Family Devotions

Hopefully your preteen is beginning to develop a habit of personal devotions. But there are still plenty of times when your input is needed—and valued. Encourage your child to read the daily Scriptures. Read the verses yourself. Use the questions to help your preteen understand the verses and apply them to life. Discover and learn from God’s Word—together!

- SUNDAY—Read Ephesians 3:16-19.
Why is it important to pray? What are the strengths that come with praying?
- MONDAY—Read 2 Corinthians 4:4-6.
How does Satan blind people? Who is the “light of the world”?
- TUESDAY—Read 1 Peter 5:8, 9.
What does it mean to be self-controlled? How do we know the devil is our enemy? Why do you think the devil is referred to as a “roaring lion”? What does it mean to resist the devil?
- WEDNESDAY—Read Philippians 4:13.
What things might cause us to lose our faith and trust in God? What can the strength of Jesus help us do?
- THURSDAY—Read Ephesians 6:10-18.
What are some of the devil’s schemes? Why is it important to stand our ground? Why do we need the “armor” mentioned by Paul?
- FRIDAY—Read Genesis 3:1-7.
What does the Scripture mean when it refers to the serpent being “more crafty”? How does the devil trick us into doing things God does not want us to do?
- SATURDAY—Read Matthew 4:1-11.
According to the text, what was the strength of Jesus against the tempter? How does Satan get us to doubt ourselves? How do we overcome temptation?
