Family Devotions

Hopefully your preteen is beginning to develop a habit of personal devotions. But there are still plenty of times when your input is needed—and valued. Encourage your child to read the daily Scriptures. Read the verses yourself. Use the questions to help your preteen understand the verses and apply them to life. Discover and learn from God’s Word—together!

- SUNDAY—Read Hebrews 6:18.
God never lies. Why would it be hard to put our faith in God if He didn’t always tell the truth? Can our family and friends always put their faith in what we say?
- MONDAY—Read Proverbs 12:19-22.
Do lies generally remain hidden or does the truth tend to come out in the end? What are some examples of this that you have experienced?
- TUESDAY—Read Acts 5:1-5.
Why do you think God struck Ananias dead? Why is it impossible to lie to God?
- WEDNESDAY—Read 2 Kings 12:13-15.
The men building the temple had shown themselves to be trustworthy. What are some ways we can show members of our family that we are trustworthy?
- THURSDAY—Read Leviticus 19:35, 36.
These verses warned business owners not to cheat their customers by using scales that weighed merchandise heavier than it really was. Why is telling a half-truth the same as telling a lie?
- FRIDAY—Read Revelation 21:8.
Have you ever lied, and then had to keep telling lies to cover up the previous lies? What happened? Revelation 21:8 shows that those who try to deceive others will someday be held accountable for their sin.
- SATURDAY—Read Proverbs 24:26.
It’s refreshing to find someone who is always honest. With God’s help, commit to always tell the truth, no matter the cost.
