband.

She found the answer. Frank Wickhorst's room was in the maternity ward!

Yearling Nine to Play Petaluma Tomorrow

California's frosh baseball nine resumes its schedule against Petaluma high school on Hilgard field at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow after tying one game and losing one to their Bear brothers this week.

Coach Harry Kingman will send into action the first string battery of Al Richter or George Wilson with Stan Sharp behind the plate.

Varsity Rugby Team Takes Canadian Trip

Bears Will Play Two Games in Vancouver Against Canadian Teams

Tomorrow a Bear athletic team really and truly embarks on a trip which will take it into foreign lands.

This is not a phoney like the famous "Australian baseball trip." For Coach Miles R. Hudson and 18 members of the Varsity rugby team have all made reservations on the 6:51 train leaving Berkeley tomorrow for Vancouver, British Columbia.

The Bears will play two games in Vancouver. The first is scheduled for March 20 with the University of British Columbia while three days later the Vancouver All-Stars will furnish the opposition.

Those on the traveling squad are: Sid Shelton, Jean Witter, Jess Wilson, Paul Holmes, Dick Folmer, Pete Youdall, Earl Snell, Ted Staffler, Jim Warren, Orv Hatcher, Al Lindeburg, Bill Hutters, Glen Whalen, Bing Williams, Charley Grainger, Munroe Benson, Will Rogers and George West. Senior manager Tom Lord and trainer Billy Fallon will accompany the team.

—LAST DAY TO GET B&G—

Battling Nelson started fighting as a professional at the age of 14.

Hockey Squad to Play Pacific

Third place in the Northern California Ice Hockey will be at stake when the Bear pucksters tangle with the Pacific club at 7:45 p.m. tomorrow in the Oakland Ice Pavilion. This will be the first time the two teams have met since the city won the first place score, but the club has a 2-2 tie at their last meet.

IF you want to know how it feels to ride 80 miles an hour on a racing bob-sled, "Bucky" Wells of Keene Valley, N.Y. can tell you. He's done it plenty of times. He likes those speed-thrills on a racing bob. But when it comes to cigarettes, "Bucky" Wells is on the slow side...the slow-burning side. That means Camel!

"I've smoked Camels for years, and I know they burn slower," "Bucky" says. "There's cool comfort in a Camel. Mildness — more flavor. And — slow burning means extra smoking. Yes, penny for penny, Camels are the best cigarette buy. I'd walk a mile for a Camel!"

Why would anybody feel that way about his cigarette? Try a Camel and you'll know. Camels are a matchless blend of tender tobaccos...slow-burning. They give more pleasure per puff, more puffs per pack.

In recent laboratory tests, CAMELS burned 25% slower than the average of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands tested—slower than any of them. That means, on the average, a smoking plus equal to

SEEK THIRD VICTORY

California's freshman netsters will seek their third straight victory when they clash with the Berkeley high racketeers at 2 p.m. on the University courts.

Having previously trounced San Francisco and San Mateo Junior college, the frosh are expected to defeat the high school contingent.

The men that will play today in order of ranking are Tom Brown, George Spencer, Jimmy Livingston, Bob Tout, Bill Franklin and Tsen-fold.

JUNIOR SABRE COMPETITION

Led by Captain Bob Stone, the University's fencing team will face the Olympic club, Funke's Fencing academy and the Young Italians' club in the Junior Sabre competition at 8 p.m. today in the Spanish room of the Hotel Claremont.

In addition to Stone, Jack Hovick and William Hohenthal will wield sabres for California.

While the above events are in progress, the University's women will fence in the Women's Open Foil competition, which is open to all eligible women.

GYMNASTS MEET TROY

Gymnastics is one sport that USC will not win the championship in, Coach Chuck Keeney said yesterday.

The team leaves today for Los Angeles to meet UCLA and USC Saturday. The Bears tied with the Trojans last year for the championship but Keeney predicts that he will have more trouble with the Bruins this year.

Varsity Track Team to Hold Time Trials

Showings to Determine California Entries in Bear-Cardinal Relays

California entries for the Bear-Indian relay meet March 23 will be determined in time trials to be held today, tomorrow or Monday, depending on the weather.

In selecting the four man teams for the six relays and field events, Coach Brutus Hamilton will pay most attention to the half mile candidates. A trial at the two lap distance will be held to pick a quartet from among Dick Peter, Denzil Widel, Warren Craig, Wesley Craig, Shirley Summers, Stan Sada and Dick Bahme.

Hamilton announced yesterday that while some of the leading contenders will not compete in the trials the team selections made on the basis of the practice runs will be final.

Among those slated to be withheld from action is quarter miler Fay Fromm who is expected to run one leg of the mile relay.

One of the more difficult jobs facing the Bear mentor will be the task of selecting a four man vault team from seven outstanding candidates. Lettermen Pat McCarthy and Earl Ford, and Lute Nichols, Gwinn Smith, Ted McConaghy, Wilbur Twining and Dick Bennett are all hovering around the 13-foot mark.

Leading candidates for the 440 and 880 sprint medleys include Captain Elton Brombacher, Bob Pickarts, Bill Kearney, Roger Clements and Don Pooley.

Hail to the champions!

The Parader, whose most strenuous exercise is strolling around to watch games and pounding a typewriter, bows his head in acknowledgement to the effort that Bowles Hall put forth in downing Sigma Nu, 9-15, 15-4, and 15-8, to win the All-university volleyball title yesterday.

Jack Loew, John Weaver and Dan Aronson were outstanding for the hall, while Bud Grainger, Jim Hildreth and Earl Wilson gave their all for Sigma Nu.

Hearing the sound of falling bodies in the Gymnasium for Men, The Parader rushed to the rescue only to find that White Shingles had defeated La Chance, 17 to 13, in a game of "basketball" while Meadowbrook was downing the Architects by a final score of 30 to 12.

On the softball diamond, Theta Xi won a close 4 to 2 decision from Kappa Nu as Barrington stopped Oxford, 7 to 4.

Ebright Raises Distance for Bear Oarsmen

With the Oregon State race but one short week away, Coach Ky Ebright has begun to speed up the pace of the Varsity crewmen, now working out on the Oakland estuary.

Having rowed over a distance of a mile and a half since the beginning of the season, Ebright is now pushing the length up to two miles for tomorrow's time trials—and hopes to reach the regatta racing distance of three miles by the early part of next week.

In the last test race held Wednesday the shell "Spirit" with Les Still at stroke crossed the finish line a winner by two lengths.

Rowing in the victorious boat were Ray Talcott, No. 7; Forrest DuBois, No. 6; Al Daggett, No. 5; Bob Anderson, No. 4; Bill Blevins, No. 3; John Schroeffer, No. 2; Stan Backland, bow, and Art Gasaway calling the strokes.

Beecroft Suggestion

Careful and constructive was the report of the ASUC Beecroft sub-committee. For this reason Executive committee endorsed the report by a unanimous vote.

In the words of the report, "We feel that if there are definite reasons for Dr. Beecroft's dismissal, he should be dismissed, and if these reasons do exist no pressure should be permitted to sway the minds of the Academic Senate in the performance of their duty."

"However, in the minds of the public, the cloak of secrecy which has enveloped the case makes the existence of what may be legitimate reasons dubious. It seems to us that there is nothing to be lost and much to be gained by making public the charges against Dr. Beecroft."

In view of the violent reactions of some sections of the interested public, this suggestion is most reasonable. It should be given consideration, no matter what its source.

Punch to the Pocketbook

The college student is traditionally broke. It doesn't help when this tradition is strengthened by a ruling of the state employment commission affecting some 700 University students.

The distinction pointed out by Professor Armstrong as to the two categories of students whose checks are now cut off is a good one. Some students really wanted to find full-time employment, but, failing in that, registered at the University for another semester of general preparation.

Although the penniless tradition of the college student should in no way be fostered, it seems that in this case all 700 students will remain ineligible for unemployment compensation unless some sure test for the intentions of students is found.

Things to Come

Thoughts of Senior Week bring mingled reactions to the Class of '40. It is startling to remember that it will be a class of alumni within a few short months. But it is pleasing to look forward to a week of let-down after the four-year term is completed.

In the next 13 school days the Class of '40 must sell privileges to every senior who intends to get in on all the final fun. All sales must be made in this short period so that the $11,000 Senior Week budget can be accurately planned well before cap and gown time.

Due to the size and financial stability of the Class of '40, it has been possible to make price reductions on some of the events. Only one thing may thus bar the senior from the activities of his class at the end of the semester: he may put off buying his senior privilege until it is too late. That obstacle is easily overcome.

Work Together

Much has been said about housing the non-Caucasian student, but little was accomplished until a few weeks ago when the ASUC Housing board distributed printed questionnaires to most of the Chinese, Japanese and Negro students on campus in an effort to secure actual information as a basis for future work.

The board's plan, though not a strong one, was highly commendable for it was one of the few concentrated efforts in the right direction.

Unfortunately the plan has not worked. The fault, however, can not be traced to the Housing board but rather to the students who should be most interested, the non-Caucasians, themselves.

Perhaps the non-Caucasian students wish to solve their own problems. If so, this is an excellent indication. If, however, they wish the aid of experienced persons, shyness, laxity, or a general lack of interest will not aid in seeking it.—W.X.A. '41.

In Tune With the Times

By Edmund Tackle '41

The whole reeking, filthy mess that now spells California politics seeped through the legislative drain pipe into Oakland yesterday and as a result two CIO attorneys were forcibly ejected from the Assembly's "little Dies committee" relief investigation.

Because Audrey Grossman and Herbert Resner, both graduates of this University in 1932, hold the naive belief that democratic procedure during a supposedly impartial and non-political investigation should not include intimidation, leading questions and unjust remarks from the chair, they were conducted by police from Assemblyman Samuel Yorty's three-ring circus.

One of Yorty's remarks at Wednesday's hearings was the root of the uproar that resulted yesterday in the ejection of Grossman. The CIO attorney heard infernal Wednesday that his wife was an SRA supervisor in Alameda county. He also heard Yorty observe with all the open-mindedness of a Spanish Inquisitor, that her employment "was further proof Communists controlled SRA."

Grossman requested permission to address the committee yesterday when Elsie Rego, financial secretary of the CIO State, County and Municipal Workers of America, which he represents as counsel, refused to produce subpoenaed financial records of the union. Yorty denied the request; and when Grossman started to read his statement shortly afterwards, Assemblyman Chester Cannon moved that he be ejected. This would have been sufficient to subdue Grossman had not the incomprehensible Yorty, in the worst judicial manner conceivable, asserted: "It is obvious that this communistic-controlled union doesn't want the Legislature to have its financial records."

Grossman immediately arose, shouting: "I object, Sam. You're going too far. My wife does not work for the SRA. It's a damned lie!" Whereupon Yorty motioned to the police and Grossman was escorted from the room.

Resner was ejected following his objection when Miss Rego was asked if she knew that Labor's Non-Partisan League was communistically-controlled.

Yesterday's double incident well illustrates the type of inquiry that Yorty is conducting. It is not a sincere attempt to ferret out the facts. Biased observations and leading questions by the investigators have no place in the hearings of an objective, fact-finding committee. Yorty can only again be denounced as a diminutive demagogue playing a red-baiting game which he thinks is going to assure his political future.

Ridiculous Accusations

By Sarita Hender on '41

ACCUSATIONS of "communism" hurled against three University professors yesterday become only the more ridiculous in view of the type of plans to which they give their support.

One of those charged with "spreading communism on the campus," Prof. Max Radin yesterday gave a demonstration of his activities by urging students to participate in the examination of a peace plan. His expressed purpose is to induce constructive criticism and suggestions, not blind support of a movement for economic reconstruction which is gaining international support.

His efforts in this respect are directed toward preventing the frenzy of nationalistic feeling following the Versailles treaty, which robbed the League of Nations of all effectiveness and swept the world toward totalitarianism and imperialism. By supporting an international organization designed primarily for research and investigation on an academic plane, he hopes to aid in surmounting the narrow sectional psychology which leads only toward disintegrating selfishness and conflict.

Any criticism by the student committee of the plan he is supporting will probably be made on the grounds of its idealism and compromising nature, rather than its revolutionary tendencies.

The Old Guard

The Californiac

By Tom Barbour '40

Into the office of the Daily Californian rushes this character Douglas Badt '40, manager of the Blue and Gold, which, as you know, is having its last final drive today in Eshleman court.

"Hey," Badt says. "Guess what?"

The Californiac is up to the wrists in copy for today's paper, but he peers skeptically out of the corner of his eye.

You can tell a guy what wants publicity a mile off after you have spent any time at all at a city desk of almost any newspaper, especially such a newspaper as The Californian, which is in a monopoly position on the campus and is supposed to give all the ASUC and campus organizations an even break.

"I cannot guess what," says the Californiac, who is usually quick to grasp. The Californiac says I cannot guess what but all the time has a sneaking suspicion what.

"Well," says this Badt, "guess what is happening this Saturday night."

"What is happening this Saturday night?" the Californiac queries, knowing full well that it is the night of the Little Theatre play only the Californiac cannot see why this guy Badt is so interested in Little Theatre plays.

"Hell's Bells, man, who cares about plays?" says Badt, getting on his high horse.

"I do," says the Californiac. "I like Little Theatre plays. And I like Thalian plays also and especially Thalian plays that are directed by Jack Price, a feat that is slated to take place in the near future and which will be a perfect wow."

"Listen. All I came down here for was to ask you if you had heard about the PUBLICATIONS BARN DANCE, which takes place tomorrow night at Valente's Barn at $1.25 per couple."

"I have," says the Californiac. "Oh. Well, there is another matter of a change regarding the production of the Blue and Gold which has its final..."

By this time the Californiac is ready for anything. "This will kill you. This is a scoop. THE BLUE AND GOLD WILL BE PRINTED ON PINK PAPER AND IN RED INK WITH A RUNNING THEME OF A HAMMER AND A SICKLE!!!"

The Californiac yawned, and Badt, seeing the startling revelation had absolutely no effect, fainted.

Just goes to show you what some guys will do for publicity. —LAST DAY TO GET B&G—

Futility in Lockouts

Consistent inconsistency was manifested at the Women's Activity council's discussion on house rules last week.

After a substantial majority of organized living groups had cast their votes for greater leniency, favoring the extension of the lockout time to 2:30 a.m., the representatives of these groups decided this would be "too late" and made only the most negligible changes in the rules.

In addition to this, after the meeting had been called and the votes taken, it was announced that while the suggestions made at the meeting would be considered by the Women's Executive council in establishing the new regulations, there was no guarantee that they would follow the popular opinion expressed.

The whole question, which began as an adult evaluation of the necessity of the rules, has degenerated into the realm of ridiculous futility.—J. H. '41

MUSIC FOR PLEASURE

To the Editor: I would like to take one big slap at "Darned Disgusted '42" and all of those like him who are continually muttering in their beards and whining and carrying on about the so-called butchery of the classics. Music is written to be heard, sung, and danced to. And to what better source for our popular music could we turn than to music of composers whose musical abilities amount to nothing less than genius? If millions of people enjoy the catchy themes of good music, the mild annoyance of some, not all, lovers of good music, is far outweighed by this pleasure for millions. "Moonlove," the theme from the second movement of Tchaikovsky's Fifth, is a popular song, the music of which even you, Sir D. D. '42, must admit carries a punch.

So enough of these long faces and expressions which tend to deplore the latest twin of modern popular music. B. B. C. '42.

ONE MAN'S OPINION

To the Editor: On different occasions I have been disgusted with certain articles and editorials (all shielded under guise of being progressively liberal) which have appeared in the Daily Cal. but "In Tune With the Times" last Friday there was one which was not only repulsive but one that is a challenge to a sincere American and to a person who likes to see the truth presented.

In his column E. Tackle quoted from a contributor's article concerning the "facts" behind the Spanish and Finnish wars.

The scientific treatments accorded the two conflicts were those created as only a deceitful, communist propaganda stuffed stooge could conjure.

Mr. Tackle and his comrade "Common Sense" are misleading none by deliberately being careful to disclaim any ties with the Soviet.

It's a shame that with all the really constructive minded political science students enrolled in the University, Mr. Tackle with his "boring from within" tactics is given a column on the school paper.

M. M. '41

Editor's note: "Common Sense" to whom M. M. '41 refers to above is a graduate student in political science at this University.

ASSEMBLY DANCES

To the Editor: I have read some comment in The Cal about Assembly dances, poor jaspers, et al. Here are a few suggestions: make Assembly dances oftener, every week or two; get a larger hall for mixer dances; cut down the number of stags by getting a few more women.

Another point: Why don't we have a blind date bureau on this campus? I have been here three years and despite earnest efforts to do something about it I find that in most student society everyone goes with the crowd from the same high school and one from far away is welcome only at the
