

Earline Moton was born January 18, 1933 in Camden, Mississippi. She was the third child of the late Lonnie and Henrietta White. At the age of five the family moved to Vaughan, Mississippi where she attended Vaughan Station School in the New Zion Missionary Baptist Church.

At an early age she joined New Zion Missionary Baptist Church attended faithfully until the Covid-19 virus restricted the gathering of the church. She shared a life with the late Cleotha Ross, she will be reunited with daughter Mattie, five sisters; Lucille, Ada, Pauline, Mandie and Lillie C, one brother Lonnie and a great-grand daughter Anitanessa all preceded her in death.

Earline leave to mourn her passing two daughters; Sallie (Jesse) Dampier of Jackson, MS, Bertha Ross of Ridgeland, MS, six grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren and three great-great-grand children and a host of neices, nephew, relatives and friends.