DEADLINE SALE
1PM 7 OCTOBER 2026 (PRIOR OFFERS CONSIDERED)

If your wish list includes a near-new home, room to breathe and a shed that may cause serious envy, this could be the one.

Set across 1.173 hectares, the home enjoys a sunny north-facing position with wide rural views and natural light pouring into the open-plan living area. The kitchen is fresh and functional, while generous glazing keeps the surrounding countryside firmly in the picture.

There are three bedrooms, including a comfortable main bedroom with ensuite, and an easy connection outdoors to the expansive deck. It is a superb spot for long lunches, evening drinks or simply sitting back and appreciating just how close to town you still are.

The land adds another layer of interest, with attractive established planting and a natural spring located within the property boundary.

Then there is the shed. Five bays. Yes, five. Whether your interests involve cars, machinery, a serious collection of tools or hobbies that have quietly taken over the garage, there is space here to accommodate them. It may also suit a home-based enterprise or business use, subject to any necessary approvals.

The setting feels distinctly rural, yet a supermarket, cafes, restaurants and shops are only minutes away - giving you the outlook and space of country living without turning a forgotten bottle of milk into a road trip.

Modern, sunny and refreshingly versatile, this is lifestyle living with a very practical advantage. Come for the view, stay for the shed.

DEADLINE SALE

How does a Deadline Sale work?

A Deadline Sale is a method where a property is marketed without a price, and all offers must be submitted on or before a set deadline date. As a buyer, this means you have time to view the property, complete your due diligence, and prepare your best offer - whether it's conditional or unconditional.

Because both cash and conditional buyers are welcome, there's often strong competition. The aim is to create a multi-offer situation, so it's important to put your best foot forward. Your agent will guide you through the process, but ultimately, the seller will consider all offers submitted by the deadline and choose the one that best suits them.

What is a multiple offer?

A multiple offer situation occurs when more than one buyer submits an offer at the same time. In this case, all buyers are encouraged to present their strongest offer, as the seller will either accept one or negotiate with a single buyer—excluding others from further negotiation.

What does “unless sold prior” mean?

When a Deadline Sale is advertised with “unless sold prior,” it means the seller is open to accepting an offer before the official deadline. If this happens, the agent will notify all interested buyers and invite them to submit their offers, potentially creating a multiple offer scenario earlier than expected. If the seller accepts an unconditional offer, the property is sold immediately. If a conditional offer is accepted, the sale method may shift to “Price by Negotiation” while that contract is in place. As a buyer, it's important to stay in close contact with the agent and be ready to act quickly if you're seriously interested.
