Rachael Lechner is a member of the Natural Resources Department of Davis Graham & Stubbs LLP. Her practice has an emphasis on assisting oil and gas clients with the legal questions that arise in their day-to-day operations; corporate transactions; oil, gas, and mineral title examination; the preparation of drilling and division order title opinions; and quiet title actions. Ms. Lechner's title work is primarily focused in Colorado and Wyoming.

Prior to joining DGS, Ms. Lechner was senior counsel at a boutique oil and gas law firm in Denver. She also has recent private practice experience representing clients in a variety of industries, including energy, fast food, hospitality, banking and financial services, and construction. Before attending law school, Ms. Lechner served as a financial analyst for three different Denver-based companies, two of which are Fortune 300 companies.

Ms. Lechner is a member of the 2014 Colorado Oil and Gas Association's Energy Generation Leadership Program (EnGen) class. She is a member of the Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Foundation and Women in Energy.
