

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not here to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
Are filled with tears for me;

I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you,
And each time you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too
So when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.

Life Reflections

Phillip Harold Tate

Phillip Harold Tate, of Gastonia, North Carolina, was born in York County, South Carolina on April 21, 1957. Phillip was the son of the late Sam and Hattie McDowell Tate. He departed from his earthly home on Tuesday, November 9, 2021.

Phillip was educated in the York County School system and worked for many years in the textile industry. He will forever be missed by his family and friends.

Besides his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother: Billy Tate and a son: Wiley Martin.

He leaves to cherish fond memories to his two sons: Brian Spindler and Phillip Martin of Gastonia, North Carolina and three daughters: Sheila Lindell and Kisha Hill both of Charlotte, North Carolina and Ashley Tate of Gastonia, North Carolina; three brothers: Robert McDowell (Margie), Donald McDowell (Peggy) and Sammie Tate; two aunts: Helen Barrow and Ozella Robbins both of Gastonia, North Carolina and a host of grandchildren, great grands, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“For I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord. They are plans for good...to give you a future and a hope.”
