Join the City of Irvine and the Irvine Ranch Conservancy for an open space celebration in support of Earth Day.

This annual event brings the community together to highlight the importance of earth stewardship and the City's commitment to preserving its natural open spaces.

The program includes a community pancake breakfast, family-focused activities, and a guided hike along the 1.8-mile Quail Hill Loop Trail. Sponsorship supports meaningful public engagement, environmental education, and access to the City's open space system.
