BUYING AT AUCTION

Auctions are one of the most transparent ways to buy property. All buyers compete on the same terms, giving everyone a fair opportunity to secure the property.

Before Auction Day

Because auction purchases are unconditional, we recommend completing your due diligence beforehand:

- Finance approval
- Builder's report
- LIM report - supplied by the Agents
- Solicitor review
- Insurance checks

How The Auction Works

You don't have to Register to bid before the auction starts unless you are bidding by phone

- The auctioneer will call for bids
- Buyers compete openly in real time
- Once reserve is met, the property is "on the market"
- The highest bidder secures the property

Important To Know

- Auction purchases are unconditional
- Deposit is payable on auction day or in a reasonable timeframe
- You cannot add conditions after the auction
- Settlement terms are set out in the auction documents

Never bought at auction before?

Our Fusion Real Estate team is happy to guide you through the process before auction day.
