Further, if this is a Sole Agency, we accept the responsibility of immediately ending any current or previous marketing or purchaser interest from any other parties unless we have advised ownly in writing of their continuing interest and that is acceptable to the agent. We will provide to ownly, immediately and in writing, the names and contact details of any buyer parties who have prior and/or continuing interest in the property. We are aware that our failure to supply such details in writing may result in us being exposed to the risk of paying multiple real estate agency selling fees. Further, any information relating to those people visiting or enquiring about our property remains the sole property of the ownly sale consultant and need not be disclosed to us or any party unless the agent intends to charge us a selling fee in relation to that party.

All or any information subsequently discovered that may be of similar concern or interest to a purchaser will be advised in writing to the Agent as soon as it becomes known by the Client.

The Client will immediately notify the Company of any interference or damage to the signage and authorises a 'sold' sign being displayed from confirmation date until settlement date.

11.0 The Client has full responsibility for setting the advertised price

That any price or price indicator used is at the Client's instruction and is to be advertised as shown on this listing authority or otherwise as subsequently instructed in writing by the Client. The client acknowledges that if a price is displayed in marketing the client is prepared to accept unconditional offers at that level and seriously consider conditional offers at that level (with the proviso that for the latter the client can take into account the effect of any special conditions).

12.0 Deposit: The Client agrees to the Agent's retention of fees from the deposit before disbursement

12.1.1 New Zealand Real Estate Trust, an independent trust account service provided by SafeKiwi (New Zealand) Limited, will be used for payment. 14.0 The Client agrees to the Agent's requirements for the payment of fees, costs and charges

14.1 To pay all fees, charges and costs, the Company considers due as invoiced and immediately on demand. The selling fee is payable when the property is confirmed as sold by the Client's solicitor or when there is general understanding that the property is 'sold'.

14.2 That in the event of another agency or party brokering the sale of the property under a conjunctional or similar agreement with the Agent, the commission fee will be agreed in advance and in writing between the Client and the Agent and the other agency or party.

14.3 That if a sales agreement is signed and/or executed with a private or other party (including any of the owners) or through another agency during the term of this agreement the Client will pay the Agent immediately on demand the agreed selling fee plus any other incurred costs that have been or will be invoiced to the client by the Agent that the Agent considers due.

If a Fixed Term tenancy, the client will give the tenant written notice of the tenancy ending between 90 and 21 days before the tenancy's end date. The client will instruct their property manager (if one is engaged) to not give the tenant notice nor to release the bond nor agree to a rental reduction unless authorised in writing by the client.

For a Company Share property: supply all relevant documents e.g. the Company, accounts, AGM meeting minutes and a pro forma Sale and Purchase Agreement including the appropriate special conditions fully prepared by our solicitor.

For a Unit Title property: supply Unit Titles Act requirements (including pre-contract and pre-settlement disclosures), Insurance and Maintenance details and full details of Levies and what they cover and any other documents that a prospective purchaser may be reasonably entitled to.

For a Body Corporate: the name and contact details of the Body Corporate chairperson, a copy of Body Corporate rules and accounts and AGM meeting minutes, pre-contract/ settlement disclosure statements and any other documents to which a prospective purchaser may be entitled.

For a property likely to have special Tax/ GST status: We understand that for such property (e.g. but not limited to Lifestyle, Investment or Commercial etc) we have been advised to seek professional advice on all tax matters. *Tax and GST issues must be considered carefully when signing this agreement, when advertising the property for sale and when completing a Sale and Purchase Agreement. 17.0 Indemnity

- 17.1 The Client (and if more than one, jointly and severally) indemnifies the Agent, the Licensees and any of their respective employees, agents or contractors against losses, damages, claims or other liability arising from any inaccurate information provided by the Client or any material omissions by the Client in this agreement.

18.0 Disclosure of Information

- 18.1 The Client acknowledges that the Agent is required under the Real Estate Agents Act (Professional Conduct and Client Care) Rules 2012 to disclose known defects to purchasers or potential purchasers and not to withhold information that should by law or in fairness be provided to purchasers or potential purchasers. The Client also acknowledges that where it would appear likely that the Property may be subject to hidden or underlying defects, then the Agent is required to either: 18.1.1 obtain confirmation from the Client, supported by evidence or expert advice, that the Property is not subject to defect; or 18.1.2 ensure that purchasers or potential purchasers are informed of any significant potential risk so that they can seek expert advice if they so choose.
- 18.2 If the Agent is unable to obtain confirmation under clause 18.1.1, the Agent will inform purchasers or potential purchasers of any significant potential risk identified by the Agent consistent with rule 10.7(b) of the Real Estate Agents Act (Professional Conduct and Client Care) Rules 2012.
- 18.3 If at any time during the term of the agency the Client directs the Agent not to disclose to purchasers or potential purchasers any known defects or any significant potential risks for hidden or underlying defects identified by the Agent contrary to the terms of this agreement or to the Real Estate Agents Act (Professional Conduct and Client Care) Rules 2012, the Agent may then cancel this agreement by written notice.

19.0 Confidentiality

- 19.1 Except as otherwise provided in this agreement or as agreed between the parties, neither party may disclose any information contained in this agreement to a third party other than:
- 19.1.1 as required by law;

Vendor Declaration

We have received, read and understand the listing details, the various methods of sale, selling and marketing fees, listing conditions, a written market appraisal of the property's value (or a written explanation as to why that is not available).

We have been given the REA sellers' guide (New Zealand Residential Property Agency Agreement Guide) and other general advice regarding all the procedures relating to listing and marketing the property and know that we can seek impartial information from the Government authority at www.rea.govt.nz.

We are aware that ownly has a complaints procedure documented on its website (ownly.nz) and as part of this listing agreement.

We have been made aware that the Client may access the Real Estate Authority's complaints process without first using the Agent's in-house procedures and that any use of the in-house procedures does not preclude the making of a complaint to the Real Estate Authority.

We have given our permission for ownly's use of professionals' reports, neighbourhood information and other items including post-confirmation sale detail for marketing purposes and public disclosure.

We declare that this agency agreement and the supporting form entitled 'Property Information and Disclosure' have been accurately, honestly and correctly completed by us in all respects and that the contents of both documents can be freely disclosed to interested parties.

We have been given a copy of the ownly agency agreement thus enabling us or our solicitor adequate time to consider the terms and conditions prior to the expiry of the cool down period and/ or the listing period starting. We understand that if this is an exclusive agency agreement we cannot work with other real estate agencies while it is in force unless agreed otherwise in writing with ownly.

We have not given consents to any neighbour for any proposed work, we do not know of any Council requisitions affecting this property, we have not withheld any known material information about the property and we are not aware of any non-declared defects in or on the property, above or below ground that would affect its weather tightness, durability or habitability (including drug contamination)

We have been recommended that the Client can, and may need to, seek technical or other advice and information and a reasonable opportunity to do so was provided.
