

When I come to the end of the day
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared-
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Maker's plan,
A step on the road to HOME.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know, & bury your sorrows
In doing good deeds-
Miss me, but let me go.

Note of Thanks

It is with deep gratitude that we wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to the many friends for the cards, flowers, texts, Facebook posts and other expressions of kindness and sympathy shown. May God bless each and everyone of you. We shall always remember you.

Life Reflections

Mr. Paul Rendleman was the son of the late Paul Franklin and Ruth Kitchen Rendleman, was born on November 14, 1951, in Gaston County. He transitioned from this earthly home to his heavenly home on Wednesday December 30, 2020, at CaroMont Regional Medical Center, Gastonia, NC.

At an early age, he attended Gold Hill Missionary Baptist Church, Stanley, NC, and he also attended Mt. Calvary Baptist Church in Gastonia, NC.

Paul was a 1969 graduate of South Point High School, Belmont, NC. He also attended Central Piedmont Community College, Charlotte, NC.

He was employed at Wix Filtration, and as a machine operator, at Stabilus, in Gastonia, NC for many years. He was also employed at various part time jobs.

Paul was a member of the Masonry, where he was a 32nd degree Mason. Paul was a good son to his parents, and a great father to his children and he was a wonderful husband, and his grandchildren loved him so much. He loved hearing them call him PawPaw.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Paul and Ruth Kitchen Rendleman, his grandparents, two daughters that passed at birth, one sister Sheila Rendleman.

He leaves to cherish precious and loving memories: his wife of 11 years Debra D. Rendleman, five sons, Tony Rendleman (Tish), Travis Rendleman (Niki), Keith Burris (Traci), Jessie Dixon all of Gastonia, NC. David Hovis of Tabor, NC, one sister; Penny Annette Rendleman, Winston-Salem, NC, two brothers; Melvin (Ossie) Rendleman, Frank Clark (Lucille) both of Gastonia, NC, father- in-Law; Rev. Alfonzo (Naomi) Davis of Gastonia, NC, three sisters-in-law, three brothers-in-law, 27 grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.
