AUCTION
4PM, 25 FEBRUARY 2026 (PRIOR OFFERS CONSIDERED)

The sellers of this modern Maunu home have already secured their next property and are committed to selling. This is a straightforward auction campaign, brought to the market with clear intent and realistic expectations.

Positioned well back from the road, the home enjoys a private, quiet setting with good separation from neighbouring properties and offers a sense of space without isolation, in a location that continues to prove its long-term appeal.

Built in 2018, the home offers approximately 229sqm of single-level living, and the floorplan is a standout. At its centre is a large family living zone incorporating kitchen, dining, and informal living - a space designed for daily life and easy entertaining. This area connects to outdoor decking through glass sliders, extending the living footprint and making the most of the site.

A second lounge provides valuable separation, ideal as a media room, formal sitting room, or quiet retreat. The kitchen is practical and well designed, with generous bench space and a large scullery – great for entertaining a crowd. Accommodation is well balanced, with four bedrooms and two bathrooms, supported by a double internal-access garage and good storage throughout.

The section is generous and usable, offering plenty of room to add a large shed if required, along with a selection of established fruit trees that add to the lifestyle appeal.

This is a modern, well-considered home in a proven Maunu setting. Motivated sellers, buyers are encouraged to inspect early and engage with confidence.

HOW TO BUY AT AUCTION

How does an Auction work?

A real estate auction is an open and transparent way of offering a property for sale at a set date and time. Purchasers compete by placing bids against each other, with the property being sold to the highest bidder (subject to reserve). The auction terms and conditions are available in advance, giving buyers time to review them. Once the hammer falls, the sale is cash and unconditional, and both buyer and seller are legally bound by the contract.

How do I prepare for an auction?

To prepare for an auction, arrange finance with your bank or lender in advance and provide a copy of the auction contract to your solicitor for review. Most auctions require a 10% deposit immediately after the fall of the hammer, so you must have access to those funds on the day. You should also complete your due diligence by consulting your solicitor, a building inspector, or a registered valuer, and checking with council regarding any renovations or works completed on the property. Finally, attending a few auctions beforehand can help you feel more confident and comfortable with the process when it's your turn to bid.

Do I need to register?

At OWN Real Estate, we encourage all prospective buyers to formally register before bidding. By law, you must also receive a copy of the Approved Buyers Guide (issued by the Real Estate Agents Authority) before you can place a bid. Your salesperson will provide this guide and assist you with the registration process.
