

MIKE S. RICHARDSON

DAVIS
GRAHAM &
STUBBS

Associate ▪ mike.richardson@dgsllaw.com ▪ 303.892.7320

EXPERTISE

Trial, Bankruptcy & Creditors' Rights

EDUCATION

University of Colorado Law School, J.D., 2015
Colorado College, with distinction, B.A., 2009

ADMITTED IN

Colorado

Mike Richardson is an associate in the Trial Department of Davis Graham & Stubbs LLP. His experienced litigation and transactional skills make him well suited for complex financial restructurings and bankruptcy matters.

Recently, Mr. Richardson was named among the "Ones to Watch" in the area of Commercial Litigation by Best Lawyers, an annual guide by publisher Woodward/White Inc. He is a member of the Faculty of Federal Advocates and the American Bankruptcy Institute and currently serves on the board of trustees for the Colorado Symphony Orchestra.

Following law school, Mr. Richardson clerked for the Honorable Christopher C. Zenisek of the Jefferson County District Court. Prior to working at DGS, he worked at another Denver area law firm, where he specialized in litigation and bankruptcy.

During law school, Mr. Richardson served as a production editor for the Colorado Natural Resources, Energy & Environmental Law Review.