Katie Roux is an associate in the Natural Resources Department of Davis Graham & Stubbs LLP. Her practice focuses primarily on oil and gas title examination matters. Ms. Roux has extensive experience in the preparation of drilling and division order title opinions covering fee and federal lands, due diligence, and performing curative requests.

Ms. Roux's career in the energy industry began prior to law school and continued while in law school, serving as a land administration intern, landman intern, and legal intern for three different exploration companies with offices in Denver. Afterward, she was employed as corporate counsel at a Denver-based Fortune 200 company in the healthcare sector. Before joining DGS, Ms. Roux served as an associate at a boutique oil and gas law firm in Denver.
