

Together Time

Jesus Is Alive! Matthew 28:1-10

Family Talk

How does your family celebrate birthdays or holidays? What other occasions do you celebrate together? Promotions? Good grades? Do you prepare favorite meals? Do you call or e-mail family members when you have good news to share?

Jesus is alive! What a reason to celebrate. Make this a week of celebration. Share your favorite Bible stories of Jesus' time on earth. Choose a praise song to sing to Jesus each day. Prepare a family e-mail to send to friends or relatives telling what you did on Resurrection Sunday. Together, thank God that Jesus is alive! Help your child understand that every day can be a day of celebration because Jesus lives and loves us more than we can ever imagine.

Bible Memory FUN

Matthew 16:16

Show your child the two parts of the Bible—Old Testament and New Testament. Find Matthew 16:16 in a family Bible. Read and say the verse together.

This week, help your child remember:

Jesus is alive!

Family Fun...

Breakfast Celebration. Schedule a day when everyone in your family can eat breakfast together. Make your family's favorite breakfast foods. Enjoy eating and talking together. At the conclusion of breakfast, read Matthew 28:1-10. Pray and thank God for Jesus. Take turns sharing with each other activities you will be doing in the day ahead. Conclude by praying for one another.

Daily Talks with God

Use these thoughts at mealtimes, bedtimes, or other times when you pray with your child this week.

Hallelujah! Jesus is alive!

Dear God, help us to tell others that Jesus is alive.

Articles by Wendy Wagoner

