Family Devotions

Hopefully your preteen is beginning to develop a habit of personal devotions. But there are still plenty of times when your input is needed—and valued. Encourage your child to read the daily Scriptures. Read the verses yourself. Use the questions to help your preteen understand the verses and apply them to life. Discover and learn from God's Word—together!

- SUNDAY—Read 2 Corinthians 12:7-9.
Have you ever pleaded to God to take away a hardship in your life? How did you learn to rely upon God's grace in the situation?
- MONDAY—Read Exodus 4:10-12.
Moses felt that his lack of eloquence would hinder him from serving God. What do you let hinder you from serving God? Are you willing to let God help and teach you so you can serve Him?
- TUESDAY—Read 1 Timothy 4:7-12.
How might being young be seen as a weakness? What does God say about being young?
- WEDNESDAY—Read Joshua 1:1-9.
Think of a time when you felt less than courageous. Was it due to a weakness of yours? How does God say you can succeed despite your weaknesses? What promise did God give in Joshua 1:9?
- THURSDAY—Read 1 Samuel 16:7-13.
If you were searching for someone to help you carry out an important job, what qualities would you look for? According to this passage, what does God look at when He chooses His workers?
- FRIDAY—Read 2 Corinthians 12:10.

Does this verse sound like the standard attitude of yourself and the people around you? Why is it hard to accept that God uses us when we are weak?

- SATURDAY—Read Colossians 3:23, 24.
When it comes to serving, why do our weaknesses matter very little? What should be our purpose for serving others?
