

23rd Psalm

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Celebrating the LIFE And LEGACY of

Mrs. Martha Tate Clawson

SUNRISE: MAY 10, 1925 | SUNSET: JANUARY 30, 2022

Honoring Her Life

Martha Tate Clawson

1925 – 2022

Mrs. Martha Tate Clawson was born May 10, 1925, in Gaston County, North Carolina to the late Joseph Tate and the late Beulah Setzer Tate. She transitioned from her earthly home on Sunday, January 30, 2022, at The Ivy of Gastonia in Gastonia, North Carolina.

She was educated in the Gaston County School System and was a member of Pleasant Grove Baptist Church in Bowling Green, South Carolina where she was a faithful Deaconess, member of the Chorus and a servant of the Lord. She loved to eat, and you would always find her laughing and enjoying life. She will be dearly missed.

Memories shall forever be cherished by her many nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

What a Fellowship

*What a fellowship, what a joy divine,
Leaning on the everlasting arms;
What a blessedness, what a peace is mine,
Leaning on the everlasting arms.*

*Leaning, leaning, safe and secure from all alarms;
Leaning, leaning, leaning on the everlasting arms.*

*O how sweet to walk in this pilgrim way,
Leaning on the everlasting arms;
O how bright the path grows from day to day,
Leaning on the everlasting arms.*

*What have I to dread, what have I to fear,
Leaning on the everlasting arms;
I have blessed peace with my Lord so near,
Leaning on the everlasting arms.*
