

HEBREWS LESSON FIVE QUESTIONS

1. v. 1 begins with the word 'therefore.' What is the author pointing back to by addressing his suffering hearers as "holy brethren" and "partakers of a heavenly calling?" How have they become such? What is that heavenly calling?
2. What was the author exhorting these saints to do when he told them to "consider Jesus?" How did he hope this would help them through their suffering and temptations?
3. What does it mean that Jesus is an apostle? What was He sent to do? Who was He sent by? (Re-read 2:10-16.)
4. Why was it important for the author to instruct his hearers about the relationship between Jesus and Moses? What temptation in them was he addressing? How are Jesus and Moses similar?
5. Why might the suffering recipients of this message have been questioning the faithfulness of Jesus?
6. In verse 3, how does the author help his audience grasp the difference between Moses and Jesus? What is that difference? How does he hope this contrast will impact them in the midst of their trials?
7. In v. 5, Moses is referred to as a SERVANT IN God's house, while Christ is a SON OVER His house. How do these four words clarify the roles of Moses and Jesus?
8. What does the author mean when he says that Moses was a servant "for a testimony of those things to be spoken later?" What are those things? By whom are they spoken?
