Two Friends Follow Jesus: John 1:43-49

Family Talk

In this week's Bible lesson, your child learned about Jesus choosing His first followers. You can help your child learn to follow Jesus too, even as a preschooler.

Read or tell stories about men and women who, like the disciples, chose to follow Jesus full time. Tell about ministers, people on your church staff, and missionaries—preferably people you know. Talk about ways your child can follow Jesus full time too. While your child can't go to Africa as a missionary might do, she can pray to Jesus, read the Bible, go to church, and give money to help the missionaries.

Most importantly, talk about ways your child can follow Jesus by imitating Him—loving others, sharing, and thinking of others before herself.

Bible Memory FUN

Matthew 4:19

Find this verse in a family Bible. Take turns saying the Bible words to one another, using different voice inflections and hand motions.

This week, help your child remember:

Jesus wants us to tell others about Him.

Family Fun...

Follow the Leader. Pick a leader and let her lead in this familiar children's game.

Everyone in the family is to follow her lead, whether she walks silly, does a dance, or makes funny faces. Let everyone have a turn as leader, even Mom and Dad. Afterward, talk about how Jesus is our one true leader.

We are to follow Him and love people as He did.

Daily Talks with God

Use these thoughts at mealtimes, bedtimes, or other times when you pray with your child this week.

Jesus, I want to follow You like the friends in our Bible story did.

Thank You, God, for my friend _____ (name).

Jesus really is the Son of God!
