ASKING PRICE $1,395,000

Perched on the foothill of Maunu Mountain, with commanding rural and city views, this striking home delivers scale, style, and substance - all on 3.567ha (more or less) of grazing and native bush. Built in the early 2000s, it represents the best of its era - bold architecture, generous proportions, and a focus on light and outlook, while avoiding much of the risk often associated with similar homes. Ahead of its time, constructed with treated timber framing and a ventilated cavity, and with a building report on hand, buyers can approach with confidence.

The main home offers three bedrooms, an ensuite, and a main bathroom. Split-level, open-plan living connects a sleek, modern kitchen with dining and lounge spaces that open to wrap-around decks and the ever present view.

An impressive extension adds a self-contained upper wing above the garage - complete with its own bedroom, bathroom, and living area flowing to a large patio. It's a perfect guest retreat or setup for extended family.

Outdoors, you'll find a 6x4m Versatile shed, stockyards, and six paddocks serviced by a potable bore. Everything you need to start up or wind down your farming lifestyle. The balance of land includes some covenanted bush - on the edge of Pukenui Forest. There are also consented (expired) plans to subdivide three additional Lots off this property - a land-banking opportunity built in. Conveniently located near town and top-tier schools, yet fully rural in feel, this property pairs lifestyle freedom with panoramic outlooks and smart reassurance where it matters most.

For those who like their space elevated, their views endless, and their connection to the world just distant enough - this one's well worth a look.
