

TE KAMO

Welcome to 14a Puriri Street....

This 1950s residence offers an expansive 190m² layout filled with natural light and character.

At the front of the home, a sun-drenched deck offers the perfect vantage point to enjoy elevated views and stunning sunsets. A welcoming hallway leads to three well-appointed bedrooms, each featuring built-in closets. The main level also hosts a modern bathroom with both a standalone shower and a bathtub and separate toilet. A practical wet room and laundry area opens to the back garden.

The heart of the home is an open-plan kitchen and dining area designed for family connectivity, which flows effortlessly onto a partially covered back patio—perfect for year-round alfresco dining. For those who value flexibility, the adjoining living room can serve as an intimate, separate entertaining space or be opened up to create an integrated living area.

Downstairs, an internal staircase reveals significant value-add potential. This lower level features a large room (converted garage) with its own external access via ranch slider and heat pump. Then a central area which could be a rumpus room, followed by the second converted garage with ranch slider that would make a great workshop area. Good potential (subject to council approval) for a home office, guest wing, or second bathroom.

Outdoor features an elevated back garden with dedicated space for a vegetable garden. A standout feature is the massive, metalled area (135m² more or less) at the front of the property. This space is a rare find, providing ample room to securely park a caravan, boat, or tiny house, in addition to the four or more existing driveway spaces.

Located in the heart of the Kamo community, this home places you within easy reach of local shops, sports fields, and schooling.

This property represents a unique chance to secure a spacious family home with the rare ability to significantly increase equity through upgrades.
