MEd
in Curriculum & Instruction:
The Inclusive Classroom
Founded in 1905, Concordia University–Portland is an accredited, nonprofit, Christian university committed to sharing our Lutheran values of open discourse, intellectual inquiry, justice, compassion, diversity, and inclusion to prepare leaders for the transformation of society.

Concordia University’s College of Education is one of the most respected names in learning today, empowering educators who are resilient, serve with compassion, and impact lives beyond the classroom. We teach our students how to help their students find their voice. Part of an active, connected network of 20,000 College of Education alumni, Concordia-trained professionals continue to change the world, student by student.

CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY’S MASTER OF EDUCATION PROGRAMS

Our MEd programs offer relevant curricula designed and taught by an engaging faculty that includes teachers, superintendents, and principals in the field. Our five-week classes can be accessed completely online—anytime, anywhere. That convenience paired with clearly defined coursework, realistic deadlines, and the ability to immediately apply what you learn in your classroom are what make our degree programs doable and ideal for your busy working lifestyle. The potential career benefits—from higher pay to promotions—are second only to the reward of realizing the everlasting impact you’ll have on the lives of your students.

The MEd in Curriculum & Instruction core courses and capstone experience are the foundation for this program. You’ll receive individualized instruction that supports your professional and personal goals as you develop your skills as a high-impact educator.

If you’re passionate about next-generation learning, Concordia is the university leading the way and shaping the future of education.
The MEd in Curriculum & Instruction: The Inclusive Classroom program is designed for the general education teacher seeking the knowledge and skills needed to work effectively with students with disabilities mainstreamed or fully included in general education classrooms. You’ll find a particular emphasis on instructional strategies used to differentiate instruction, to serve students with disabilities in inclusive general education classrooms, and to implement the Response to Intervention model at the classroom or school level. This program does not result in Special Education licensure.

SELECT ONE CAPSTONE COURSE
CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY-PORTLAND’S MASTER OF EDUCATION IN CURRICULUM & INSTRUCTION: THE INCLUSIVE CLASSROOM IS A 30 CREDIT-HOUR DEGREE PROGRAM.

CORE COURSES

EDGR 502
Developing Character Through the Curriculum
3 credits

This course will provide teachers with the resources and skills necessary to integrate character themes and character development into their school curriculum. Course provides a forum in which to discuss and develop one’s own moral perspectives on the basis of generally accepted criteria.

EDGR 535
Theories of Teaching and Learning
3 credits

This course is designed to provide leaders with the latest psychological research about learning and guide them in exploring ways to directly apply these precepts to their current work setting. Topics include cognitive science, learning theory, and relevant teaching theories that utilize this information. The course fuses the latest biological and psychological understanding of how the brain learns so candidates can harness this knowledge and apply it directly to learning situations.

EDGR 595
Community of Learners
3 credits

Course challenges candidates to confront the tremendous diversity in their current environment and develop strategies to build community in the midst of the social, ethnic, economic, and alternative lifestyle differences that permeate today’s 21st century workplace. Course stresses the critical importance of creating community in the workplace and illustrates how that community can generate an efficient, supportive, and positive workplace.

EDGR 602
Contemporary Educational Thought
3 credits

Candidates identify, review, and analyze major trends and issues impacting the contemporary state and national educational scenes. Each class session provides students with an opportunity to evaluate the advantages and liabilities of current educational reforms and issues from the perspective of prevailing educational research as well as from their own personal beliefs and current work environment. Candidates will also consider how they can impact and influence change in their own workplace.

CONCENTRATION COURSES

EDCI 528
Foundation Concepts for Inclusive Teaching
3 credits

This course presents the fundamental concepts related to teaching students with disabilities and students with other special needs in transformative general education classrooms. Information on the history of special education and the federal policies related to serving students with disabilities in public schools is reviewed. Accommodations, modifications, and adaptations that support the success of students with disabilities and students with other special needs in transformative general education classrooms will conclude this course of study.

EDCI 548
The Inclusive Classroom: Instructional Strategies and Interventions
3 credits

The effective use of transformational instructional strategies and interventions to address the needs of all students in an inclusive classroom will be studied. Accommodations and modifications appropriate to the regular classroom that provide access to the general education curriculum specific to the categories of disabilities will be identified.

A focus on differentiated instruction and adaptations appropriate for students with other special learning needs students will be included.

EDCI 549
Effective Classroom Management Strategies
3 credits

Course addresses use of strategies and procedures proven effective in establishing and maintaining a positive, supportive learning environment for all students in an inclusive general education classroom. Practical, preventative strategies rooted in positive teacher-student relationships and well-designed learning activities as well as more formal management strategies will be studied. Effective responses to inappropriate and disruptive behavior are identified with an emphasis on academic and social behavior development that results in optimal student motivation and engagement.

EDCI 545
Principles of Collaboration and Partnerships
3 credits

Role of the general education inclusive classroom teacher in establishing and working effectively in building partnerships through collaboration with school personnel, parents and community agencies will be explored. Specific partnering and collaboration responsibilities of the general education classroom teacher as part of providing services to students with disabilities will be addressed including the general education pre-referral process, implementing a response to intervention model, co-teaching and procedures essential to the successful inclusion of students with disabilities.
"I found myself so excited each week just to see what the reading would be, so I could use it in my classroom. It was very rewarding. I never expected it to be so aligned with what I was doing daily."

- ANDRE’-MAR’QUIZ MITCHELL-FRANKLIN ‘18, Med in Educational Leadership
RESEARCH COURSES

This course provides students with the basic competencies necessary to understand and evaluate the research of others, and to plan their own research with a minimum of assistance. This course includes the basics of both qualitative and quantitative research.

The Master of Education culminates with the choice of either EDGR 698-Action Research or EDGR 696-Practitioner Inquiry. Either option provides candidates with an understanding of the role of research in the field of education as a tool to solve problems and as a way to improve student learning.

EDGR 601
Educational Research
3 credits

Candidates will learn more about the action research methodology, complete final edits of the literature review, and design a complete action research proposal including data collection methods and analysis approaches. During this course, the proposal will not be implemented with students/participants. This design provides candidates with the requisite skills and means to pursue the transformative practice called Action Research in their classroom, school, district or other work environment.

Prerequisite: Successful completion of EDGR 601 Educational Research

EDGR 698
Action Research (capstone)
3 credits

Practitioner Inquiry focuses on the reflective acts of the candidate as an educator seeking to improve teaching practice. Premised on the self-study research methodological traditions, Practitioner Inquiry provides the opportunity to reflect on teaching practice and generate improvements based on classroom observation. Practitioner Inquiry is focused on the educator and her/his own practices, developing skills of inquiry, observation, reflection, and action in teachers.

Prerequisite: Successful completion of EDGR 601 Educational Research

EDGR 696
Practitioner Inquiry (capstone)
3 credits

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

U.S. CITIZENS OR PERMANENT RESIDENTS

Completed online application:
education.cu-portland.edu/apply

Applicants must have earned a bachelor’s degree or higher from a regionally accredited institution

Official transcripts from a regionally accredited college/university with posted bachelor’s or master’s degree. For your convenience, please sign the transcript release form if you would like Concordia University-Portland to request official transcripts on your behalf.

Work History Form

Applicants must have a cumulative undergraduate GPA of 2.8 or higher*

Statement of Intent that addresses the following:

- Briefly introduce yourself to the Graduate Admissions Office and College of Education teams by discussing your professional background and your interest in pursuing a Master of Education at Concordia. (~75–100 words)
- Describe your professional goals and their alignment with your chosen program and to Concordia’s overall mission. Illustrate how your strengths and experiences have prepared you for success in the program. (~200–250 words)
- Discuss an immediate, real-world challenge in the professional field to which your degree aligns (e.g. PK-12 education, higher education, corporate training). Provide an example. What action should educators or professionals take to address this challenge? (~200–250 words)
- For candidates who earned under a 2.80 GPA, please explain what led to the low GPA and how you will succeed in an academically challenging graduate program today.

*Standard admission may be granted to students who meet all the admission requirements of the specific program to which they are applying. Conditional admission may be granted to students who do not meet specific admission requirements; however, additional material and documentation will be requested. GPA and other criteria vary by degree program; please review the specific requirement listed and contact an Enrollment Specialist if you have additional questions or need more information.
International students (anyone who is not a U.S. citizen or permanent resident) will need to fulfill the following requirements to be considered for admission into any of our online programs.

The same requirements as U.S. citizens/permanent residents, plus the following additions:

Proof of a bachelor’s or master’s degree that is recognized by the Ministry of Education from that country and that is equivalent to a bachelor’s or master’s degree in the United States.

Your university or college transcripts will need to be evaluated by an approved transcript evaluation partner to assess equivalence to a degree from the U.S.

Proof of English proficiency may be fulfilled by a required writing sample. The English proficiency requirement may be waived if a student attended their last two years of undergraduate schooling in the United States, Canada (English-speaking provinces), the United Kingdom, Australia, New Zealand, Ireland, and/or South Africa. Students born in one of these countries, yet educated elsewhere, are still required to satisfy the English proficiency requirement. If the writing sample does not prove a sufficient mastery of English, the student may be asked to submit scores from the TOEFL or ILETS exams.

International students enrolled in an online program will not be issued an I-20 from Concordia University-Portland and will not be eligible to receive an F-1 student visa to study in the United States.
