

Dear Mom,

Life is sometime strange,
As you never know the cards you are dealt.
Maybe I did not know all the trials and tribulations,
And everything that you felt.

What I do know is that with you,
A part of me is gone, for you were my best friend.
Through our ups and downs, no matter what,
We managed to keep the bond through thick and thin.

Mom, what I will remember most is your kindness,
And how you always gave a good fight.
I have from you, a trait of strength, and along with prayer,
This will keep me strong throughout this plight.

And even though you're not here with me day to day,
The fond memories I cherish, as my love, is here to stay.
So, Mom, now you'll be able to get
The deserved peace of mind, as well as much needed rest.

For now you are in the hands of God.
Whose care, we know, is truly the best.

The Obituary

A Life Well Lived

Mrs. Mable Floyd Falls

June 5, 1926-July 6, 2022

Mable Floyd Falls was born to the late Mack Bland Floyd and Katie Wilson Floyd, June 5, 1926. On Wednesday, July 6, 2022, God called home an amazing mother, aunt, grandmother, and loving friend to her heavenly home.

Mrs. Falls was a Phenomenal Woman of God. She was a faithful, lifelong member of Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, Bessemer City, North Carolina where she served as an Assistant Sunday School Superintendent, Church Clerk, Financial Secretary, and a member of the Hymn Choir. She retired as a Machine Operator from Rauch Industries, Gastonia, North Carolina.

In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her husband Silvo B. Falls, Sr., her siblings, Lee Floyd, Ivory Bland Floyd, Maxine Floyd Boyce, and Early Wiley Floyd, a daughter, Juanita B. Falls.

Left to cherish her well-lived life are her sons, Pastor Kenneth B. Falls (Aurelia), Marvin D. Falls (Wanda), Silvo B. Falls, Jr. (Barbara); daughter, Bishop Diane Brown; thirteen grandchildren, twenty-five great-grandchildren, two great-great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
