Family Devotions

Hopefully your preteen is beginning to develop a habit of personal devotions. But there are still plenty of times when your input is needed—and valued. Encourage your child to read the daily Scriptures. Read the verses yourself. Use the questions to help your preteen understand the verses and apply them to life. Discover and learn from God’s Word—together!

- SUNDAY—Read 2 Corinthians 9:10, 11.
According to verse 11, for what purpose did God make the Corinthians Christians “enriched in every way”? How can our family generously use for others this week the “riches” God has given us?
- MONDAY—Read Deuteronomy 15:7, 8.
Why are some people hardhearted and tightfisted about helping the poor? Do you remember a time when our family needed something? How can our experiences of being in need affect how we treat other people who are in need?
- TUESDAY—Read James 2:14-17.
What does our giving (or lack of giving) to those in need say about our faith? Why isn’t it enough just to tell someone that we care about his needs?
- WEDNESDAY—Read Luke 12:32-34.
Why do Christian ministries and missionaries need money to tell others about Jesus? How can we use what God has given us to help others?
- THURSDAY—Read Acts 4:32-35.
How is the church like a family? Why should we share with other people in our congregation? What are some ways we can do this?
- FRIDAY—Read Romans 12:20; 5:8, 10.
Why does God want us to share not only with our friends, but also with our enemies? How did Jesus treat us while we were still His enemies?
- SATURDAY—Read Acts 20:35.
Would you rather receive a gift or give a gift? What is one way our family can give to someone in need?
