Contract For Sale

- 11. Where the Property is residential property (as defined in Division 8 of Part 4 of the Conveyancing Act 1919 (NSW)), the Agent cannot act on behalf of the Principal in respect of the sale of the Property unless the Agent has a copy of the proposed contract for sale in respect of the Property available for inspection.
- 12. The Agent is not authorised to enter into or sign a contract for sale on behalf of the Principal.

Conjunction

13. Unless otherwise instructed, the Agent may allow other agents to act in conjunction with them in order to effect a sale but only

Limit of Agent's Services

14. The Agent does not undertake to perform any other services in connection with the sale. GST

- Any amounts referred to in this agreement which are payable by the Principal to the Agent in respect of services provided 15. i by the Agent under this agreement, including reimbursement of expenses, are expressed inclusive of the Goods and Services Tax ("GST"), at the rate of 10% (the current rate). If the current rate is increased or decreased, the parties agree that any amounts referred to in this agreement will be varied accordingly.
 - The parties agree that the time of supply for GST purposes shall be the completion date of the sale.

Agent's Indemnity and Liability

16. The Principal will hold and keep indemnified the Agent against all actions, suits, proceedings, claims, demands, costs and expenses whatsoever which may be taken or made against the Agent in the course of or arising out of the proper performance or exercise of any of the powers, duties or authorities of the Agent under this agreement.

Financial and Investment Advice

17. The Principal acknowledges that any financial or investment advice provided by the Agent to the Principal is of a general nature only whose preparation does not take into account the individual circumstances, objectives, financial situation or needs of the Principal. The Principal is advised to consult with their own independent financial and/or investment advisor. Material Fact

- The Principal warrants that the Principal has supplied the Agent in writing with all the relevant details and information pertaining to all the material facts in respect of the Property
 - The Principal acknowledges that the Property, Stock and Business Agents Act 2002 (NSW) requires the Agent to disclose all material facts to prospective and actual purchasers.
 - The Principal directs the Agent to disclose all of the material facts provided in writing by the Principal to the Agent to all prospective and actual purchasers of the Property.
 - In this clause "material fact" has the same meaning as it has in Section 52 of the Property, Stock and Business Agents Act

The Property, Stock and Business Agents Act 2002 (NSW) and Regulation requires all Agent's instructions to be in the form of a written agreement.
