1. Rights and powers:

See attached Schedule.

SCHEDULE

The following rights, powers, terms, conditions, covenants and restrictions in respect of the easement for water supply are in addition to those set out in the Seventh Schedule of the Land Transfer Act 1952.

1. Any line of pipes laid along the stipulated course marked "J" shall be maintained, repaired and replaced as is necessary to keep the same in good order and repair.
2. All costs of such maintenance, repair and replacement shall be borne by the registered proprietor of the Dominant Tenement. In the event of any subdivision of the Dominant Tenement then the costs of maintenance repair and replacement shall be borne by the registered proprietors for the time being thereof in such proportions as they shall mutually agree and failing agreement in proportion to the respective land areas owned by each proprietor.
3. Notwithstanding paragraph (2) where any maintenance, repair or replacement work is rendered necessary by reason of the wrongful act or neglect of either the registered proprietor of the Dominant Tenement or the registered proprietor of the Servient Tenement or their successors in titles or their servants or invitees then the costs of such maintenance, repair or replacement or such part thereof as may be appropriate shall be borne and paid by the party or parties in default.
4. Any dispute between the parties concerning the water supply easement or the cost of maintaining, repairing or replacing the same shall be referred to arbitration in a manner provided by the Arbitration Act 1908 or any Act passed in substitution for or amendment of the same.
