48sqm of No Wasted Space!

38C TAWHITI ROAD

HAWERA

 1  1  48 m²  784 m²

Tucked down a shared driveway sits 48sqm of compact brilliance – a 2022-built tiny home that proves good things absolutely do come in small, very cool packages.

Modern, sharp and seriously well thought out, this funky little number delivers everything you actually need... and nothing you don't. Double glazing, heatpump, Infinity gas on bottles, and a light-filled open plan kitchen/dining/living zone that makes smart use of every inch. The kitchen is sleek and functional, flowing straight into the living space – perfect for easy everyday living or effortless Airbnb vibes.

The separate rear double bedroom is a real win in the tiny home world, giving you proper privacy (and proper sleep). The cleverly designed bathroom/laundry combo keeps things streamlined without sacrificing function. Even better – the refrigerator and washer/dryer combo are included, so you can pretty much move straight in, or start earning, from day one. Step outside to a private deck – the ideal little sun trap for morning coffees or end-of-day wines. The section is intentionally minimal (your weekends just got freed up), with parking for two vehicles and smart modern shiplap weatherboards paired with coloured Colorsteel giving it a crisp, contemporary edge.

This is an outstanding option for first-home buyers, downsizers, singles, or investors chasing something different. Live in it. Lock and leave it. Or rent it out. Either way – it beats paying someone else's mortgage. Because honestly... why rent, when you could own something this cool?
