

Miss Me... But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free.

Miss me a little, but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
Miss me, but let me go.

Expressions of Gratitude

Faye Ella Fewell Lowery

1942-2022

Faye Lowery, 79, transitioned to her heavenly home on Saturday morning, February 5, 2022. She was born on August 19, 1942, in Gaston County, Crowder Creek area, to the late Roberta Glenn Fewell and the late Watson Fewell.

She attended Reid High School in Belmont, North Carolina. Earlier in life, she was a dedicated church member, belonging to Pleasant Grove Baptist Church, Bowling Green, South Carolina, every Sunday until her health declined. She was a hard worker and retired from Wix Corp with twenty-eight years of service. "Mama" never complained about anything even when her health started to decline.

She leaved precious memories to her two sisters: Janice Floyd and Renette Good, Debbie Huffstetler, children: Dana Lowery (Jeff Freeman), Cynthia Lowery (Dean Adams), and Cassandra Smith (Christopher), adopted daughter: Linda Harrison, Godson: Matt Matt Shaughnessy; four grandchildren: Thearra, Chelesey, Tia and Tina; three great grandchildren: Telia, Tiana and Josh; good friends: Alice Slater and Barbara Summers and a host of other relatives and friends.
