Located in the heart of Lincoln, 5a Maurice Street presents a beautifully renovated home where all the work has been done for you!

Fully refreshed inside and out, this three-bedroom property showcases new exterior cladding, decking, double glazing, updated flooring, kitchen cabinetry and appliances, bathroom and a full interior repaint—delivering a crisp, modern feel throughout. The extensive update enhances both comfort and efficiency while maintaining a warm, welcoming atmosphere.

The layout offers open plan kitchen/dining/living that's bathed in natural light, with sliding doors to the side deck. There are three well-proportioned bedrooms supported by a family bathroom, accessed from both the hallway and the Master Bedroom. A separate laundry with external access completes the home.

A separate double garage adds valuable storage and secure parking, while an additional concrete pad to the front of the home provides secure parking for a camper, trailer or boat. Even the landscaping has been freshly upgraded with new lawn, plantings, raised beds and irrigation. Exceptionally located in central Lincoln, you're just moments from local shops, cafés, schools, and everyday amenities, with easy access to everything this popular township has to offer.
