Patricia Elias, Chief People and Places Officer, CSG: Patricia Elias is Chief People and Places Officer responsible for all aspects of human resources and workplace management, attracting and retaining top talent, and building a safe, inclusive, and productive work environment for CSG employees worldwide. Prior to CSG, Elias served as Chief People and Legal Officer for ServiceSource International, overseeing global human resources and compliance for the company. She also served as corporate counsel for ViaWest and Flextronics, and as a full-time lecturer of law and public policy at the University of Denver’s Daniels College of Business. Elias began her career practicing corporate and securities law at the firms Hogan Lovells; Brobeck, Phleger & Harrison; and Holland & Hart. She holds a J.D. from Georgetown University and a B.A. in Psychology from Duke University.