Life Reflections

Robin Eyvonne McClure was a devoted mother and grandmother. She entered her eternal rest on Friday, September 17, 2021 with her daughter, Wendy by her side.

Robin was born in Gastonia, North Carolina at the old Negro Hospital on February 23, 1959. She was the daughter of the late Ollie Ruth McClure and James “Jake” McClure, Sr.

Robin received her education at North Gaston High School. She took a position at Pharr Yarns and later joined A & E, LLC before becoming a homemaker.

Robin accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age. During her vibrant years, Robin was an active member of Friday Memorial Baptist Church where she served on the Usher Board and Hymn Choir.

Robin was known as a humorous and loving person. She often called family members to ensure they were well and kept everyone laughing and feeling loved.

In addition to her parents, Robin was preceded in death by her brother, Ronnie McClure.

Robin is survived by her son, Randy McClure (April) of South Carolina; daughter, Wendy McClure of the home in Spartanburg, SC; grandchildren, Charity, Zay, AJ, Phonisa, Chris, Dominique, Rashaad, Ahmad, Alexis, Aariana, Teagan, Teleaha; great-grandchildren, Honor, Classic, Chase, Alonna, Jadan, sisters, Mary Brandon (David), Patricia Lowery (Charles), Rebecca McClure, Marlene Smith, Shirlene Segars (Eddie), and brothers, James McClure (Sherry), Paul Igenburg (Crystal), Rufus Hill (Bonnie); and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go
When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that was once shared,
miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
and each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
go to the friends we know,
and bury your sorrows in good deeds,
miss me, but let me go.

Acknowledgements

On behalf of the McClure Family, we would like to express their deepest appreciation and heartfelt thanks for all of the acts of kindness, wonderful words of encouragement and outpouring of love during this time of sorrow.

Quote of Comfort that Robin kept on her wall:

Do not worry about anything,
pray about everything
