Family Devotions

Hopefully your preteen is beginning to develop a habit of personal devotions. But there are still plenty of times when your input is needed—and valued. Encourage your child to read the daily Scriptures. Read the verses yourself. Use the questions to help your preteen understand the verses and apply them to life. Discover and learn from God’s Word—together!

- SUNDAY—Read Romans 1:18-20.
How do you think created things (trees, plants, animals) prove that there has to be a creator? How can we see God’s power revealed in His creation?
- MONDAY—Read Psalm 33:6-9.
How does it make you feel when you think about all that God has made? What can we do today to show God how thankful we are for all He has created for us?
- TUESDAY—Read Colossians 1:13-17.
According to this Scripture, Jesus is the image of the invisible God. Knowing that Jesus is the supreme authority, what should be our attitude toward Him?
- WEDNESDAY—Read Genesis 1:27-31.
God saved the best creation for last. In what ways did God show His love for people? How does God show His love for us today?
- THURSDAY—Read 2 Peter 3:3-7.
According to this Scripture, what do people deliberately forget? How should this Scripture motivate us to live godly lives?
- FRIDAY—Read Luke 8:22-25.
Only the creator of the wind and water could do this miracle. How did the disciples react when Jesus calmed the storm? How do you react to this truth?
- SATURDAY—Read Ecclesiastes 12:1.
Why is it important for us to remember God while we are young? How can we improve our relationships with God, our creator?
