

Ana Laura – Giver Of Life Lyrics

You cause the sun to rise
You make the waves ride to the shore
We marvel at Your ways
With every breathe we praise You, Lord
From the dust in Your own image
You found in us that we might live

You are the Maker of beautiful things
Divine Creator of heaven and earth
Every creature and all of the universe sings
Of Your goodness and Your mercy
Giver of Life

The tapestry of spring
The change in the sky
The wing on a bird
You're truth in black and white
We celebrate the light of Your Word
When our eyes are blind You touched us
When we were defiled
You came to save us

You are the Maker of beautiful things
Divine creator of heaven and earth
Every creature and all of the universe sings
Of Your goodness and Your mercy
Giver of Life

We lift our voices to praise You
And Your glory
We worship You
We lift our hearts before You
You give us life and love
You are my hope and my soul

We marvel at Your ways
With every breathe we praise You, Lord

You are the Maker of beautiful things
Divine Creator of heaven and earth
Every creature and all of the universe sings
Of Your goodness and Your mercy
Giver of Life
