

Dear Mom,

Life is sometimes strange, as you never know the cards you are dealt. Maybe I did not know all the trials and tribulations, and everything that you felt. What I do know is that with you, a part of me is gone, for you were my best friend. Through our ups and downs, no matter what, we managed to keep the bond through thick and thin. Mom, what I will remember most is your kindness, and how you always gave a good fight. I have watched you, a trait of strength, and along with prayer, this will keep me strong throughout this plight. And even though you're not here with me day to day, the fond memories I cherished, as my love, is here to stay. So, Mom, now you'll be able to get the deserved peace of mind, as well as much needed rest. For now you are in the hands of God, whose care we know, is truly the best.

Life Reflections

On November 18, 2021, the Lord our God called his child home to Glory. Deborah Ann Hoke completed her journey on this side of Glory and took her rest to reunite with loved ones who have gone on before her. Deborah was born December 14, 1952 to James Cornelius Duff and Levada Hoke Hannibal in Gaston County.

Deborah was educated by Gaston County School. She was a graduate of Holbrook High School, Lowell, North Carolina. Deborah had a variety of positions within the textile and manufacturing industries. She was member of Greater Mt. Hebron Baptist Church where she was a member of the Missionary and Gospel Choir. Deborah was a Prayer Warrior and Intercessor. In her leisure, she enjoyed being around water, traveling, shopping, finding a good deal, assisting her daughter with events, and most importantly, spending time with family and friends.

She is preceded in death by her parents; James Cornelius Duff and Levada Hoke Hannibal, her sister; Ann Duff Carter, and her brother; Wilson Hannibal, Jr.

Fond memories of Deborah are left in the heart of those who loved her most: her son, Quintin Hoke, daughter; Nikki Black (Dwayne), sisters; Barbara Brannon (Larry), Darlene Coore (Colin), brothers; Taft Duff Cynthia), Richard Hannibal, six grandchildren, several aunts and uncles, a host of nieces nephews, extended family and friends.
