Benediction	Rev. Robert O. Setzer

Dear Mom,

Life is sometimes strange,
As you never know the cards you are dealt.
Maybe I did not know all the trials and tribulations,
And everything that you felt.

What I do know is that with you,
A part of me is gone, for you were my best friend.
Through our ups and downs, no matter what,
We managed to keep the bond through thick and thin.

Mom, what I will remember most is your kindness
And how you always gave a good fight.
I have from you, a trait of strength, and along with prayer,
This will keep me strong throughout this plight.

And even though you're not here with me day to day,
The fond memories I cherish, as my love, is here to stay.
So, Mom, now you'll be able to get
The deserved peace of mind, as well as much needed rest.

For now you are in the hands of God.
Whose care, we know,
Is truly the best.
