Dear Mom,

Life is sometimes strange,
As you never know the cards you are dealt.
Maybe I did not know the trials and tribulations,
And everything that you felt.

What I do know is that with you,
A part of me is gone, for you was my best friend.
Through our ups and downs, no matter what,
We managed to keep the bond through thick and thin.

Mom, what I remember most is your kindness,
And how you always gave a good fight.
I have from you, a trait of strength, and along with prayer,
This will keep me strong throughout this plight.

And even though you're not here with me day to day,
The fond memories I cherish, as my love, is here to stay.
So, Mom, now you'll be able to get
The deserved peace of mind, as well as much needed rest.

For now you are in the hands of God,
Whose care, we know, is truly the best.

Reflecting the Life of Janelle Monique Miller

Janelle Monique Miller (Poki) was born on June 6, 1972, in Gastonia, NC. Janelle was called to eternal rest on July 5, 2021. She was the daughter of the late Robert and Dolores B. Miller.

Janelle was known commonly as “Poki.” She was a faithful member of St. John’s Missionary Baptist Church in Gastonia, North Carolina, where she was a current member of the Kitchen Committee, former member of the Usher Board and a charter member of the Inspirational Choir. Janelle was a Hunter Huss graduate class of 1990. Poki worked at Burger King as a store manager until her health would not allow her to work. Poki was an awesome mother that devoted her life to making sure her son Ashton had everything he needed. Even when she was sick, she made sure she attended Ashton’s games, practices and any event he needed her at. She adored her son. They were ultimately the center of each other's life. Janelle was also an awesome sister, aunt and friend that had a smile that would light up any room.

She was preceded in death by her father Robert Miller, mother: Dolores B. Miller, “Granny Moote”, a brother: Christopher L. Miller; parental grandparents: John and Bertha Miller; maternal grandparents: Reverend Foster and Dorothy Benjamin; nephew; F. Terrell Miller.

She leaves to treasure her memories a beloved son: Ashton Kyle Miller of the home; sister: Sheiva Mills (Robert) Mt. Holly, NC; brother: Benji Miller, Charlotte, NC; brother: Rico Miller Mt. Holly, NC; sister: Ejean “Sissy” Hamilton (Reginald) Charlotte, NC, brother: Montrez Walker of Gastonia, NC, sister/niece: Nikki Wallace (Bobby) Mt. Holly, NC, god-daughter: Makiah Tigler and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

A heart of gold stopped beating. Two shining eyes are now at rest. We bow in humble submission to His will. For He only takes the very best.
