Michael Harrison is an associate in the Trial Department of Davis Graham & Stubbs LLP. His practice focuses on general commercial litigation.

Prior to joining DGS, Mr. Harrison served as a law clerk to the Honorable M. Page Kelley of the U.S. District Court, District of Massachusetts and the Honorable Raymond P. Moore of the U.S. District Court, District of Colorado. As a law clerk, he worked on a wide array of civil and criminal matters, which included discovery disputes, dispositive motions, and trials.

Mr. Harrison earned his J.D. magna cum laude from Boston College Law School where he was elected to the Order of the Coif. While in law school, he completed a six-month, full-time externship at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Massachusetts in the Major Crimes Unit of the Criminal Division. As an extern, he assisted with several trials and drafted motions. In addition to his externship, Mr. Harrison also participated in Boston College Law School's Civil Litigation clinic, wherein he represented indigent clients through negotiations, motion practice, and oral advocacy.

Mr. Harrison graduated from Northeastern University with a B.S. magna cum laude in Criminology and Criminal Justice.

He is a member of the Colorado and Denver Bar Associations.
