

Duce Asks Hitler to Delay Drive

German Peace Concessions Rejected by Allies

ROME, March 18.—(UP)—Premier Benito Mussolini urged Adolf Hitler at their Brenner Pass conference today to delay a threatened German "great offensive" and agree to concessions which might lead to a compromised peace...

This source, in close contact with events which have climaxed the fact-finding tour of Europe by Sumner Welles, President Roosevelt's envoy, said Germany had outlined an 11-point proposal for peace. Welles found its provisions unacceptable and they were scoffed at in Paris and London, the informant said.

Mussolini, according to this source, learning from Welles that Hitler's proposals were doomed to failure unless further concessions were made, swiftly arranged the dramatic meeting in Brenner's snows after Welles arrived in Rome Friday night with discouraging news regarding the peace outlook.

Whether Mussolini was able to obtain from the German chancellor such further concessions were shrouded in the Italo-German official secrecy which cloaked the meeting. However, the fact Mussolini emerged from the two and a half hour talk aboard his private railway coach in a cheerful mood while Hitler was stern and contemptuous led to speculation Mussolini may have been successful to some extent.

It was believed Hitler at least saw hopes of keeping alive the spark of peace lighted by Welles' tour. Mussolini returned to Rome at 11:42 p.m. on board his special train, which also brought Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano, German ambassador Dr. Hans Georg von Mackensen and others who accompanied the premier to Brenner.

1200 Students Sign Petition

The signatures on a petition requesting a "fair and open hearing" for Eric Beecroft, assistant professor of political science, numbered 1,200 yesterday, according to Abner Smith '40, member of the American Student Union campus democracy committee.

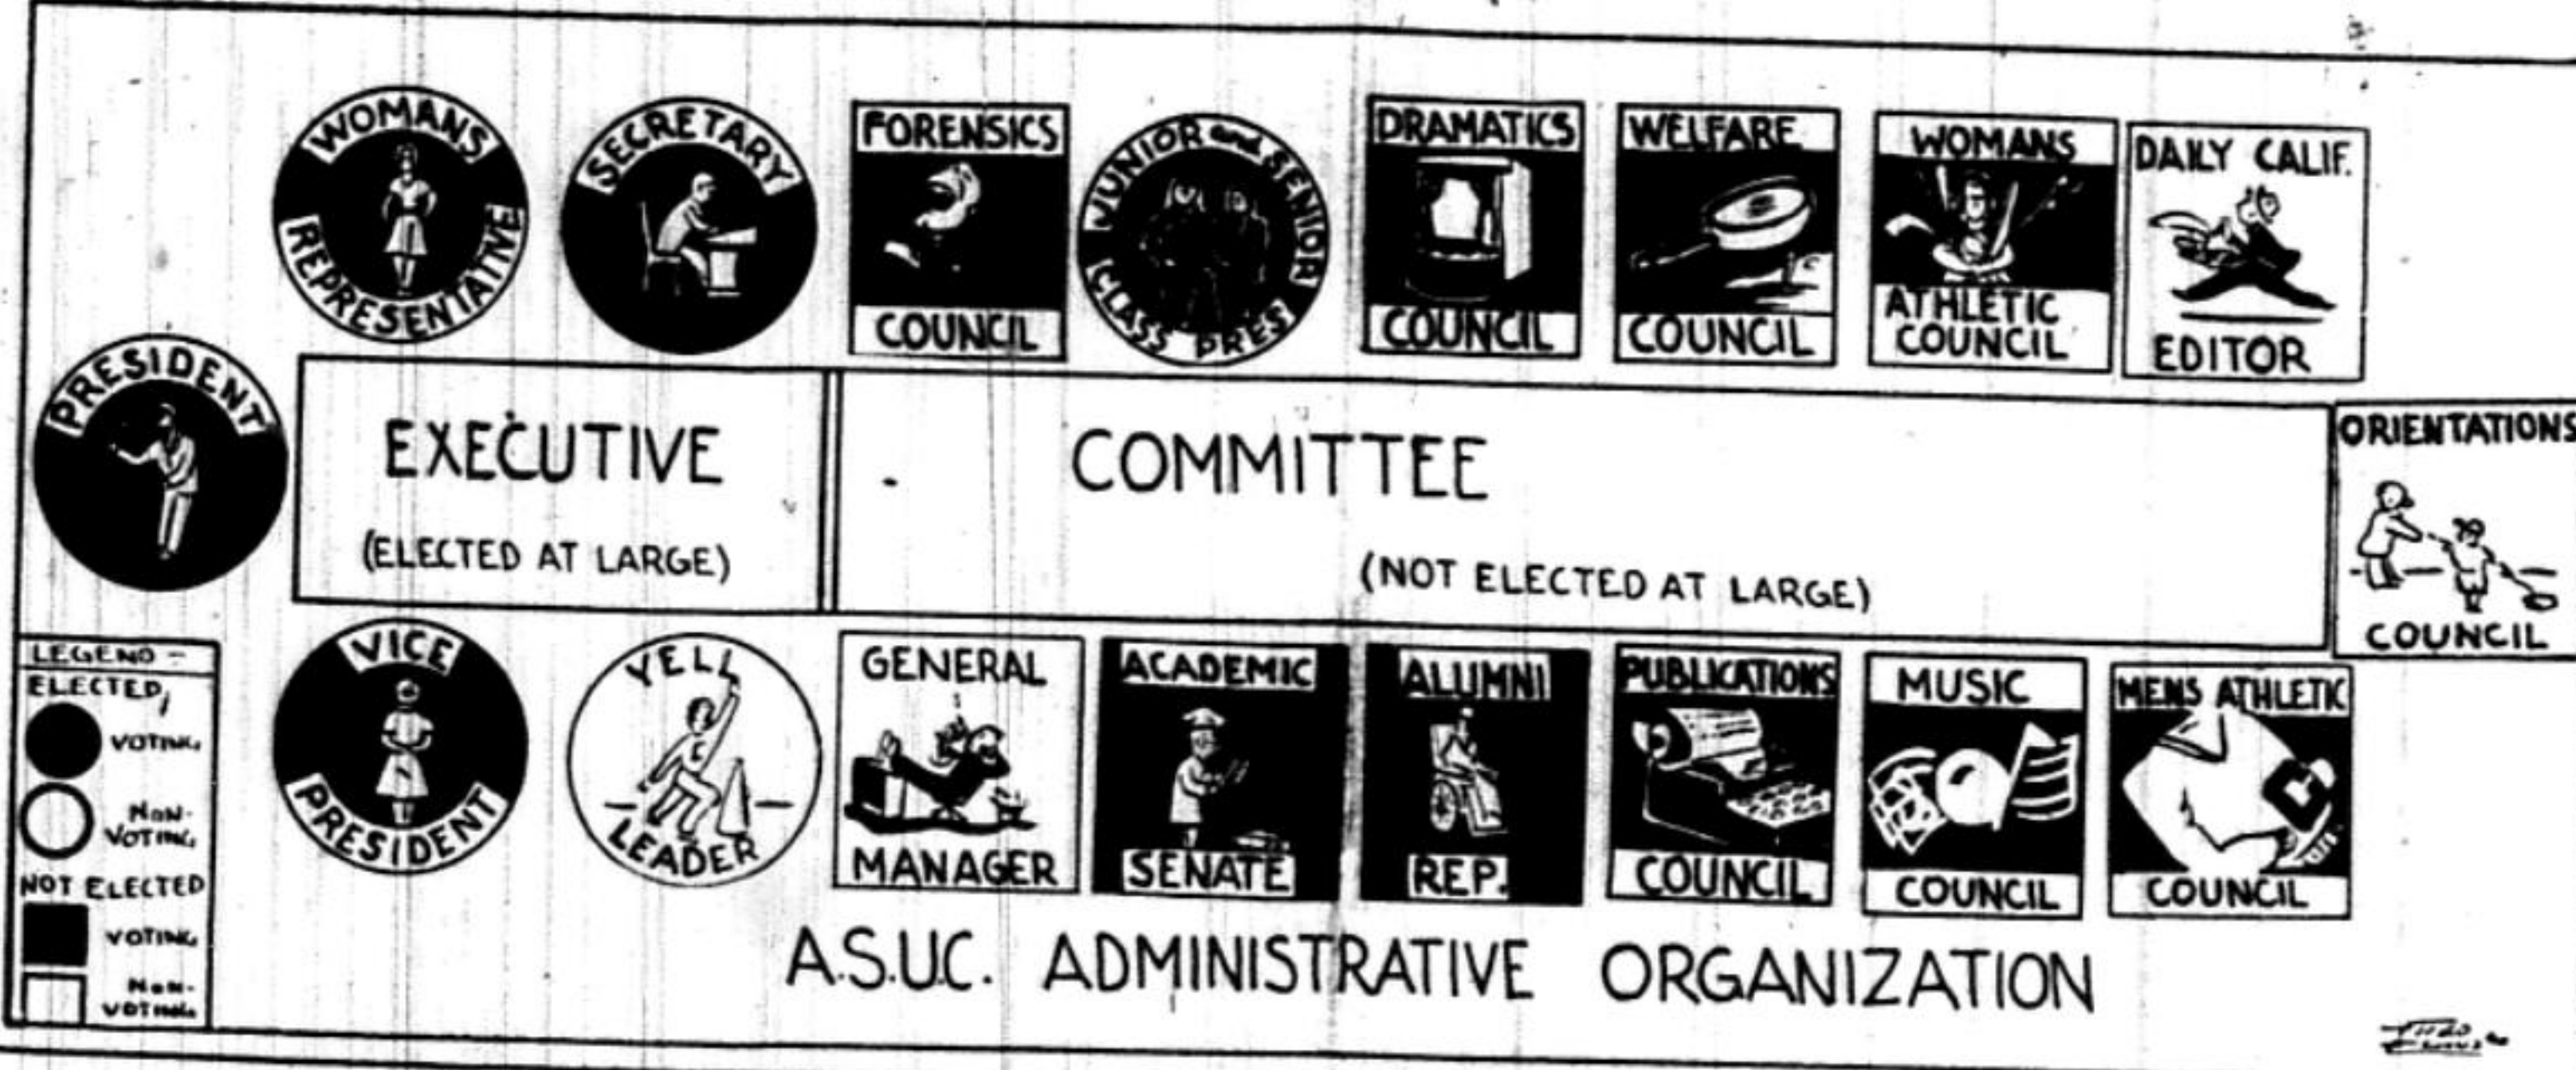

He declared that the ASU committee circulating the petition hoped to reach a minimum of 4,000 signatures by next week. When a sufficient number of signatures have been obtained the petition will be presented to President Robert Gordon Sproul.

Commenting on the petition, Jim Keene '40, ASUC president, urged students to acquaint themselves with the "Beecroft" case and sign the petition if they were convinced of the merits of a "fair and open hearing" on the reasons for failure to recommend Dr. Beecroft's contract for renewal.

Because "there is so much confusion surrounding the Beecroft case," Anne Waybur '40, ASUC vice-president, believes the petition's plea for an open hearing should be heeded and urged students to sign it.

War Film to Have University Showing

The Boys in Black Have the Votes

Major proposed changes in the organization of the ASUC Executive committee, as shown in the diagram at left, are:

- 1. The present Executive committee (above) has only four voting members who are elected by the student body at large.
2. The present Executive committee has 11 voting members representing special campus groups.
3. Proposed plan reverses the proportion: there are eight elected, voting representatives and two representatives chosen to represent the activities.
4. Under the proposed plan, the Academic Senate and Alumni council will remain on the Executive committee as advisors, without vote.
5. The proposed Activities Coordinating committee will handle routine business of all activities. From this committee, two representatives will be chosen to vote on Executive committee.

Housing Board Apartment List Now Available

A list of apartment houses available to University students is now included in Housing board files, Richard Goldman '41, chairman of the Dormitory sub-committee of Housing board, said yesterday.

The list includes apartments within 10 blocks of the campus. They are listed as non-approved houses, for the Housing board has not the authority to approve or disapprove them, Goldman said.

The Dormitory committee inspects each apartment before listing it. "By excluding those houses that are not up to par, we list only the houses that are fit for student accommodation," Goldman said.

Listing of apartments is done on the authority vested in Housing board by a joint committee of the ASUC and University Housing committees two weeks ago. The large number of students who apply for information concerning apartments makes the list necessary, Goldman said.

Women Counselors To Discuss Leadership

Women counselors will meet today to discuss leadership and its relation to campus activities.

Sales Managers to Address Student Vocational Conference

"Selling and Sales Management" will be discussed by five Bay region sales managers at the fourth vocational conference at 6 p.m. Tuesday, March 26, at International house.

In addition to the five speakers on the panel, over thirty other managers will be at tables with students to discuss selling problems.

The meeting is the fourth in a series of seven in the vocational conference series, which is sponsored by the Bureau of Occupations and a student vocational conference committee. Meetings are held annually under the Bureau's direction. This year professional groups are sponsoring individual meetings.

Extravaganza Writers Dispute

A controversy that threatened to wreck Senior Extravaganza plans burst out yesterday at a meeting of writers and producers of the musical comedy, slated for Senior Week.

Principals in the fight were Warner Law '40 and Edwin Stofle '40, writers of the show, tentatively named "Fast and Spurious." They differed on the title.

When Law explained that "spurious" meant "false, phoney, illegitimate," Stofle threatened to withdraw from the show.

"Nothing I ever have anything to do with is illegitimate," Stofle said. "My writing is as sincere as a watch-bird watching a lawn lover."

Senior Week Head Reports Sales Increase

Topping last year's record, the class of '40 has sold more than 135 Senior week privileges in the first two days, George Brown '40, chairman, announced yesterday.

Approximately 100 represent privileges received through the purchase of life memberships in the Alumni association. The remaining number has been sold by senior salesmen.

"There is only a week and a half more in which to purchase a privilege," Brown stated. "The sales drive will end on March 27."

Robert E. Sibley '03, executive manager of the Alumni association, said yesterday that Senior week is a "tradition which has its roots in the first class ever to be graduated from the University."

The ball, the baccalaureate and the pilgrimage are the three original events held at that time which are still continued.

In 1892, the first extravaganza was written and produced by Frank Norris ex-'94 and Benjamin Reed '94. This year's class will revive the tradition of presenting original scripts for the revue.

The men's and women's banquets were first held in 1910. The most recent event to be added to the program is the Marin barbecue which began in 1934.

Easter Sunrise Rites To Be Held Sunday

Student Censure, Reorganization, Feature Meeting

Four Councillors To Sit on New Ex Committee

Plans for reorganization of the ASUC will be submitted to the student electorate on a ballot approved by Executive committee yesterday.

The plans call for a reversal of the proportion of elected members to activity representatives on Executive committee.

Four councillors, to be elected from the student body at large, would be added to Executive committee by the new plan.

Members of the Bureau would be appointed by the ASUC president, and would consist of a chairman, who would be a senior, five additional seniors, and five juniors.

Under the new plan, proxy votes would not be allowed either on the Executive committee or any other board or committee financially supported by the ASUC.

Specifically written into the ASUC Constitution, the Finance committee would be composed of the ASUC president and vice-president, one of the four councillors, and one of the representatives from the Activities Coordinating committee.

The Nominations committee would be eliminated and a provision substituted whereby candidates would be required to submit a declaration of candidacy signed by 25 members of the ASUC, at least one week before the date of nominations.

$7000 Sirkus Profit Estimated; Funds Go to Big 'C' Societies

Out of the profits of the recent Big "C" Sirkus, a fund of $2,500 will be set aside for the next Sirkus, James Dieterich '40, manager of the 1940 Sirkus, announced yesterday.

The net profit of the Sirkus, which will not be completely calculated for several weeks, will be closer to $7,000 than $8,000, Dieterich said. He originally predicted $8,000.

Interest from the fund will probably go to a scholarship, according to Dieterich. Approximately $1,600 will be distributed to active and alumni Big "C" societies.

Firestone Asks For Explanation Of Taber Case

At a crowded Executive committee meeting last night, Assistant Dean Elmer C. Goldsworthy declined to explain to the American Student Union the procedure under which Robin Taber '40, ASU executive secretary, was allegedly placed under full censure.

In response to an explanation requested by Bernie Firestone '40, ASU president, Dean Goldsworthy said, "No student has been placed under completely full censure by my office this semester."

Firestone reported that Taber had been penalized for handing an ASU leaflet to Margaret Rohrer '40, a member of the ASU, in the presence of Dean Goldsworthy.

The position of the administration was given by Dean Goldsworthy in three points, as follows: 1. No explanation was needed since the ASU could have ascertained the ruling from the dean's office during regular office hours.

UNION REPRESENTATIVE MAKES REQUEST

A representative of the AFL Cullinary Workers and Beverage Dispensers' union appeared before the committee with a request to bargain on behalf of ASUC Coffee shop employees.

Following an executive session, the committee stated a sub-committee had been appointed to meet with representatives of the union.

Other action taken by the committee included a resolution in which ASUC organizations were requested to refrain from exhorting students to cut classes to attend the Student Peace meeting at 11 a.m. Friday, April 19, in Greek Theatre.

Another request of the University administration for dismissal of classes during the Student Peace meeting was passed.

The committee also endorsed a Peace committee resolution requesting that NYA rolls be withdrawn from use by U. S. Army recruiting officers.

New Medical Center Scholarships Announced

Two new annual scholarships, totaling $150, have been established for students in the College of Pharmacy at the University Medical Center, Dean C. L. A. Schmidt announced yesterday.

Librarian Reports False Names, Forgeries On Withdrawal Slips

Frequent occurrences of forgeries and the use of false names and addresses on home use book slips were reported yesterday by Enid F. Tanner, chief of the Loan and Shelf division of the University library.

"Considering the large number of students who make use of the home loan service, the offenses are, however, comparatively slight," she added.

The guilty parties, Miss Tanner believes, are those students who "unscrupulously disregard" the rights of others and wish to keep the books for the entire semester.

"We are now demanding that students produce their registration cards with the name and date clearly visible," she said. "Many students were concealing old registration cards in card cases or cellophane folders."

Andy B. Wilkinson, junior librarian in the Reserve Book room, stated there have been no cases of forgeries in that department this semester, although they have been common in the past.

"When such cases occur, we check with the professors in whose courses the missing book is listed, using the student's writing as a guide," he said.

A safeguard employed by the RBR is the insistence that all signatures be written and the refusal to accept any printed names.

Templeton to Present Recital of Classics, Own Compositions

Alec Templeton will present a program; of both standard classics and his own compositions and improvisations when he appears in a piano concert at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 27, in the Gymnasium for Men.

Born without sight, he first showed exceptional music ability at the age of two. He composed his first piece, "Slow Movement," when he was four. Realizing his talent, his parents gave him music lessons at home until he was nine.

Templeton has appeared in several recitals at Aeolian hall, London, and has also competed in numerous music festivals throughout Great Britain, being awarded many medals and cups for his playing and compositions.

Bach's Toccata and Fugue in D minor, Beethoven's Pathetique Sonata in E flat minor, will be presented in the first part of the concert, with compositions of Rachmaninoff, Chopin and Debussy.

Following the intermission, Templeton will play his own "Hazy and Blue," "Mendelssohn Mows 'Em Down" and "Improvisations and Impressions."

Student and regular tickets are on sale at the ticket office, Stephens Union. The concert is being presented by the University Committee of Music and Drama.

Color Travelogue to Be Shown by Pelly

"Orchids to Guatemala," a travel film in color by Rodman C. Pell, will be shown at 8 p.m. Monday, March 25, in Wheeler auditorium.

Six Members Of Faculty to Retire in July

Six members of the University faculty, three of them from the Berkeley campus, will be retired by the University July 1.

Berkeley faculty members to retire are Herbert E. Bolton, chairman of the history department; Orrin K. McMurray, professor of law and former dean of the Boalt school of law; and Frederick J. Teggart, chairman of the department of social institutions.

Dr. Langley Porter, dean of the University medical school in San Francisco; Ernest L. Walker, professor of tropical medicine at the San Francisco school; and Harriet Glazier, assistant professor of mathematics at the UCLA campus, are the other faculty members to be retired in July.

BOLTON PROMINENT AS LATIN-AMERICAN HISTORIAN

Professor Bolton, who early this year said he would continue with other work upon being retired from active teaching, is director of the Bancroft library. Sather professor of history, and has won renown for his writings in the field of Spanish-American history. He has served on the University faculty for 30 years, teaching previously at Texas University and at Stanford.

Dr. McMurray, professor of law at the University for 33 years, is a graduate of the University and of Hastings college of law. He was dean of the School of Jurisprudence from 1923 to 1926, and has also taught at Columbia, Michigan and Stanford universities.

Professor Teggart, a faculty member for 29 years, received his early education in his native country, Ireland, before being graduated from Stanford.

PROFESSOR BEGINS UNIVERSITY CAREER IN 1911

Beginning as an associate professor of history at the University in 1911, and of social institutions in 1919, he was made full professor of social institutions in 1925. He is the author of several textbooks and numerous articles.

Dean Porter, professor of medicine and lecturer in medical history and bibliography at the San Francisco campus, has served as head of the medical school since 1927.

Dr. Walker, a graduate of Harvard university, was associate professor of medical zoology at the University of Philippines before joining the University faculty in 1914.

Miss Glazier, retiring at UCLA, has taught at the Los Angeles campus for 20 years.

Geology Professor Will Be Research Lecturer

Selection of Dr. George D. Louderback, professor of geology, as lecturer for the Faculty Research lecture Tuesday, March 26 in Wheeler auditorium, was announced yesterday by the Academic Senate.

Dr. Louderback will speak on the topic "Recent Geologic Events and the Transformation of Our Landscape." The lecture will be open to the public.

Warriors?

NO, ROTC

What looked like a couple of Martian warriors invading the campus yesterday proved to be only two ROTC students experimenting with the Signal Corps' new portable two-way radio sets.

The new sets, nicknamed "walkie-talkie", were developed about a year ago to facilitate army communications. Weighing about 25 pounds, the battery-operated radios can operate on nearly 30 wave bands, and have a useful range of five miles. Care must be exercised in the use of the radios to prevent interference with police and commercial broadcasts, in accordance with federal regulations.

On occasion, communication has been established over unusually long distances. While in use in Southern California recently, one of the sets received signals from Texas, it was reported.

Dean Censures Health Group For Posters

Elmer C. Goldsworthy, assistant dean of undergraduates, revealed yesterday that last Friday he censured the Student Health committee for alleged vulgarity of its recent poster display in Eshleman court.

Goldsworthy told Irving Terrich '40, Student Health committee chairman, that his group would be given "another chance."

The smuttiness derided by "Disgusted '40" in the Ice Box appeared in the display because of ignorance rather than maliciousness, Goldsworthy stated.

All posters placed in Eshleman court must receive approval from the dean of undergraduate's office, he explained.

Further violation of an "unwritten rule" of Eshleman court occurred in the mention of a commercial lighting concern on the poster, he added.

Goldsworthy said that when he signed the receipt permitting exhibition of the display, he assumed that there would be little deviation from the committee's lighting display of last semester.

Goldsworthy urged all groups intending to put up posters in the court to consult him before having the posters made.

California Nine Varsity Leaper Set for Fray With Bulldogs

Two Other Tilts Slated For Bears This Week; League Game Saturday

By Bert Nelson '42

In the first of three games scheduled for this week, the Varsity nine will oppose Fresno State college at 3:15 p.m. today on Edwards field.

FIRST ENCOUNTER

Today's encounter will be the first time the Bulldogs and Bears have met in baseball. According to Coach Clint Evans the tilt was scheduled last fall in line with the policy of helping small college baseball.

While Evans knows little or nothing of the quality of the Staters, he believes the visitors will display a good brand of ball. The Bear coach bases his belief on the consistently fine teams in all sports turned out by the valley institution in past years.

Choice of a starting battery has not yet been made but the Clinter indicated yesterday that either Al White or Dick David would take the mound against the Bulldogs. Carl Hoberg is slated to open behind the plate with Wendell Bundy expected to see action if Hoberg's slight leg injury necessitates his removal.

EVANS IN DARK Chief source of information regarding the Santa Barbara outfit is the split series with San Jose State last weekend. Otherwise Evans is as much in the dark about the Gauchos as he is concerning Fresno.

Another known factor is the 5-2 win which the Bears scored over the Broncos earlier in the season. With a pair of non-conference tilts to keep the players busy during the week, Evans feels confident California will be in top shape for the all important Santa Clara set-to during the holidays.

Red Strader Succeeds Slip Madigan as St. Mary's Grid Coach

MORAGA, Cal., March 18.—(UP)—Norman (Red) Strader, who once took a fling at professional baseball, became head football coach today at St. Mary's college, replacing his former boss, Edward Patrick Madigan, who was ousted last week.

Strader, a ready-made coach who is well-liked at St. Mary's both by the faculty and students, signed a three-year contract at his alma mater. Terms of the agreement were not disclosed.

Bear Handball Team To Meet Central 'Y'

California's Varsity handball team will travel to San Francisco today to meet the Central 'Y' at 8 p.m. on the latter's court. Thursday the Bear squad will leave for a match in Los Angeles with UCLA.

MEL LONG, Varsity high jumper, who will leap against the Stanford cindermen Saturday on Edwards field in the initial "Bear-Indian Relays".

Varsity Track Aggregation to Begin Practice

Bear Pole Vaulters May Sweep Bamboo Event In Meet With Stanford

Reflecting on the first "Bear-Indian" Relays next Saturday which opens the California Varsity track schedule, Coach Brutus Hamilton declared that the pole vault will be the event in which the Bears have the best chance of coping all five points.

With two lettermen and five other outstanding prospects the Bears will be able to field a team whose aggregate height should better Stanford's four man total.

Holder of the best outdoor record turned in by present Bear vaulters is Pat McCarthy at 13 ft. 7 1/2 in. McCarthy and Earl Ford, another bamboo expert, are Big "C" winners.

Home Courts To Aid Bears

Change to Troy's Slow Surface Deciding Factor In Tennis Squad's Loss

With the advantage of the home courts in their favor, the Blue and Gold tennis squad will attempt to even up their two match series against Southern California at 2 p.m. Thursday.

Tom Stow, Bear coach, stated that the long trip south and the change from California's fast courts to the Trojans' comparatively slow ones were a deciding factor in the Bears' ragged 6 to 3 loss to Troy Friday.

However Stow predicted that home courts and the improved form that the squad showed during yesterday's drill would bring forth a display of the best inter-collegiate tennis in the nation when the Bears meet the Trojans.

If California defeats Southern California, the team will be in a position to retain their conference title or to gain a tie for it.

After watching the squad practice, Stow hinted at a possible shake-up in the positions which might allow Wally Meyer and Bill Swan to see action in the singles play.

The decision as to whether they would play and whom they would replace will not be made by the Bear coach until he has had an opportunity to watch the men work out this week.

Busy Week 22 EVENTS LISTED

Although all classes will be suspended from Thursday to Monday, California teams will nevertheless meet in 22 contests during the week. Following is the schedule:

- Today: Baseball, Fresno State, here. Baseball (frosh), Chico high, here. Tomorrow: Boxing, UCLA, here. Ice Hockey, Santa Rosa JC, Sacto. Rugby, British Columbia, there. Wrestling, Santa Clara, here. Thursday: Baseball, Santa Barbara State, here. Baseball (frosh), Alameda high, here. Skiing, PCC Champ, Rainier. Golf, USC, Claremont. Tennis, USC, here. Friday: Crew, Oregon State, here. Fencing, Open Sabers, Olymp club, Gelf, S. F. State, Tilden. Handball, UCLA, there. Skiing, PCC Champ, Rainier. Saturday: Baseball, Santa Clara, here. Baseball (frosh), Albany high, here. Rugby, B. C. All-Stars, there. Skiing, PCC Champ, Rainier. Track, Stanford Relays, here. Track (frosh), Sacto, JC, here.

Bear Crews To Race on Estuary Today

Winner to Meet Beavers On Friday; Shellmen Suffer From Influenza

Two junior Varsity shells, the Shasta and the Golden Gate, will shove off onto the waters of the Oakland estuary at approximately 5 p.m. today to meet in a race to determine which will be pitted against the Oregon State Beavers on Friday.

Both crews have been battling for weeks to reach the so-called semi-finals and today's race is expected to be closely contested.

The two eights, as well as all other Varsity crewmen, are just recovering from a collective attack of flu, and thus won't be up to par. Coach Ky Ehrhart, however, expects the shellmen to be in better condition on Friday.

Oregon's eight, which is now in Los Angeles, will meet the UCLA shell today in the Southern city.

The boatings of today's competitive crews are: Shasta; stroke, Hilton Watters; No. 7, Earle Durlay; No. 6, Roy Newman; No. 5, Dean Colbert; No. 4, Doyle Doble; No. 3, Hillard Bain; No. 2, Bob Switzer; bow, Charles Kieruff; and cox, Bob Johnson.

Golden Gate; stroke, Bob Noyes; No. 7, John Garvey; No. 6, Ronald Matthew; No. 5, Bob Andresen; No. 4, Bill Rawn; No. 3, Sutherland Skerry; No. 2, Al Daggett; bow, Bob Sproul; and cox, Louis Levey.

Two Boxers Out of Meet

Neither Captain Juel Droubay nor Benny Mitchell will answer the bell tomorrow night in the intercollegiate dual meet between the boxing teams of California and UCLA at 8 p.m. in the Gymnasium for Men.

While fighting his way to the finals in the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate Conference matches held in Sacramento Thursday and Friday, Mitchell received a cut over his eye. It will not mend in time for the meet with the Bruins. Fighting in his place will be Len Wollame.

Captain Droubay, away on a field trip Wednesday, will be replaced in the 145-pound class by Bob McEerly.

California Ski Team To Enter Championships

California's Varsity ski team will leave at 7:30 p.m. today from the Berkeley station, bound for Mt. Rainier and the Pacific Coast Conference championships.

The Bears are expected to be strong contenders for the title, with the University of Washington, the host, rated as its toughest competitor. Along with the Huskies, the UCLA Bruins are feared as a dark horse entrant.

Grid Aspirants to Hold Fourth Scrimmage of Spring Practice Session

Stub Allison's group of spring gridiron aspirants went through a light practice session yesterday on Edwards field in preparation for a scrimmage to be held today.

Today's contact work will be the fourth scrimmage of the spring training period for the men who will make up the 1940 Varsity. The last of these workouts which was held Friday stressed defensive work and the team as a whole looked good, according to Bob Herwig, assistant coach.

Rugger Will Seek Revenge In Clash With University Of British Columbia Tomorrow

With revenge in their hearts, but a day's relaxation on their hands, 17 Varsity rugby men rested today in Vancouver, where they play the University of British Columbia tomorrow.

The doctor—Coach Miles Hudson—didn't order the change of climate—he's satisfied with the Bears, who have lost only once this year. But he would like to see them account for last year's defeat by the Canadians at Treasure Island.

Minus injured Fred Davey, who didn't get to make the northern jaunt, the Bear rugger will follow up tomorrow's clash, with another, against the Vancouver All-Stars.

Dick Folmer, who kicked a 55-yard goal to enable the Bears to beat USC earlier in the season, is slated to fill Davey's spot at five-eighths, pairing with Al Lindeburg.

A triumph tomorrow for California would be especially tasty for Bill Hutters, Captain Charlie Grainger, Pete Youdall, Earl Snell, Ted Staffier and Lindeburg, who were in last season's game.

When the two teams meet tomorrow a mythical rugby championship of the Pacific coast will be at stake. The starting lineup follows: Sid Shelton, Jean Witter, Paul Holmes, Youdall, Snell, Munroe Benson and Jesse Wilson, forwards; Staffier, wing forward; Jim Warren, halfback; Lindeburg and Folmer, 5/8; Will Rogers 3/4; Hutters and Glenn Whalen, wing backs; and Charlie Grainger, fullback.
