DEADLINE SALE
1PM, 2 SEPTEMBER 2026 (PRIOR OFFERS CONSIDERED)

For those who want to simplify life without compromising on quality, this immaculate contemporary home presents an exceptional opportunity in one of Totara Parklands' most desirable positions.

Designed for relaxed single-level living, the home is filled with natural light and presented remarkably close to new. At its centre is a superb kitchen with a generous island and full butler's pantry, connecting effortlessly with the dining area and family living. A separate lounge provides a quiet retreat, while three spacious bedrooms, including a master with an ensuite and walk-in wardrobe, offer plenty of room for family and guests.

Outdoor living works beautifully in every season. The sunny deck enjoys a peaceful outlook across the landscaped garden, while a second sheltered patio provides a private setting for dining and entertaining when friends arrive.

Schist pillars add substance and distinction, and the large internal-access double garage delivers excellent parking and storage. The gardens are beautifully established yet deliberately easy to maintain, leaving you more time to enjoy the home and less time looking after it.

Private, polished and exceptionally comfortable, this is modern living done properly - an ideal next move for retirees, downsizers or anyone seeking quality without the workload.

DEADLINE SALE

How does a Deadline Sale work?

A Deadline Sale is a method where a property is marketed without a price, and all offers must be submitted on or before a set deadline date. As a buyer, this means you have time to view the property, complete your due diligence, and prepare your best offer - whether it's conditional or unconditional.

Because both cash and conditional buyers are welcome, there's often strong competition. The aim is to create a multi-offer situation, so it's important to put your best foot forward. Your agent will guide you through the process, but ultimately, the seller will consider all offers submitted by the deadline and choose the one that best suits them.

What is a multiple offer?

A multiple offer situation occurs when more than one buyer submits an offer at the same time. In this case, all buyers are encouraged to present their strongest offer, as the seller will either accept one or negotiate with a single buyer—excluding others from further negotiation.

What does “unless sold prior” mean?

When a Deadline Sale is advertised with “unless sold prior,” it means the seller is open to accepting an offer before the official deadline. If this happens, the agent will notify all interested buyers and invite them to submit their offers, potentially creating a multiple offer scenario earlier than expected. If the seller accepts an unconditional offer, the property is sold immediately. If a conditional offer is accepted, the sale method may shift to “Price by Negotiation” while that contract is in place. As a buyer, it's important to stay in close contact with the agent and be ready to act quickly if you're seriously interested.
