Rev. Canon N. Williams,

"Taiping"
27 Kotare Street
WAIKANAE

The Town Clerk,
County Town Council, Waikanae

Dear Sir,

About 1966 I obtained a planning permission to build on my house site, lot 25, at 27 Kotare Street, a detached room of lockwood construction and containing a hand basin. This was designated a studio, I believe, but has also been used as a guest bedroom.

I now wish to apply for planning permission to build onto this room a small bathroom containing a lavatory, a shower and a hand-basin, the present basin being removed. The purpose of this addition is to make the room more convenient for guests, particularly my daughters, who must use the toilet facilities in the main house, separate from this room. The detached room is and will be used solely for family and friends, and would not in any circumstances be rented.

Yours faithfully,

Neil Williams.

WELLINGTON. 2

Dear Mr Gibbs,

In reply to your letter concerning the detached bedroom with conveniences upon your property in Kotare Street, Waikanae.

The erection of a second dwelling upon a property is a conditional use in a residential zone under the Council's District Planning Scheme, upon a property of more than 800m² which is incapable of subdivision, I believe your section falls into this category.

To gain planning consent from the Council you will need to make application for a conditional use under the procedures laid down by the Town & Country Planning Act providing at the same time full details of the proposal.

In dealing with an application in this case Council would need to consider the suitability of the site for the proposed purpose.

One matter which Council must take into account is that of adequate vehicle access to a second dwelling which is both safe and convenient to the occupants of that dwelling.

On site investigation in April revealed that the contours of the site and the location of your dwelling relative to the side boundaries make vehicle access to the rear of the site impracticable, and upon this account it would seem likely that planning consent would not be approved.

From the original plans of the bedroom with conveniences, it would seem that to meet with the minimum standards for a dwelling, a kitchen, laundry and bedroom would be required and on account of the siting of buildings and site contours, these would need to be arranged upon the south side of the building.

... An application for planning consent is enclosed herewith. I would suggest that if you decide to proceed with a planning application, you first make arrangements with our Mr Todd who is based in the Council Office at Waikanae to meet on site to discuss the additions necessary to comply with the Bylaw requirements for a dwelling.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sirs,

RE: LOT 23 D.P.20768 : KOTARE STREET, WAIKANAE
M. GIBBS

In reply to your letter dated 17 April 1980 concerning a cross-lease plan for the above mentioned property.

Our records disclose that the building shown as Flat 2 upon the plans you forwarded was erected as a studio and subsequently converted to a detached bedroom with conveniences.

As far as I am aware the building is still a detached bedroom, and certainly no authority has been granted, or permit issued by the Council, to convert the building from a detached bedroom to a dwelling. As a consequence Flat 2 does not legally exist as a dwelling and the plans cannot be signed.

Yours faithfully,

The detached bedroom at 27 Kotare st was converted to a detached bedroom with conveniences by a previous owner, and we have recently had this and the house connected to the new Council sewerage system

Would it be possible to have the detached building
