

FOREVER in Our Hearts

As beautiful as a rose to see,
 Was her life she lived
 so Gracefully
 She made things
 precious by her touch,
 Her selfless love lives on in each of us.
 The petals of her life fell one by one,
 Each a gift of her heart
 Yet her radiance blooms once again
 In Fields of Glory
 with no end.

Acknowledgements

We are blessed by each of you as you asked about Cynthia, called, sent cards and food, or called to share smiles with us. Cynthia loved spending time on the phone keeping up with family and her many friends daily. She especially loved being active in her daughter's lives and being available for them and their many friends to help mentor them into adulthood.

We'd like to give a special thank you Dr. Yaw A. Owusu-Addo MD and his office for providing medical care for Cynthia for many years.

Duke Hospital Transplant Team for giving Cynthia a new lease on life and extending her time with us for so many years.

Duke Intensive Care team for being so attentive and informative and helping the home going process for being a lot easier on our family.

Thank you all for the care, love, and support that was extended to our family.

Life Reflections

Cynthia Renee Russell Sadler

Ms. Cynthia Renee Russell Sadler was born on November 11, 1962 in Gastonia North Carolina. She departed this life January 29, 2022 at Duke Hospital in Durham, North Carolina.

Cynthia was the daughter of the late Mr. Maso and Mrs. Willie Mae Thompson Russell. Cynthia was a member of the graduating class of 1981 at South Point High School in Belmont, North Carolina. She received her Bachelor's Degree in Education from North Carolina Central University in Durham, North Carolina. While attending North Carolina Central, Cynthia was active in the Ladies of Black & Gold social organization. She pledged Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc. through the Alpha Chi Chapter in 1984, while at the university. She joined the Zeta Mu Omega graduate chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc, while living in Belmont, North Carolina. Cynthia was employed by the Gaston County School System for 28 years serving students at Carr Elementary School in Dallas, North Carolina. Cynthia furthered her education by earning her Master's Degree in Education in 1997 from Belmont Abbey College in Belmont, North Carolina.

Cynthia accepted Christ at an early age as a member of Mount Pleasant Missionary Baptist Church in Belmont, North Carolina. During numerous years at the church, she was active in the Youth Choir, Youth Missionary Groups, Sunday School, and the Rap Session program. Later Cynthia was active as an Adult Missionary, and a Director in the Summer Bible School department.

She leaves her two daughters Maya and India Sadler of Belmont, North Carolina to cherish memories of her life. Cynthia is survived by her brother, Richard Russell of Greensboro, North Carolina. She leaves her Aunt Carolyn Moore of Bristol, Connecticut, her uncle and aunt, Johnny Ed and Ernestine Thompson of Charlotte, North Carolina. Cynthia will also be remembered by her daughter's father, Victor Sadler of Belmont, North Carolina as well as a host of cousins, classmates, and friends.
