DEADLINE SALE
1PM 10TH DECEMBER 2025 (PRIOR OFFERS CONSIDERED)

There's a generous lifestyle and serious space on offer here. This substantial Maunu home sits in a proven location and comes to market with clear intent from a seller who is moving closer to family in Australia.

Built of solid materials and carefully maintained, this impressive 290sqm residence (including garage) offers four bedrooms, three bathrooms, and a well-planned kitchen ready to cater for everyday living or entertaining. Two expansive living areas draw in the sun and create genuine flexibility, with a gas fire and heat pumps adding comfort through the cooler months.

The oversized laundry is a point of difference, offering enough space to operate as a home gym, hobby zone, or playroom. Storage is plentiful, and the flow from the north facing conservatory to the covered timber deck and fenced backyard makes indoor-outdoor living straightforward. Established gardens frame the home with privacy and calm.

A large internal-access double garage completes a home that sits proudly among other quality properties. Schools, shops, the hospital, and public transport are all within easy reach, reinforcing the strength of the address.

Well-built homes of this scale in Maunu are always a pleasure to come by. With the seller committed to his move, this is a genuine opportunity for buyers who value space, sun, and a dependable neighbourhood.

DEADLINE SALE

How does a Deadline Sale work?

A Deadline Sale is a method where a property is marketed without a price, and all offers must be submitted on or before a set deadline date. As a buyer, this means you have time to view the property, complete your due diligence, and prepare your best offer - whether it's conditional or unconditional.

Because both cash and conditional buyers are welcome, there's often strong competition. The aim is to create a multi-offer situation, so it's important to put your best foot forward. Your agent will guide you through the process, but ultimately, the seller will consider all offers submitted by the deadline and choose the one that best suits them.

What is a multiple offer?

A multiple offer situation occurs when more than one buyer submits an offer at the same time. In this case, all buyers are encouraged to present their strongest offer, as the seller will either accept one or negotiate with a single buyer—excluding others from further negotiation.

What does “prior offers considered” mean?

When a Deadline Sale is advertised with “prior offers considered,” it means the seller is open to accepting an offer before the official deadline. If this happens, the agent will notify all interested buyers and invite them to submit their offers, potentially creating a multiple offer scenario earlier than expected. If the seller accepts an unconditional offer, the property is sold immediately. If a conditional offer is accepted, the sale method may shift to “Price by Negotiation” while that contract is in place. As a buyer, it's important to stay in close contact with the agent and be ready to act quickly if you're seriously interested.
